

SENATE JOURNAL
ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
THIRTY-FOURTH LEGISLATURE
SECOND SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Wednesday

May 20, 2026

One Hundred Twenty-first Day

Pursuant to adjournment the Senate was called to order by President Stevens at 12:40 p.m.

The roll showed twenty members present.

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Father Maxim Gibson, St. Nicholas Russian Orthodox Church. Senator Hoffman moved and asked unanimous consent the prayer be spread. Without objection, it was so ordered.

Let us pray to the Lord: Lord, have mercy.

O Lord Jesus Christ, my God, accept my fervent supplication and bless the good intent and work of Thy servants, that they may begin favorably, and may complete it unto Thy glory without any obstacle. Do Thou assist those working and direct the work of their hands, and cause it to be brought speedily to completion by the power of Thy Most Holy Spirit, For Thine it is to be merciful and to save me, O our God, and unto Thee do I send up glory, together with Thy Father Who is without beginning, and Thy Most Holy, Good and Life-giving Spirit, now and ever, and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

Senator Kawasaki led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Certification

Senator Giessel moved and asked unanimous consent the journal for the one hundred twentieth legislative day be approved as certified by the Secretary. Without objection, it was so ordered.

Article 5A. Rural Health Transformation Program.

Sec. 44.29.410. Rural Health Transformation Program Advisory Council. (a) The Rural Health Transformation Program Advisory Council is established in the department.

(b) The council consists of eight members as follows:

(1) the deputy commissioner of health, or the deputy commissioner of health's designee, who shall serve as the chair and is a nonvoting member;

(2) one member who represents a tribal health organization or consortium, appointed by the governor; in this paragraph, "tribal health organization" means an organization recognized by the United States Indian Health Service to provide health-related services;

(3) one member who represents a federally qualified health center or professional organization for federally qualified health centers, appointed by the governor; in this paragraph, "federally qualified health center" has the meaning given in 42 U.S.C. 1396d(l)(2)(B);

(4) one member who represents a hospital or professional organization for hospitals, appointed by the governor;

(5) one member who represents a local government, appointed by the governor;

(6) one member who represents the Alaska

Mental Health Trust Authority, appointed by the governor;

(7) one member of the house of representatives, appointed by the speaker of the house; and

(8) one member of the senate, appointed by the president of the senate.

(c) In addition to the qualifications required under (b)(2) - (6) of this section, the governor shall appoint members under (b)(2) - (6) of this section

(1) based on interest in public affairs, good judgment, knowledge, and ability in the field of action of the council;

(2) with a view to providing diversity of interest and points of view in the membership;

(3) without consideration of political affiliation; and

(4) so that the members appointed under (b)(2) - (6) of this section collectively represent each judicial district.

(d) A member of the council serves at the pleasure of the appointing authority of the member.

(e) Members of the council are not entitled to compensation or per diem and travel expenses authorized under AS 39.20.180.

(f) The council shall meet in person, telephonically, or by electronic means at least biannually.

(g) The council shall advise the department on the state's participation in the rural health transformation program.

(h) The council may adopt bylaws for the operation of the council.

Sec. 44.29.420. Department duties. (a) The department shall

(1) establish specific criteria for scoring grant applications;

(2) publish on the department's Internet website

(A) the state's application for the rural health transformation program, changes to the application, and the state's approved application;

(B) the criteria established under

(1) of this subsection;

(C) annual updates on the grant applications the state receives, the application scores, the grants awarded, how the awarded grants are being used by grantees, and the progress of each grantee in achieving the goals identified in the grantee's application; and

(D) annual updates on all state projects funded with money received by the state under the rural health transformation program; and

(3) by the first day of each regular session of the legislature, deliver copies of the reports the department submitted to the federal government in the previous year under the rural health transformation program to the senate secretary and the chief clerk of the house of representatives and notify the legislature that the reports are available.

(b) The department may use funds received by the state under the rural health transformation program to award grants. The department shall award grants in a manner that addresses the initiatives identified in the state's approved application.

Sec. 44.29.450. Definitions. In AS 44.29.410 - 44.29.450,

(1) "approved application" means an application to participate in the rural health transformation program that has been approved by the federal government;

(2) "council" means the Rural Health Transformation Program Advisory Council;

(3) "department" means the Department of Health;

(4) "rural health transformation program" means the program authorized under 42 U.S.C. 1397ee(h).

* Sec. 32. AS 44.29.410, 44.29.420, and 44.29.450 are repealed December 31, 2031."

