Alaska Network on Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault

P.O. Box 3356, ANCHORAGE, ALASKA 99510

ALASKA NETWORK ON DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AND SEXUAL ASSAULT DRAFT OF THE POSITION PAPER ON HOUSE BILL 627

The Alaska Network on Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault is a non-profit corporation composed of 17 domestic violence, sexual assault, and adult crisis intervention programs through the state. Network programs are funded in part through grants and contracts awarded by the recently established Council on Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault in the Department of Public Safety.

Based on experience with the issues of sexual assault and domestic violence, the Network offers the following remarks regarding House Bill 627.

The Network applauds the general purpose of House Bill 627. The principle of protecting the rights of victims and witnesses, thereby encouraging them to cooperate with the criminal justice system is laudible.

Although the Network supports the concept behind House Bill 627, we are concerned with the practical effect of certain sections of this Bill.

The legislation adds a new chapter to Section 12 of the Alaska Statutes entitled Rights of Victims and Witnesses. Section 12.61.010 of this chapter enumerates these rights. The Network acknowledges the need for recognition of victim's and witness's rights, but questions whether this is the proper vehicle for such recognition. The responsibilities of the police and prosecutors, might be better addressed in administrative rules. Also, as written this section enumerates an individual's rights, but does not have the force of law.

Section 12.61.020 lists the duties of the courts regarding victims of domestic violence. In 12.61.020 A & B it is unclear which criminal offenses are referenced. Our current protection from domestic violence statute imposes only civil sanctions. It is not clear what is meant by 12.61.020 (a) 4 "identify by any reasonable means in the public records of the court those criminal actions arising from the acts of domestic violence".

Section 12.45.047 concerns the Network as it draws attention to the fact that our records are available to defense attorneys without offering the full protection of an absolute privilege. Presently most programs are not having their records subpoenaed and the Network fears this may change when a statute is created that outlines how a defense attorney can gain access to such records. The Network appreciates the concern this proposal shows for the confidentiality of our clients, however, we believe that only a stronger prohibition on discovery will be of assistance to us now.

The section of the Bill which would amend AS 18.65.520 (a) indicates that the police should inform the victims that they may want to hire an attorney or contact Legal Services to obtain a court order. This may create a feeling that the order is difficult to obtain alone and discourage victims from applying for such relief on their own.

Again, the Network supports the concept behind House Bill 627, but believes that it might be more clearly defined and perhaps even broken down into more than one Bill around separate issues.

Conceptually → good.
Bill as written → not practical.

Abood → patterned as Mass. Law.

3 IN THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA
4 TWELFTH LEGISLATURE - SECOND SESSION
5 A BILL

6 For an Act entitled: "An Act relating to crime victims and witnesses, and 7 changing Rules 5(c), 5.1(g), 16(b), and 16(d), Rules of 8 Criminal Procedure."

9 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

- 10 * Section 1. PURPOSE. The purposes of this Act are to
- 11 (1) encourage victims and witnesses of crimes to perform their
- 12 civic and moral duty of fully and voluntarily cooperating with law enforce-
- 13 ment agencies and prosecutors in furthering the general effectiveness of the
- 14 criminal justice system of the state;
- 15 (2) ensure that all victims and witnesses of crime are treated
- 16 with dignity, respect, courtesy, and sensitivity; and
- 17 (3) ensure that the rights extended to victims and witnesses of
- 18 crime are honored and protected by law enforcement agencies, prosecutors, and
- 19 judges in a manner no less vigorous than the protections afforded criminal
- 20 defendants.

21 * Sec. 2. AS 12 is amended by adding a new chapter to read:

22 CHAPTER 61. RIGHTS OF VICTIMS AND WITNESSES.

23 Sec. 12.61.010. RIGHTS OF VICTIMS AND WITNESSES. (a) Victims and 24 witnesses of crimes have the following rights:

- 25 (1) the right to be informed by the appropriate law enforce-
- 26 ment agency or the prosecuting attorney of the final disposition of the
- 27 case in which the victim or witness is involved;
- 28 (2) the right to be notified that a court proceeding to which
- 29 the victim or witness has been subpoenaed will not occur as scheduled,

1 in order to save the person an unnecessary trip to court:

2 (3) the right to receive protection from harm and threats of
3 harm arising out of cooperation with law enforcement and prosecution
4 efforts, and to be provided with information as to the level of protec-
5 tion available;

6 (4) the right to be informed of the procedure to be followed
7 to apply for and receive any witness fees or victim compensation to 8 which the person may be entitled;

9 (5) the right to be provided, whenever practical, a secure
10 waiting area during court proceedings that does not require the victim
11 or witness to be in close proximity to a defendant and the family or 12 friends of a defendant;

13 (6) the right to have any stolen or other personal property
14 expeditiously returned by the law enforcement agency unless it is unlaw-
15 ful to return the property;

16 (7) the right to cooperate with the criminal justice process
17 without loss of pay and other employee benefits and without interference 18 in any form by the employer of the victim or witness of crime; and

19 (8) the right to access to immediate medical assistance and 20 not to be detained for an unreasonable length of time by a law enforce-21 ment agency before having medical assistance administered; however, an 22 employee of the law enforcement agency may, if necessary, accompany the 23 person to a medical facility to question the person about the criminal 24 incident if the questioning does not hinder the administration of medical 25 assistance.

