SUBJECT: Fiscal breakdown re: HB 345

In response to your request for a breakdown of the Supplemental Appropriation requested by the Legislative Affairs Agency in HB 345, the following information is pertinent:

1. Temporary Employees - $211,015.00

This amount will fund the temporary employees through May 7, if need be. The current appropriation will be exhausted as of April 7, due primarily to the pay increase granted the temporary employees at the beginning of the session and increase in employee benefits.

2. Furniture and Equipment - $66,646.00

This amount represents furniture and equipment purchased for the new legislative wing on the first floor of the Capitol, plus expenditures made for new equipment since January.

3. McLean Associates - $23,333.00

This amount represents payments to McLean Associates from July 1974 - January 1975 per the Legislative Council's contract with that firm. The funding was originally deleted by the Free Conference Committee last session.

4. Book Publishing Company - $14,700.00

This amount represents the cost of purchasing the Administrative Code for each legislator at the direction of the Council and for which no funds were allocated in the current budget.

5. Wiring Chambers - $3,000.00

This represents the cost of wiring the Chambers for the recording of floor sessions per HB 7, passed earlier this session.

6. Miscellaneous - $50,000.00

The Council directed that this amount be included in the supplemental to cover the cost of hiring personnel prior to the beginning of the fiscal year, if need be. If unused, this amount would be lapsed.
