12 ARTICLE 17. ALASKA COMMISSION ON CHILDREN AND YOUTH.

13 Sec. 44.19.521. CREATION OF COMMISSION. (a) There is created
14 in the Office of the Governor the Alaska Commission on Children and 15 Youth.

16 (b) The commission consists of four executive-branch members and 17 seven public members, who are appointed by, and serve in that capacity
18 at the pleasure of, the governor. At least one of the public members
19 must be under the age of 21 at the time of appointment. The com-
20 mission shall elect one of its members as chair. The chair may ap-21 point other officers as necessary.

22 Sec. 44.19.523. TERMS OF OFFICE; COMPENSATION. (a) The term of 23 office of a member of the commission is three years.

24 (b) A vacancy shall be filled in the same manner as the original
25 appointment. A person appointed to a vacancy serves for the unexpired 26 portion of the term.

27 (c) Public members of the commission serve without compensation
28 for their services but are entitled to per diem and travel allowances
29 authorized under AS 39.20.180.

1           Sec. 44.19.525. POWERS OF THE COMMISSION. The commission may

2           (1) use legal, technical, secretarial, and administrative 3 services as may be provided by the governor;

4           (2) use voluntary and uncompensated services of private 5 persons and organizations as may be made available to the commission;

6           (3) receive, and use for operating purposes, money from the 7 federal government or other sources;

8           (4) hold public hearings;

9           (5) establish and maintain an office in Anchorage, or at a 10 location determined to be the most appropriate location by a majority 11 vote of the commissions, and hire an executive director and technical 12 and clerical staff that are necessary to perform the duties of the 13 commission; and

14           (6) take other actions reasonably necessary to carry out
15 the duties of the commission.

16           Sec. 44.19.527. DUTIES OF THE COMMISSION. (a) The commission
17 shall develop a comprehensive statewide plan that identifies the needs
18 of children and youth, individually and as they relate to their fam-
19 ilies, and makes recommendations to enhance their quality of life. In 20 meeting this charge, the commission may

21           (1) recommend the services and programs that should be 22 available for children and families in the areas of child care,
23 health, social services, education, special education, child protec-
24 tion, parent and staff training, nutrition, poverty, mental health,
25 safety, and employment of youth;

26           (2) identify the service needs of children and where gaps
27 and overlaps in services exist;

28           (3) monitor the emerging needs of and problems facing 29 children, and develop effective, comprehensive, and coordinated strat-

- 1           egies to address those needs and problems;
- 2                   (4) develop and recommend adoption of a process for moni-
3           toring and evaluating children's programs;
- 4                   (5) provide opportunities for the public to participate in 5           the planning and development of children's programs and policies;
- 6                   (6) receive and act upon requests for recommendations from 7           parents, state officials, members of state advisory committees, legis-8           lators, representatives of the state court system, and providers of 9           children's services on matters related to children and youth;
- 10                   (7) meet with and make recommendations to state officials 11           and members of advisory committees who are responsible for the expen-
12           diture of state and federal money and provide recommendations to the 13           legislature and the department on structural and procedural changes,
14           contracting of services, establishment of standards, and the consoli-
15           dation of efforts designed to deliver services in a more cost-effec-
16           tive manner;
- 17                   (8) serve as a statewide clearinghouse for government and 18           nongovernment programs and resources relating to children, youth, and 19           families;
- 20                   (9) serve as an advocate for the interests of children by 21           informing the public, including leaders of the business community,
22           educators, local and state officials, the legal system, and the commu-
23           nications media of the nature and scope of problems faced by children;
- 24                   (10) coordinate efforts and consult and cooperate with 25           persons, departments, organizations, and groups, including other 26           boards and commissions, interested in the problems and concerns of 27           children and youth; and
- 28                   (11) make recommendations to the governor, legislature, and 29           state officials with respect to legislation, regulations, and appro-

1        priations for programs or services that benefit children and youth.

2            (b) In formulating the strategy to address the needs of and 3        problems facing children, the commission shall actively solicit advice
4        and information from children and youth of all ages and socioeconomic
5        backgrounds. The commission shall also seek advice and information 6        from parents and children's services providers, including those with 7        expertise in the areas of mental health, health care, prenatal care,
8        adolescent drug and alcohol treatment, education, special education, 9        early childhood education, early childhood special education, non-10       profit funding sources, child abuse and neglect, domestic violence,
11       child care, dependence, delinquency and the justice system, minority 12       issues, and family support systems.

13            (c) The commission shall prepare and publish an annual report on 14        the status of children in the state and its recommendations and pro-
15        posals for change. The commission shall provide the governor and the 16        legislature with copies of the report by the 15th day of each regular 17        legislative session.
