15 (3) the unmarried father or mother of the person to be 16 adopted;

21 (B) the petitioner and the other spouse are legally 22 separated; or

23 (C) the failure of the other spouse to join in the 24 petition or to consent to the adoption is excused by the court 25 by reason of prolonged unexplained absence, unavailability, 26 incapacity, or circumstances constituting an unreasonable with-27 holding of consent.

28 Sec. 20.15.030. VENUE. (a) Proceedings for adoption shall be 29 brought in the superior court for the district in which, at the time

1 of filing or granting the petition, the petitioner or the person to be 2 adopted resides or is in military service or in which the agency having 3 the care, custody, or control of the minor is located.

4 (b) If the court finds in the interest of substantial justice 5 that the matter should be heard in another forum, the court may 6 transfer, stay or dismiss the proceeding in whole or in part on any 7 conditions that are just.

8 Sec. 20.15.040. PERSONS REQUIRED TO CONSENT TO ADOPTION. (a)
9 Unless consent is not required under sec. 50 of this chapter, a petition 10 to adopt a minor may be granted only if written consent to a particular 11 adoption has been executed by 12 (1) the mother of the minor;

13 (2) the father of the minor, if the father was married to 14 the mother at the time the minor was conceived or at any time after 15 conception, the minor is his child by adoption, or he has otherwise 16 legitimated the minor under the laws of the state;

17 (3) any person lawfully entitled to custody of the minor or 18 empowered to consent;

20 the minor, if the legal guardian or custodian of the person of the 21 minor is not empowered to consent to the adoption;

23 court in the best interest of the minor dispenses with the minor's 24 consent; and

25 (6) the spouse of the minor to be adopted.

26 (b) A petition to adopt an adult may be granted only if written 27 consent to adoption has been executed by the adult and the adult's

1 (a) Consent to adoption is not required of

2 (1) a parent who has deserted a child without affording means 3 of identification, or who has abandoned a child;

4 (2) a parent of a child in the custody of another, if the 5 parent for a period of at least one year has failed significantly 6 without justifiable cause

7 (A) to meaningfully communicate with the child, or

8 (B) to provide for the care and support of the child 9 as required by law or judicial decree;

13 sec. 180 of this chapter;

14 (5) a parent whose parental rights have been terminated by 15 order of the court under sec. 180 of this chapter;

16 (6) a parent judicially declared incompetent or mentally 17 defective if the court dispenses with the parent's consent;

18 (7) any parent of the person to be adopted, if the person 19 is 18 or more years of age and the court dispenses with the consent of 20 the parent;

21 (8) any legal guardian or custodian of the person to be 22 adopted, other than a parent, who has failed to respond in writing to 23 a request for consent for a period of 60 days or who, after examination 24 of his written reasons for withholding consent, is found by the court 25 to be withholding his consent unreasonably; or

26 (9) the spouse of the person to be adopted, if the failure 27 of the spouse to consent to the adoption is excused by the court by 28 reason of prolonged unexplained absence, unavailability, incapacity, 29 or circumstances constituting an unreasonable withholding of consent.

1 (b) Except as provided in sec. 100 of this chapter, notice of 2 a hearing on a petition for adoption need not be given to a person 3 whose consent is not required or to a person whose consent or relinquish-4 ment has been filed with the petition.

5 Sec. 20.15.060. HOW CONSENT IS EXECUTED. (a) The required con-6 sent to adoption shall be executed at any time after the birth of the 7 child in the presence of the court or in the presence of a person 8 authorized to take acknowledgments.

9 (b) A consent which does not name or otherwise identify the 10 adopting parent is valid if the consent is executed in the presence of 11 the court or a person authorized to take acknowledgments and contains 12 a statement by the person whose consent it is that the person consent-13 ing voluntarily executed the consent irrespective of disclosure of the 14 name or other identification of the adopting parent.

15 Sec. 20.15.070. WITHDRAWAL OF CONSENT. (a) A consent to adoption 16 may not be withdrawn after the entry of a decree of adoption.

