4 SIXTH LEGISLATURE - FIRST SESSION

5 A remembrance of Martin Luther King,
6 Jr. on the first anniversary of his 7 death.

8 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES:

9 WHEREAS one year ago today an assassin's bullet took the life of 10 Martin Luther King, Jr.; and

11 WHEREAS Martin Luther King, Jr. was a man dedicated to the proposition 12 that all men are created equal and to the tenets of brotherhood and love; 13 and

14 WHEREAS the senseless tragedy of his death, preceding by only a few 15 months a similar end for a man of like philosophy and dedication, should be 16 cause for each of us to be deeply saddened by our nation's loss and shocked 17 by the climate of violence which breeds such wanton acts;

18 BE IT RESOLVED that we pause today to dedicate ourselves anew to a 19 course of action in keeping with the dream of Martin Luther King, Jr. for
