(c) The class in (a)(2) of this section is composed of public utility, snow removal, sanitation and public school and other educational institution employees but does not include employees of the University of Alaska. Employees in this class may engage in a strike after mediation, subject to the voting requirement of (d) of this section, for a limited time. The limit is determined by the interests of the health, safety or welfare of the public. The public employer or the labor relations agency may apply to the superior court in the judicial district in which the strike is occurring for an order enjoining the strike. A strike may not be enjoined unless it can be shown that it has begun to threaten the health, safety or welfare of the public. A court, in deciding whether or not to enjoin the strike, shall consider the total equities in the particular class. "Total equities" includes not only the impact of a strike on the public but also the extent to which employee organizations and public employers have met their statutory obligations. If an impasse or deadlock still exists after the issuance of an injunction, the parties shall submit to arbitration to be carried out under AS 09.43.030.

* Sec. 2. AS 23.40.250(5) is amended to read:

1 (5) "public employee" means any employee of a public em-
2 ployer, whether or not in the classified service of the public em-
3 ployer, except elected or appointed officials, [OR] teachers or non-
4 certificated employees of school districts, or temporary part-time
5 employees of the University of Alaska;

6 * Sec. 3. Nothing in this Act terminates or modifies a collective 7 bargaining agreement if the agreement is in effect on the effective date of 8 this Act.

9 * Sec. 4. This Act takes effect immediately in accordance with AS 01.-
10 10.070(c).
