One Hundred Twentieth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Edgmon at 10:03 a.m.

Roll call showed 39 members present. Representative Ruffridge was absent, and his presence was noted later.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, Brodie Anderson, Staff of Representative Foster. Representative Story moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

With the deepest respect for the religious beliefs of all Alaskans, I offer the following prayer:

Our Heavenly Father, as our leaders gather in the last days of this session and take up the mantle of leadership, bless them with:

The Humility and Patience of Moses as he led, you are leading your people to the promise land. Remaining your humble servant through the trails and tribulation of the wilderness.

The Courage of Joshua as he took the Israelites across the River Jordan. His leadership was anchored in bold courage and a firm commitment to you stating: As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord.

The Wisdom of Solomon when as a young king he sought the moral clarity to govern justly and distinguish between right and wrong rather than riches and wealth.

The Repentance of David known a as a man after God's own heart, David's character is defined not by a lack of mistakes, but by his deep remorse, repentance, and continuous pursuit of your guidance.

The Zeal of Paul - once an adversary of Christians, he found commune with you and his character shone through in his tireless work ethic, church planting, and ability to remain steadfast through physical hardships and imprisonment.

But, most importantly, let your Son bless and guide us, reminding of us all of his personal sacrifice he gave for us all, and the promise of a resurrection. That when we finally say, It is Finished, our job is done we can look all up take joy that our spirits will be renewed.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Moore.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

HB 78

The following letter was dated May 18 and received 10:39 p.m.:

"Dear Speaker Edgmon:

Under the authority vested in me by Article II, Section 15 of the Alaska Constitution, I have vetoed the following bill:

SENATE CS FOR CS FOR HOUSE BILL NO. 78(FIN) am S(efd fld H)

"An Act relating to the public employees' retirement system and the teachers' retirement system; and providing certain employees an opportunity to choose between the defined benefit and defined contribution plans of the public employees' retirement system and the teachers' retirement system."

I share the Legislature's goal of strengthening recruitment and retention for Alaska's public workforce. However, House Bill 78 contains unresolved legal, tax, administrative, and fiscal issues that create uncertainty for the State, employers, employees, and the retirement systems themselves.

Most importantly, House Bill 78 would return long-term investment, actuarial, and unfunded liability risk to the State and participating employers. Pension obligations extend for decades, and the full cost of this bill may not be apparent until years after its enactment.

If the Legislature intends to increase the State's long-term spending obligations, it must also be prepared to support the long-term revenue needed to pay for them. That requires a serious commitment to natural resource development, private-sector growth, and a stronger economic foundation for Alaska's future.

Any return to a defined benefit system must be legally sound, fiscally responsible, administrable, fully compliant with federal tax law, and supported by a durable plan to pay for it. House Bill 78 does not meet that standard.

For these reasons, I have vetoed this bill.

Sincerely,

/s/

Mike Dunleavy
Governor"