* Sec. 11. AS 23.20.350(f) is amended to read:

(f) An individual who establishes a benefit year is eligible for an allowance for dependents in addition to the individual's weekly benefit amount. The department may require an individual claiming or receiving an allowance for dependents to produce income tax returns, birth certificates, notices of adoption or custody, social security account number of spouse, verification of support documents, or other information necessary to verify that the allowance is payable to the individual. The allowance for dependents

(1) is $72 [$24] per week for each dependent, except that the total allowance for dependents paid to an individual may not exceed $216 [$72] for each week of unemployment;

(2) is payable beginning with the week during the benefit year in which the individual claims an allowance for the dependent and is payable for the remainder of the individual's eligibility for regular, extended, or supplemental payments during the benefit year;

(3) may not be claimed for a new dependent after the end of the benefit year or after the exhaustion of regular benefits in the benefit year [;

(4) REPEALED

(5) REPEALED].

* Sec. 12. AS 23.20.350 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

(h) On January 1 of each year, the department shall increase the maximum base period wages in (d) of this section by a percentage equal to the percentage increase in the base of contributions calculated under AS 23.20.175 in comparison to the base contributions calculated for the prior year. The new base period wage amount shall be rounded to the nearest $250. The department shall increase the corresponding weekly benefit amount in (d) of this section by $2 for each $250 increase in base period wages. The department may not decrease the base period wage amount of the weekly benefit amount."

* Sec. 11. AS 23.20.350(f) is amended to read:

(f) An individual who establishes a benefit year is eligible for an allowance for dependents in addition to the individual's weekly benefit amount. The department may require an individual claiming or receiving an allowance for dependents to produce income tax returns, birth certificates, notices of adoption or custody, social security account number of spouse, verification of support documents, or other information necessary to verify that the allowance is payable to the individual. The allowance for dependents

(1) is $72 [$24] per week for each dependent, except that the total allowance for dependents paid to an individual may not exceed $216 [$72] for each week of unemployment;

(2) is payable beginning with the week during the benefit year in which the individual claims an allowance for the dependent and is payable for the remainder of the individual's eligibility for regular, extended, or supplemental payments during the benefit year;

(3) may not be claimed for a new dependent after the end of the benefit year or after the exhaustion of regular benefits in the benefit year [;

 Sec. 10. AS 23.10.066 is amended to read:

Sec. 23.10.066. Minimum paid sick leave benefit.

Employers in the state with 10 or more employees are required to provide their employees paid sick leave as follows:

(1) [EMPLOYERS WITH 15 OR MORE EMPLOYEES SHALL ALLOW EMPLOYEES TO ACCRUE] a minimum of one hour of paid sick leave shall accrue for every 30 hours worked, but employees are not entitled to accrue or use more than 56 hours of paid sick leave a [PER] year, unless their employer sets a higher limit;

(2) [EMPLOYERS WITH FEWER THAN 15 EMPLOYEES SHALL ALLOW EMPLOYEES TO ACCRUE A MINIMUM OF ONE HOUR OF PAID SICK LEAVE FOR EVERY 30 HOURS WORKED, BUT EMPLOYEES ARE NOT ENTITLED TO ACCRUE OR USE MORE THAN 40 HOURS OF PAID SICK LEAVE PER YEAR, UNLESS THEIR EMPLOYER SETS A HIGHER LIMIT;

(3)] employees who are exempt from overtime requirements under 29 U.S.C. 213(a)(1) shall be assumed to work 40 hours in each work week for purposes of paid sick leave accrual unless their normal work week is less than 40 hours, in which case paid sick leave accrues based on [UPON] that normal work week;

(3) [(4)] paid sick leave shall carry over to the following year, but an employer is not required to allow an employee to use more than the applicable amounts of paid sick leave described in (1) [AND (2)] of this section a [PER] year;

(4) [(5)] paid sick leave as provided in this section shall begin to accrue at the commencement of employment or July 1, 2025, whichever is later; an employee shall be entitled to use paid sick leave as it is accrued;

(5) [(6)] any employer with a paid leave or paid time off policy [,] who makes available an amount of paid leave that is sufficient to meet the requirements of this section and that may be used for the same purposes and under the same conditions as paid sick leave under this section [,] is not required to provide additional paid sick leave;

(6) [(7)] an employee who is transferred to a separate entity or location, but remains employed by the same employer, is entitled to all paid sick leave accrued at the former [PRIOR] entity or location; when there is a separation from employment, but the employee is rehired within six months after [OF] separation by the same employer, previously accrued and unused paid sick leave shall be immediately reinstated; when a different employer succeeds or takes the place of an existing employer, all employees of the original employer who remain employed by the successor employer are entitled to all accrued and unused paid sick leave;

(7) an employer may, at the employee's request, allow an employee to exchange accrued sick leave for the cash value of the accrued sick leave.

