

1 IN THE SENATE

BY SENATORS MOODY,
COOPER AND McNEES

2 SENATE BILL NO. 81

3 IN THE LEGISLATURE OF THE TERRITORY OF ALASKA

4 TWENTY-THIRD SESSION

5 A BILL

6 For an Act entitled: "An Act providing for a Statute Revision
7 Commission and a Reviser of Statutes; designating the Alaska Legislative Council the 8 Alaska Statute Revision Commission; providing the Commission with competent and 9 adequate assistance and facilities; prescribing and defining the powers, duties
10 and functions of such Statute Revision Commission and Reviser of Statutes and the 11 effect of the performance thereof; and 12 authorizing an appropriation for the revision
13 and printing of statutes; and declaring an 14 emergency."

15 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE TERRITORY OF ALASKA:

16 Section 1. PURPOSE. Recognizing that there is a pressing
17 need in Alaska for a body of law which is clear, simplified, co-
18 ordinated and generally more accessible, understandable and usable, 19 it is deemed necessary in the public interest to provide for the 20 revision of the statutes of Alaska and the submission of such 21 revised statutes to a subsequent session of the Territorial Legis-
22 lature for enactment into law.

23 Section 2. ALASKA STATUTE REVISION COMMISSION. The Alaska
24 Legislative Council, as established in Chapter 69, Session Laws
25 of Alaska, 1953, is hereby designated the Alaska Statute Revision

26 SB # 81, Engrossed as amended

1 Commission for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this 2 Act.

3 Section 3. OFFICE SPACE AND OTHER FACILITIES. It shall be
4 the duty of the Department of Finance of the Territory of Alaska
5 with the advice of the Alaska Statute Revision Commission, to 6 supply suitable office space for said Commission in Juneau.

7 It shall be the duty of the Director of Finance to furnish to 8 the Commission such copies of statutory compilations and session
9 laws and such copies of all bills introduced in both the Terri-
10 torial Senate and the House of Representatives as the Commission 11 may require.

12 Section 4. STATUTE REVISER AND STAFF. The Alaska Statute
13 Revision Commission shall employ a Statute Reviser and such assist-14 ants and other help as the Commission may deem necessary and shall 15 fix their salaries and terms of employment.

16 Section 5. DUTIES. It shall be the duty of the Statute
17 Revision Commission to clarify, simplify, classify, arrange, co-
18 ordinate, codify, and revise the laws of this Territory now in 19 force, including those enacted by the Twenty-Third Session of the 20 Legislature, and prepare and have set in type for publication as 1 much thereof as is practicable and make a printed report of their 2 progress to the Twenty-Fourth Session of the said Legislature. In 3 preparing editions of the statutes for publication and distribu-
4 tion, the Statute Revision Commission shall not alter the sense,
5 meaning or effect of any act, but, within such limitations, may 6 correct the grammar, punctuation, spelling and form thereof, employ 7 standard nomenclatures, renumber sections and parts of sections of 8 the acts, rearrange sections, subsections and paragraphs, change
9 reference numbers to agree with renumbered chapters, sections or

1 other parts, substitute the proper subsection, section or chapter
2 or other division numbers, strike out figures which are merely a
3 repetition of written words, change capitalization for the purpose
4 of uniformity, and correct manifest clerical or typographical 5 errors, and generally revise, coordinate, correlate, clarify and 6 simplify the statutory law of this Territory.

7 Section 6. PRINTING AND BINDING. In any contract for the 8 printing and binding of any edition of the statutes or any such 9 reports, provision shall be made for the preservation of the forms 10 from which such editions or reports have been printed so that the 11 same may be available for the reprint thereof, which printing and 12 all work in connection therewith, including binding, shall be done
13 if possible within the Territory of Alaska; Provided, the price
14 and quality of such work shall be comparable to that available
15 elsewhere on the Pacific coast.

16 Section 7. ADDITIONAL DUTIES OF LEGISLATIVE ADVISER. The 17 Statute Reviser at all times shall advise and assist the Members 18 of the Legislature and the various departments and agencies of the 19 Territory in the preparation and revision of all legislation and 20 in all matters connected therewith; and shall report to the Legis-21 lature in respect to all bills introduced, calling attention to 22 their effect on existing legislation and to any deficiencies in 23 their substance or form or both, and shall, upon request, supply 24 pertinent information relative thereto. The Reviser and his 25 assistants shall supply the services required by this section both 26 during the session of the Legislature and during the interim
27 periods between such sessions.

28 Section 8. Funds for carrying out the provisions of this Act
29 shall be set forth in the general appropriation bill. The

1 expenditures of the Commission shall be subject to audit on the 2 same basis as the expenditures of the several executive departments.

3 Section 9. EMERGENCY. An emergency is hereby declared to 4 exist and this Act shall be in full force and effect from and 5 after the date of its passage and approval.
