10 the declaration is filed, the person filing the declaration
11 shall pay a filing fee to the secretary of state of $30.

12 Sec. 15.25.270. PREPARATION OF BALLOT. (a) The secre-
13 tary of state shall prepare separate ballots for each 14 political party. The ballot for a party shall be headed with 15 the name of the party and shall have as many columns as there 16 are presidential candidates named in the declarations for 17 delegate for that party. Each column shall be headed with 18 the name of a presidential candidate, in block letters,
19 followed by the names, in upper and lower case, of all candi-
20 dates for delegate who state in properly filed declarations
21 that if selected they will support that presidential candi-
22 date at the national convention.

23 Sec. 15.25.280. DELEGATES TO THE CONVENTION. (a) Each
24 member of congress may be a delegate to the national conven-
25 tion of the party of which he is a member.

26 (b) Before the last day for filing a declaration of 27 candidacy, each state central committee shall notify the 28 secretary of state of the number of delegates and alternate 29 delegates to be selected at the presidential primary

1 nomination. The number is the number the national party
2 authorizes the state party, less the number of members of 3 Congress who elect to attend the convention as delegates.

4 (c) Unless a state central committee provides other-
5 wise under (d) of this section, delegates and alternate 6 delegates are elected at large.

7 (d) If the number of delegates given the secretary of 8 state under (b) of this section is four, the state central 9 committee, by rule, may designate that the one delegate and 10 one alternate delegate are selected from each judicial 11 district. If the number of delegates is more than four, the 12 state central committee may designate that one delegate and 13 one alternate delegate are selected from each judicial dis-

15 the additional delegates and alternate delegates are selected.
16 The central committee may reward members of the party in a
17 judicial district for significant contributions to the party 18 by allowing additional delegates and alternate delegates to 19 that judicial district, without regard to population. The 20 designations must be filed with the secretary of state before 21 the last day for filing declarations of candidacy.

22 (e) If a central committee provides that delegates are 23 to be selected from judicial districts under (d) of this 24 section, the secretary of state shall prepare different 25 ballots for each judicial district. All the ballots for that 26 party shall show the names of all the presidential candidates, 27 but ballots for a district shall show only the names of 28 candidates for delegates who reside in that district.

29 Sec. 15.25.290. PREFERRED PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE. The

1 preferred presidential candidate is the presidential candi-
2 date of a party who receives the highest number of votes on 3 that party's ballot at a presidential primary nomination.

4 Sec. 15.25.300. ✓ SELECTED DELEGATES AND ALTERNATE
5 DELEGATES. Only candidates who stated in their declarations 6 that they intended to support the preferred presidential 7 candidate may be delegates or alternate delegates. The 8 selected delegates are those in the group equal in number to 9 the number of delegates to be selected who receive the high-
10 est number of votes. The selected alternate delegates are 11 those in the group equal in number to the number of alternate 12 delegates to be selected who received the next highest number
13 of votes. If not enough delegates and alternate delegates
14 are selected at the presidential primary nomination to equal 15 the number the party is authorized to send to the national 16 convention, the state central committee shall select the 17 necessary additional delegates and alternate delegates.
