Sec. 44.06.150. CHOICE OF SITE BY VOTERS. The qualified voters of Alaska are entitled to vote for any one of the alternate capital sites selected by the capital selection committee at the next primary [GENERAL] election after conclusion of the public hearings. The site which receives 50 per cent plus one vote of the votes cast will [RECEIVING THE GREATER NUMBER OF VOTES SHALL] be the site of the new capital city. If none of the sites receives 50 per cent plus one of the votes cast, the two sites receiving the largest number of votes shall be placed on the ballot of the next general election. The site which receives the majority of the votes cast in that general election will be the site of the new capital city.