17 (b) A consent to adoption may be withdrawn before the entry of 18 a decree of adoption if the court finds, after notice and opportunity 19 to be heard is afforded to petitioner, the person seeking the with-20 drawal, and the agency placing a child for adoption, that the with-21 drawal is in the best interest of the person to be adopted and the 22 court orders the withdrawal.

23 Sec. 20.15.080. PETITION FOR ADOPTION. (a) The caption of a 24 petition for adoption shall be styled substantially "In the Matter of 25 the Adoption of". The person to be adopted shall be desig-26 nated in the caption under the name by which he is to be known if the 27 petition is granted. If the child is placed for adoption by an agency, 28 any name by which the child was previously known may not be disclosed 29 in the petition, the notice of hearing, or in the decree of adoption.

1 (b) A petition for adoption shall be signed and verified by the 2 petitioner, filed with the clerk of the court, and state

9 the petitioner;

10 (5) the marital status of the petitioner, including the date
11 and place of marriage, if married;

12 (6) that the petitioner has facilities and resources, includ-
13 ing those available under a subsidy agreement, suitable to provide 14 for the nurture and care of the minor to be adopted, and that it is 15 the desire of the petitioner to establish the relationship of parent 16 and child with the person to be adopted;

17 (7) a description and estimate of value of any property of 18 the person to be adopted; and 19 (8) the name of any person whose consent to the adoption is 20 required, but who has not consented, and facts or circumstances which 21 excuse the lack of his consent normally required to the adoption.

22 (c) A certified copy of the birth certificate or verification 23 of the birth record of the person to be adopted, if available, and the 24 required consents and relinquishments shall be filed with the clerk.

25 Sec. 20.15.090. REPORT OF PETITIONER'S EXPENDITURES. (a) Except 26 as specified in (b) of this section, the petitioner in any proceeding 27 for the adoption of a minor shall file, before the petition is heard, 28 a full accounting report in a manner acceptable to the court of all 29 disbursements of anything of value made or agreed to be made by or on

1 behalf of the petitioner in connection with the adoption. The report 2 shall show any expenses incurred in connection with

3 (1) the birth of the minor;

4 (2) placement of the minor with petitioner;

5 (3) medical or hospital care received by the mother or by 6 the minor during the mother's prenatal care and confinement; and 7 (4) services relating to the adoption or to the placement 8 of the minor for adoption which were received by or on behalf of the 9 petitioner, either natural parent of the minor, or any other person.

10 (b) This section does not apply to an adoption by a step-parent 11 whose spouse is a natural or adoptive parent of the child.

12 (c) Any report made under this section must be signed and veri-13 fied by the petitioner.

14 Sec. 20.15.100. NOTICE OF PETITION, INVESTIGATION AND HEARING.

15 (a) After the filing of a petition to adopt a minor, the court shall 16 fix a time and place for hearing the petition. At least 20 days before 17 the date of hearing, notice of the filing of the petition and of the 18 time and place of hearing shall be given by the petitioner to (1) the 19 department; (2) any agency or person whose consent to the adoption is 20 required by this chapter but who has not consented; and (3) a person 21 whose consent is dispensed with upon any ground mentioned in sec. 50-22 (a)(1), (2), (6), (8) and (9) of this chapter but who has not consented.
23 The notice to the department shall be accompanied by a copy of the 24 petition.

25 (b) An investigation shall be made by the department or any other 26 qualified agency or person designated by the court to inquire into the 27 conditions and antecedents of a minor sought to be adopted and of the 28 petitioner for the purpose of ascertaining whether the adoptive home 29 is a suitable home for the minor and whether the proposed adoption is

1 in the best interest of the minor.

2 (c) A written report of the investigation shall be filed with the 3 court by the investigator before the petition is heard. The report 4 shall be filed within 30 days of the designation by the court of the 5 department, agency or person to make the investigation.

6 (d) The report of the investigation shall contain an evaluation
7 of the placement with a recommendation as to the granting of the peti-8 tion for adoption and any other information the court requires regarding 9 the petitioner or the minor.

