COUNCIL ON DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AND SEXUAL ASSAULT

MAR 9 1982

February 4, 1982

HOUSE BILL 672

POSITION PAPER

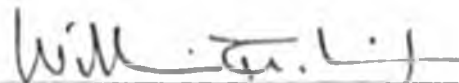

House Bill 672 is an act relating to domestic violence and amending the present statute.

The Council on Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault supports HB 672 and considers the amendments as they will give further protection to a victim of domestic violence.

The Council particularly supports the increase of the extension of time for a Temporary Restraining Order to 90 days as it then makes it more possible for the batterer to have received enough treatment to permit the family to be reunited while he continues treatment.

The Council also supports extending the period of time to 20 days as it frequently takes that period of time for valid decision making to be made when under stress.

The Council would like to request that a Letter of Intent be prepared to emphasize that ALL Peace Officers are expected to serve Temporary Restraining Orders.
