Re: Legislative confirmation of Governor's appointees.

The following Governor's appointments have been assigned to your committee for review. Please report back to the House by March 25, 1979.

STATE ASSESSMENT BOARD

Robert Erle Cooper, no term
Earl Miller, no term

MEMORANDUM

TO: Sterling Gallagher
Commissioner
Department of Revenue

DATE : May 1, 1978

FROM: Gerald D. Heifer GDH
Petroleum Property Assessor
Petroleum Revenue Division

SUBJECT: State Assessment Review Board

The State Assessment Review Board established under AS 43.56.040 currently has only three members of an authorized five. I would like to submit the following two names for consideration for appointment to the Board:

Earl Cooper, Box 177, Homer, Alaska
Earl Miller, 3500 Hilland Drive, Anchorage, Alaska 99504

Earl Cooper has been in private business in Homer since 1957. He currently owns Homer Transfer, a local freight service in Homer. He served on the Homer Public Utility District for three and one-half years prior to the incorporation of Homer as an organized municipality. He has served on the Homer City Council for 12 years and as an assemblyman on the Kenai Peninsula Borough Assembly for ten years. For further reference, both Senator Clem Tillion and Representative Leo Rhode are from Homer and know Mr. Cooper. I have personally known Earl for approximately twelve years and believe that he would be a conscientious member on the State Assessment Review Board.

Attached is Earl Miller's resume. I believe that he too would be a conscientious Board member.
