Home rule bill proposed

By The Associated Press

The House has passed and sent to the Senate a bill to allow second class boroughs to move to home rule status.

The bill, H3587, was introduced by a joint House-Senate interim committee that this summer studied local government needs for organized and unorganized boroughs in Alaska. The bill passed 37-1 on Tuesday.

Another piece of legislation still pending would allow unorganized boroughs to also move to home rule status, which allows a charter to be developed so that local government can be tailored to the area it serves.

Currently, municipalities and boroughs must be first class before they can adopt a home rule charter.

Committee members said the bill passed on Tuesday makes it easier for local government to respond to local needs. Home rule status allows the local government to adopt ordinances and enact powers unless they are expressly prohibited in the Alaska Constitution.

Several other measures pending in the House and the Senate deal with unorganized boroughs, which committee members say have become laced with "spaghetti-like" boundaries.

III. ANALYSIS (See Fiscal Note Preparation Instructions, Section III)

This bill would allow second class boroughs to move directly to the Home Rule status without going through the process of first becoming first class as is now required.

There would be no fiscal impact on state government.

5 A BILL

6 For an Act entitled: "An Act relating to the incorporation of second class
7 boroughs as home rule boroughs."

8 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

9 * Section 1. AS 29.13.010 is amended to read:

10 Sec. 29.13.010. MUNICIPAL CHARTER ADOPTION. A first class muni-
11 cipality or second class borough may adopt a charter for its own govern-
12 ment. A home rule municipality may amend its charter or adopt a new
13 one. A charter is framed by a charter commission of seven members

16 pality and a resident of the municipality for three years immediately
17 preceding the election. A charter commission election is called by