* Sec. 11. AS 23.10.067 is amended to read:

Sec. 23.10.067. Use [UTILIZATION] of paid sick leave benefit. The paid sick leave benefit required under AS 23.10.066 may be used [UTILIZED] as follows:

(1) employees shall be permitted to use paid sick leave for [:]

(A) an employee's mental or physical illness, injury, or health condition; the employee's need for medical diagnosis, care, or treatment; or the employee's need for preventative medical care;

(B) care or assistance to the employee's family member relating to the needs described in (A) of this paragraph; in this subparagraph, "family member" means an immediate family member as defined in AS 39.52.960 [PURSUANT TO AS 39.52.960(11)]; a domestic partner; a foster child, legal ward, or person to whom the employee stands in loco parentis; a foster parent, adoptive parent, legal guardian, or [A] person who stood in loco parentis when the employee was a minor child; or any other individual related by blood or whose close association is the equivalent of a family relationship; or

(C) absences necessary due to domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, if [PROVIDED] the leave is to allow the employee to obtain, for the employee or a family member, [:] medical or psychological attention; services from a victim's aid organization; relocation or steps to secure an existing home; or legal services, including participation in any investigation or civil or criminal proceeding;

(2) when the need for paid sick leave is foreseeable, an [THE] employee who is not incapacitated shall make a good faith effort to provide notice to the employer in advance of the use of paid sick leave and before the beginning of the employee's workday for which the sick leave is used and make a reasonable effort to schedule use of paid sick leave in a manner that does not unduly disrupt the employer's operations;

(3) for paid sick leave of more than three consecutive workdays, an employer may require reasonable documentation as follows, showing that the paid sick leave has been used for a purpose covered by (1) of this section;

(A) [:] documentation signed by a health care professional indicating that paid sick leave is or was necessary shall be considered reasonable documentation for the purposes of (1)(A) or (B) of this section [PURPOSES], but an employer may not require that the documentation explain the nature or details of the illness or underlying health needs;

(B) [(A)] in cases of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking [,] under (1)(C) of this section, one of the following types of documentation selected by the employee shall be considered reasonable documentation: a police report; a written statement from a witness advocate affirming services from a victim's aid organization; a court document indicating relevant legal action; or a written, non-notarized statement from the employee affirming that paid sick leave was taken for a qualifying purpose of (1)(C) of this section;

(C) [(B)] unless otherwise required by law, an employer may not require disclosure of the details of an employee's or an employee's family member's health or safety information as a condition of providing paid sick leave under AS 23.10.066 and must treat any health or safety information regarding an employee or employee's family member as confidential medical records;

(4) paid sick leave under AS 23.10.066 may be used in the smaller of hourly increments or the smallest increment that the employer's payroll system uses to account for absences or use of other time;

(5) an employer may not interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of, or the attempt to exercise, the right to paid sick leave under AS 23.10.066; an employer may not [:]

(A) engage in retaliation or discrimination [,] or take any other adverse action, against an employee who uses [UTILIZES], or attempts to use [UTILIZE], their paid sick leave;

(B) require, as a condition of an employee's taking paid sick leave under this section and AS 23.10.066, that the employee search for or find a replacement worker to cover the hours during which the employee is using paid sick leave; or

(C) use an absence control policy that counts paid sick leave taken under AS 23.10.066 and this section as an absence that may lead to or result in retaliation or any other adverse action.

* Sec. 12. AS 23.10.068(c) is amended to read:

(c) Employers shall give employees who are entitled to paid sick leave written notice of the following at the commencement of employment or within 30 days after [OF] this section's effective date, whichever is later: that beginning July 1, 2025, employees are entitled to paid sick leave and the amount of paid sick leave, the terms of its use guaranteed under AS 23.10.066 and 23.10.067, and that retaliation against employees who request or use paid sick leave is prohibited.

* Sec. 13. AS 23.10.069 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

(d) Employment of seasonal workers is exempt from the requirements of AS 23.10.066 - 23.10.068. In this subsection, "seasonal worker" means an employee who is hired for a specific period related to peak business need, not to exceed six months in each calendar year."