10 (e) Unless directed by the court, an investigation and report is 11 not required in cases in which an agency is a party or joins in the 12 petition for adoption, a step-parent is the petitioner, or the person 13 to be adopted is an adult. In other cases, the court may waive the 14 investigation only if it appears that waiver is in the best interest 15 of the minor and that the adoptive home and the minor are suited to 16 each other. The department which is required to consent to the adoption 17 may give consent without making the investigation.

18 (f) The department or the agency or persons designated by the 19 court to make the required investigation may request other departments 20 or agencies within or without this state to make investigations of 21 designated portions of the inquiry as may be appropriate and to make 22 a written report as a supplemental report to the court and shall make 23 similar investigations and reports on behalf of other agencies or 24 persons designated by the courts of this state or another state.

25 (g) After the filing of a petition to adopt an adult the court 26 by order shall direct that a copy of the petition and a notice of the 27 time and place of the hearing be given to any person whose consent 28 to the adoption is required but who has not consented. The court 29 may order an appropriate investigation to assist it in determining 1 whether the adoption is in the best interest of the persons involved.

2 (h) Notice shall be given in the manner appropriate under rules 3 of civil procedure for the service of process in a civil action in 4 this state or in any manner the court by order directs. Proof of the 5 giving of the notice shall be filed with the court before the petition 6 is heard.

7 Sec. 20.15.110. REQUIRED RESIDENCE OF MINOR. A final decree of 8 adoption may not be issued until the minor to be adopted, other than 9 a stepchild of the petitioner, has lived in the adoptive home and the 10 department or court has had an opportunity to observe or investigate 11 the adoptive home.

12 Sec. 20.15.120. HEARING. (a) The petitioner and the person to 13 be adopted shall appear at the hearing on the petition, unless the 14 presence of either is excused by the court for good cause shown.

15 (b) The court may continue the hearing from time to time to 16 permit further observation, investigation, or consideration of any 17 facts or circumstances affecting the granting of the petition.

18 (c) If at the conclusion of the hearing the court determines that 19 the required consents have been obtained or excused and that the adop-20 tion is in the best interest of the person to be adopted, it may issue 21 a final decree of adoption.

22 (d) If the requirements for a decree under (c) of this section 23 have not been met, the court shall dismiss the petition and determine 24 the person to have custody of the minor, including the petitioners if 25 in the best interest of the minor.

26 Sec. 20.15.130. EFFECT OF ADOPTION DECREE. (a) A final decree 27 of adoption, whether issued by a court of this state or of any other 28 state, has the following effect as to matters within the jurisdiction 29 or before a court of this state:

1 (1) except with respect to a spouse of the petitioner and 2 relatives of the spouse, to relieve the natural parents of the 3 adopted person of all parental rights and responsibilities, and to 4 terminate all legal relationships between the adopted person and his 5 relatives, including his natural parents, so that the adopted person 6 thereafter is a stranger to his former relatives for all purposes 7 including inheritance and the interpretation or construction of docu-8 ments, statutes, and instruments, whether executed before or after 9 the adoption is decreed, which do not expressly include the person by 10 name or by some designation not based on a parent and child or blood 11 relationship; and

12 (2) to create the relationship of parent and child between 13 petitioner and the adopted person, as if the adopted person were a 14 legitimate blood descendant of the petitioner, for all purposes includ-15 ing inheritance and applicability of statutes, documents, and instruments, 16 whether executed before or after the adoption is decreed, which do not 17 expressly exclude an adopted person from their operation or effect.

18 (b) Notwithstanding the provisions of (a) of this section, if a 19 parent of a child dies without the relationship of parent and child 20 having been previously terminated and a spouse of the living parent 21 thereafter adopts the child, the child's right of inheritance from or 22 through the deceased parent is unaffected by the adoption.

