Heavenly Father,

Thank you for Your love and grace that sustains us this day. Thank you for our Senators and their families for the commitment to serve Alaska. We come before You with hearts full of gratitude and minds open to Your wisdom. We ask for Your guidance as we engage in the important work that lies ahead. Grant us the strength to listen to one another, the courage to seek justice, and the compassion to serve all those we represent.

May our discussions be rooted in respect and understanding, and may our decisions reflect a commitment to the common good of our fellow Alaskans. Help us to remember that our actions today will shape the future of our communities and our nation. In Your name, we pray for clarity in our purpose and unity in our mission. Let us be instruments of peace and progress. Amen.