(a) The Department of Administration may obtain a policy or policies of group insurance covering state employees, persons entitled to coverage under AS 14.25.168, 14.25.480, AS 22.25.090, AS 39.35.535, 39.35.880, or former AS 39.37.145, employees of other participating governmental units, or persons entitled to coverage under AS 23.15.136, subject to the following conditions:

(1) a group insurance policy shall provide one or more of the following benefits: life insurance, accidental death and dismemberment insurance, weekly indemnity insurance, hospital expense insurance, surgical expense insurance, dental expense insurance, audiovisual insurance, or other medical care insurance;

(2) each eligible employee of the state, the spouse and the unmarried children chiefly dependent on the eligible employee for support, and each eligible employee of another participating governmental unit shall be covered by the group policy, unless exempt under regulations adopted by the commissioner of administration;

(3) a governmental unit may participate under a group policy if

(A) its governing body adopts a resolution authorizing participation and payment of required premiums;

(B) a certified copy of the resolution is filed with the Department of Administration; and

(C) the commissioner of administration approves the participation in writing;

(4) in procuring a policy of group health or group life insurance as provided under this section or excess loss insurance as provided in AS 39.30.091, the Department of Administration shall comply with the dual choice requirements of AS 21.86.310, and shall obtain the insurance policy from an insurer authorized to transact business in the state under AS 21.09, a hospital or medical service corporation authorized to transact business in this state under AS 21.87, or a health maintenance organization authorized to operate in this state under AS 21.86; an excess loss insurance policy may be obtained from a life or health insurer authorized to transact business in this state under AS 21.09 or from a hospital or medical service corporation authorized to transact business in this state under AS 21.87;

(5) the Department of Administration shall make available bid specifications for desired insurance benefits or for administration of benefit claims and payments to (A) all insurance carriers authorized to transact business in this state under AS 21.09 and all hospital or medical service corporations authorized to transact business under AS 21.87 who are qualified to provide the desired benefits; and (B) insurance carriers authorized to transact business in this state under AS 21.09, hospital or medical service corporations authorized to transact business under AS 21.87, and third-party administrators licensed to transact business in this state and qualified to provide administrative services; the specifications shall be made available at least once every five years; the lowest responsible bid submitted by an insurance carrier, hospital or medical service corporation, or third-party administrator with adequate servicing facilities shall govern selection of a carrier, hospital or medical service corporation, or third-party administrator under this section or the selection of an insurance carrier or a hospital or medical service corporation to provide excess loss insurance as provided in AS 39.30.091;

(6) if the aggregate of dividends payable under the group insurance policy exceeds the governmental unit's share of the premium, the excess shall be applied by the governmental unit for the sole benefit of the employees;

(7) a person receiving benefits under AS 14.25.110, AS 22.25, AS 39.35, or former AS 39.37 may continue the life insurance coverage that was in effect under this section at the time of termination of employment with the state or participating governmental unit;

(8) a person electing to have insurance under (7) of this subsection shall pay the cost of this insurance;

(9) for each permanent part-time employee electing coverage under this section, the state shall contribute one-half the state contribution rate for permanent full-time state employees, and the permanent part-time employee shall contribute the other one-half;

(10) a person receiving benefits under AS 14.25, AS 22.25, AS 39.35, or former AS 39.37 may obtain auditory, visual, and dental insurance for that person and eligible dependents under this section; the level of coverage for persons over 65 shall be the same as that available before reaching age 65 except that the benefits payable shall be supplemental to any benefits provided under the federal old age, survivors, and disability insurance program; a person electing to have insurance under this paragraph shall pay the cost of the insurance; the commissioner of administration shall adopt regulations implementing this paragraph;

(11) a person receiving benefits under AS 14.25, AS 22.25, AS 39.35, or former AS 39.37 may obtain long-term care insurance for that person and eligible dependents under this section; a person who elects insurance under this paragraph shall pay the cost of the insurance premium; the commissioner of administration shall adopt regulations to implement this paragraph;

(12) each licensee holding a current operating agreement for a vending facility under AS 23.15.010 - 23.15.210 shall be covered by the group policy that applies to governmental units other than the state;

(13) a group health insurance policy covering employees of a participating governmental unit must meet the requirements of AS 21.42.422(c).

* Sec. 7. AS 39.30.091 is amended to read:

Sec. 39.30.091. Authorization for self-insurance and excess loss insurance. Notwithstanding AS 21.86.310 or AS 39.30.090, the Department of Administration may provide, by means of self-insurance, one or more of the benefits listed in AS 39.30.090(a)(1) for state employees eligible for the benefits by law or under a collective bargaining agreement and for persons receiving benefits under AS 14.25, AS 22.25, AS 39.35, or former AS 39.37, and their dependents.