23 Sec. 20.15.140. APPEAL AND VALIDATION OF ADOPTION DECREE. (a)
24 An appeal from any final order or decree rendered under this chapter 25 may be taken in the manner and time provided for appeal from a judgment 26 in a civil action.

27 (b) Subject to the disposition of an appeal, upon the expiration 28 of one year after an adoption decree is issued the decree may not be 29 questioned by any person including the petitioner, in any manner upon

1 any ground, including fraud, misrepresentation, failure to give any 2 required notice, or lack of jurisdiction of the parties or of the 3 subject matter, unless, in the case of the adoption of a minor the 4 petitioner has not taken custody of the minor, or, in the case of the 5 adoption of an adult, the adult had no knowledge of the decree within 6 the one-year period.

7 Sec. 20.15.150. CONFIDENTIAL NATURE OF HEARINGS AND RECORDS IN 8 ADOPTION PROCEEDINGS. (a) All hearings held in proceedings under this 9 chapter shall be held in closed court without admittance of any person 10 other than essential officers of the court, the parties, their wit-11 nesses, counsel, persons who have not previously consented to the 12 adoption but are required to consent, and representatives of the 13 agencies present to perform their official duties.

14 (b) All papers and records pertaining to the adoption whether 15 part of the permanent record of the court or of a file in the depart-16 ment or in an agency are subject to inspection only upon consent of 17 the court and all interested persons; or in exceptional cases, only 18 upon an order of the court for good cause shown.

19 (c) Except as authorized in writing by the adopted child if 14 20 or more years of age, or by the adoptive parent, or upon order of the 21 court for good cause shown in exceptional cases, no person is required 22 to disclose the name or identity of either an adoptive parent or an 23 adopted child.

24 Sec. 20.15.160. RECOGNITION OF FOREIGN DECREE AFFECTING ADOPTION.
25 A decree of court terminating the relationship of parent and child or 26 establishing the relationship by adoption issued under due process of 27 law by a court of any other jurisdiction within or without the United 28 States shall be recognized in this state and the rights and obligations 29 of the parties as to matters within the jurisdiction of this state

1 shall be determined as though the decree were issued by a court of 2 this state.

3 Sec. 20.15.170. BIRTH CERTIFICATES. Within 30 days after an 4 adoption decree becomes final, the clerk of the court shall, if 5 requested, prepare an application for a birth certificate in the name 6 of the adopted person and forward the application to the appropriate 7 vital statistics office of the place, if known, where the adopted 8 person was born and forward a copy of the decree to the department for 9 statistical purposes.

10 Sec. 20.15.180. RELINQUISHMENT AND TERMINATION OF PARENT AND 11 CHILD RELATIONSHIPS. (a) The rights of a parent with reference to a 12 child, including parental right to control the child or to withhold 13 consent to an adoption, may be relinquished and the relationship of 14 parent and child terminated in or before an adoption proceeding as 15 provided in this section.

16 (b) All rights of a parent with reference to a child, including 17 the right to receive notice of a hearing on a petition for adoption, 18 may be relinquished and the relationship of parent and child terminated 19 by a writing, signed by the parent, regardless of the age of the 20 parent,

21 (1) in the presence of a representative of an agency taking 22 custody of the child, whether the agency is within or without the state 23 or in the presence and with the approval of a court within or without 24 this state in which the minor was present or in which the parent 25 resided at the time it was signed, which relinquishment may be with-26 drawn within 10 days after it is signed or the child is born, whichever 27 is later; and the relinquishment is invalid unless it states that the 28 parent has this right of withdrawal; or

29 (2) in any other situation if the petitioner has had custody

1 of the minor for two years, but only if notice of the adoption pro-
2 ceeding has been given to the parent and the court finds, after con-
3 sidering the circumstances of the relinquishment and the long continued 4 custody by the petitioner, that the best interest of the child requires 5 the granting of adoption.

