ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
THIRTY-FOURTH LEGISLATURE
SECOND SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Monday

March 23, 2026

Sixty-third Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Edgmon at 10:41 a.m.

Roll call showed 38 members present. Representative Moore was absent, and her presence was noted later.

Representative Kopp moved and asked unanimous consent that Representative Carrick be excused from a call of the House today. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, Nathaniel Habeger, Associate Pastor of Juneau Christian Center. Representative Story moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

With deepest respect for the religious beliefs of each person here, I invite you to join me as we open in prayer:

God, I thank you for today. As scripture tells us, I thank you that your mercies are new every morning. I thank you for breath in our lungs and minds to think and process and apply ourselves to the tasks at hand. I thank you for the beautiful state of Alaska that we all get to call "home." I thank you for each of these representatives who have sacrificed and taken upon themselves the mantle of leadership.

In the book of Philippians, the author writes, Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others.

From personal experience, I know this is sometimes easier said than done but God, I know it is an admirable goal. I thank you for each of these representatives today, that they have taken on the high calling of representing their constituents and advocating for the interests of others. Give them immense wisdom and discernment today. Give them strength and peace today. Give them joy and delight today.

And with all the decisions they are making, ultimately, I pray for the blessing and prosperity of Alaska, that Alaska's best years are not behind us, but are still to come.

In Jesus' name I pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Costello.

CERTIFICATION OF THE JOURNAL

Representative Kopp moved and asked unanimous consent that the journal for the 60th, 61st, and 62nd legislative days be approved as certified by the Chief Clerk. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

(b) The commission consists of five members appointed by the governor. The members of the commission serve staggered three-year terms at the pleasure of the governor.

(c) The purpose of the commission is to

(1) advance bilateral trade and investment between the state and Estonia;

(2) initiate joint action on policy issues of mutual interest to the state and Estonia;

(3) promote business, entrepreneurship, new venture development, and academic exchanges between the state and Estonia;

(4) promote research collaborations and funding opportunities that advance the mutual interests of the state and Estonia;

(5) encourage mutual economic support between the state and Estonia;

(6) encourage mutual investment in the infrastructure of the state and Estonia; and

(7) address other issues as determined by the commission.

(d) The commission shall elect a chair from among its members. A majority of the members of the commission constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

(e) Except for meetings held outside of the state that the commission determines should be conducted in person, the commission shall meet by electronic means. The commission shall provide public notice of a meeting at least seven days before the meeting.

(f) If the department obtains the information required under (h)(1) of this section and provides a copy of that information to the commission, the department may accept a grant, donation, or gift from a public or private source to pay for

(1) per diem and travel expenses of the commission; or

(2) other assistance and support the commission requires to carry out the purposes of this section.

(g) Except as permitted under (f)(1) of this section, members of the commission serve without compensation and are not entitled to per diem and travel expenses authorized by law under AS 39.20.180.

(h) By the 30th day of each regular legislative session, the commission shall prepare a report, deliver the report to the governor, senate secretary, and chief clerk of the house of representatives, and notify the legislature that the report is available. The report must include

(1) information on the grants, donations, and gifts accepted under (f) of this section in the previous year, including

(A) the date and amount or value of each grant, donation, and gift;

(B) the total amount or value of all grants, donations, and gifts;

(C) the name and address of each person who made a grant, donation, or gift, and the dates and total amount or value of the grants, donations, or gifts; and

(D) for grants, donations, or gifts in excess of $50 in the aggregate during the previous year, the principal occupation and employer of the person who made the grant, donation, or gift; and

(2) the commission's findings, results, and recommendations.

(i) The commission may not contract for writing services or support to prepare the report required under (h) of this section unless a grant, donation, or gift is made for that purpose under (f) of this section. The department may not provide staff to the commission to provide writing services or support to prepare the report required under (h) of this section.

(j) In this section, "department" means the Department of Commerce, Community, and Economic Development."
