Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person to knowingly publish, disseminate or display, or cause directly or indirectly, to be published, disseminated or displayed in any manner or by any means, including solicitation or dissemination by mail, telephone or door-to-door contacts, any false, deceptive or misleading advertising with actual knowledge of the facts which render the advertising false, deceptive or misleading, for any business, trade or commercial purpose or for the purpose of inducing, or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the public to purchase, consume, lease, dispose of, utilize or sell any property or service, or to enter into any obligation or transaction relating thereto; provided, that nothing in this section shall apply to any radio or television broadcasting station which broadcasts, or to any publisher, printer or distributor of any newspaper, magazine, billboard or other advertising medium who publishes, prints or distributes, such advertising in good faith without actual knowledge of its false, deceptive or misleading character.

Sec. 2. The attorney general or his representative may bring

1 an action in the superior court to restrain and prevent any person 2 from violating any provision of this Act.

3 Sec. 3. Any person who knowingly violates any of the pro-4 visions of Sec. 1 of this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor
5 and upon conviction shall be subject to punishment by imprisonment 6 for not more than ninety days or by a fine of not more than $5,000, 7 or by both.

8 Sec. 4. Any person who violates any order or injunction 9 issued pursuant to this Act shall be subject to a fine of not more 10 than five thousand dollars or imprisonment for not more than 11 ninety days or both.

12 Sec. 5. In the enforcement of this Act the attorney general 13 may accept an assurance of discontinuance of any act or practice 14 deemed in violation of this Act, from any person engaging in, or 15 who has engaged in such act or practice. Any such assurance shall 16 be in writing and be filed with and subject to the approval of the 17 superior court of the judicial district in which the alleged vio-18 lator resides or has his principal place of business.

19 Sec. 6. This Act takes effect on the day after its passage 20 and approval or on the day it becomes law without such approval.