6 (c) In addition to any other proceeding provided by law, the 7 relationship of parent and child may be terminated by a court order 8 issued in connection with an adoption proceeding under this chapter on 9 any ground provided by other law for termination of the relationship, 10 and in any event on the ground

11 (1) that the minor has been abandoned by the parent;

12 (2) that by reason of the misconduct, faults, or habits of 13 the parent or the repeated and continuous neglect or refusal of the 14 parent, the minor is without proper parental care and control, or 15 subsistence, education, or other care or control necessary for his 16 physical, mental, or emotional health or morals, or, by reason of 17 physical or mental incapacity the parent is unable to provide necessary 18 parental care for the minor, and the court finds that the conditions 19 and causes of the behavior, neglect, or incapacity are irremediable 20 or will not be remedied by the parent, and that by reason of this the 21 minor is suffering or probably will suffer serious physical, mental, 22 moral, or emotional harm; or

23 (3) that in the case of a parent not having custody of a 24 minor, his consent is being unreasonably withheld contrary to the best 25 interest of the minor.

26 (d) For the purpose of proceeding under this chapter, a decree 27 terminating all rights of a parent with reference to a child or the 28 relationship of parent and child issued by a court of competent juris-29 diction in this or any other state dispenses with the consent to

1 adoption proceedings of a parent whose rights or parent and child
2 relationship are terminated by the decree and with any required notice 3 of an adoption proceeding other than as provided in this section.

4 (e) A petition for termination of the relationship of parent
5 and child made in connection with an adoption proceeding may be made 6 by

7 (1) either parent if termination of the relationship is 8 sought with respect to the other parent;

9 (2) the petitioner for adoption, the guardian of the person, 10 the legal custodian of the child, or the individual standing in 11 parental relationship to the child;

12 (3) an agency; or

13 (4) any other person having a legitimate interest in the 14 matter.

15 (f) Before the petition is heard, notice of the hearing on the 16 petition and opportunity to be heard shall be given the parents of the 17 child, the guardian of the person of the child, the person having legal 18 custody of the child, and, in the discretion of the court, a person 19 appointed to represent any party.

20 (g) Notwithstanding the provisions of (b) of this section, a 21 relinquishment of parental rights with respect to a child, executed 22 under this section, may be withdrawn by the parent, and a decree of 23 a court terminating the parent and child relationship under this sec-24 tion may be vacated by the court upon motion of the parent, if the 25 child is not on placement for adoption and the person having custody 26 of the child consents in writing to the withdrawal or vacation of the 27 decree.

28 Sec. 20.15.190. ADOPTION ASSISTANCE. A minor in the permanent 29 custody of the department in a foster home for not less than one year

1 may not be denied the opportunity for a permanent home if the achieve-2 ment of this depends on continued subsidy by the state.

3 Sec. 20.15.200. INVESTIGATION. Persons who are caring for a 4 minor on a foster parent basis and who have applied to adopt the minor 5 and to receive payments for the care and support of the minor shall be 6 evaluated as to their suitability as adoptive parents by means of 7 an adoptive home study. This home study shall be made by the commis-8 sioner's adoption staff or on his behalf by an authorized agency which 9 provides adoption services.

10 Sec. 20.15.210. AMOUNT AND DURATION OF SUBSIDY PAYMENTS. The 11 monthly payment and the length of time for which a subsidy is granted 12 are left to the discretion of the commissioner and may vary from a 13 small monthly sum to an amount not exceeding the existing rate for 14 foster care until the child reaches the age of majority, if the need 15 continues to exist. Subsidies shall be paid from the same public funds 16 and in the same manner as foster care payments.

17 Sec. 20.15.220. ANNUAL REEVALUATION. After an adoption, with 18 subsidy, is final, the family is independent of the department except 19 for an annual evaluation by the department of the need for continued 20 subsidy and the amount of the subsidy.

21 Sec. 20.15.230. REGULATIONS. The department shall promulgate 22 regulations necessary to implement the provisions of secs. 190 - 240 23 of this chapter.

24 Sec. 20.15.240. DEFINITIONS. In this chapter, unless the context 25 otherwise requires,

26 (1) "adult" means an individual who has reached the age of 27 majority;