26 (b) Law enforcement agencies, prosecutors, and the courts shall
27 make a reasonable effort to assure that victims and witnesses of crimes
28 have the rights set out in (a) of this section.

29 (c) The family members of a homicide victim shall be afforded all

1 of the rights established under (a)(1) - (7) of this section. For
2 purposes of this subsection, "family members" include a spouse, child,
3 brother, sister, parent, or legal guardian.

4 Sec. 12.61.020. DUTY OF COURT RELATING TO VICTIMS OF DOMESTIC
5 VIOLENCE. (a) Because of the serious nature of domestic violence, the 6 court in adjudicating criminal offenses involving domestic violence may

7 (1) not dismiss a charge or delay disposition because of 8 pending divorce, dissolution of marriage, or other civil proceedings
9 involving a victim of domestic violence and the person accused of a
10 crime involving domestic violence;

11 (2) not dismiss a charge for failure of the victim to petition
12 for divorce or dissolution of marriage;

13 (3) not order the victim's location to be disclosed to any
14 person, other than the attorney of a criminal defendant, upon a showing
15 that there is a possibility of further violence; however, the court
16 shall order a criminal defense attorney not to disclose to his client
17 the victim's location; and

18 (4) identify by any reasonable means in the public records of 19 the court those criminal actions arising from acts of domestic violence.

20 (b) When a defendant charged with a crime involving domestic 21 violence is released from custody before trial on bail or personal
22 recognizance, the court authorizing the release may prohibit the defen-
23 dant from having any contact with the victim. Wilful violation of a 24 court order issued under this section is a class A misdemeanor. The 25 written order releasing the defendant must contain the court's directives
26 and bear the legend: "Violation of this order is a criminal offense
27 under AS 12.61.020." A certified copy of an order issued under this 28 section must be provided to the victim.

2 section or other conditions of pretrial release according to the proce-
3 dures established by court rule for an arraignment. The decision of the 4 judge and findings of fact in support of the decision must be in writing.

5 * Sec. 3. AS 12.45 is amended by adding a new section to read:

6 Sec. 12.45.047. DISCOVERY OF CRISIS INTERVENTION SERVICE RECORDS.

7 (a) Records maintained by a crisis intervention service may not be made
8 available to a defense attorney as part of discovery in a sexual assault
9 case or attempted sexual assault case unless 10

11 (1) a written pretrial motion is made by the defendant to the 12 court stating that the defendant is requesting discovery of records of 13 the crisis intervention service;

14 (2) the written motion is accompanied by an affidavit setting
15 out specifically the reasons why the defendant is requesting discovery
16 of the records;

17 (3) the court reviews the records of the crisis intervention
18 service in camera to determine whether the records are relevant and 19 whether the probative value of the records is outweighed by the victim's 20 privacy interest in the confidentiality of the records, taking into 21 account the further trauma that may be inflicted upon the victim by the 22 disclosure of the records to the defendant; and

23 (4) the court enters an order stating whether the records or 24 a part of the records are discoverable and setting out the basis for the 25 court's findings.

26 (b) For the purposes of this section "crisis intervention service"
27 includes a public or private entity that provides counseling or other
28 assistance to the victim of a sexual assault, including the victim/
29 witness assistance program of the Department of Law.

20 violence and has probable cause to believe that a crime has been commit-

9 * Sec. 7. AS 47.10.020(a) is amended to read:

10 (a) Whenever a person informs the court of the facts which bring a

13 the court to determine whether the interests of the public or of the 14 minor require that further action be taken. Upon the receipt of the 15 report, the court may informally adjust or dispose of the matter without 16 a hearing, or it may authorize the person having knowledge of the facts
17 of the case to file with the court a petition setting out the facts.

19 may not be detained or taken into the custody of the court, and the 20 matter shall be closed by the court upon adjustment or disposition.
21 The court shall disclose to the victim, if any, of the minor the manner
22 in which the court informally adjusted or disposed of the matter. The 24 also entitled to receive the same information from the court.

25 * Sec. 8. AS 47.10.080(a) is amended to read:

III. ANALYSIS (See Fiscal Note Preparation Instruction, Section III)

The degree of protection demanded by witnesses is virtually impossible to predict since no historical information is available. At the absolute minimum, three new trooper positions would be required. One each in Anchorage, Juneau and Fairbanks. This would provide only minimal protection. If 24 hours a-day, 7 day-a-week coverage in each of these locations was required for several different witness in separate cases the number of positions and resulting cost would climb proportionately.

HB 627

This bill establishes "the right to be provided, whenever practical, a secure waiting area during court proceedings that does not require the victim or witness to be in close proximity to a defendant and the family or friends of a defendant" (Sec. 12.61.010(5)).

There are a limited number of witness conference rooms in some of the major courts which could be used for this purpose. It would be extremely expensive or impossible to provide additional space for waiting areas in most court facilities. Since the intention of the bill is not to require new construction or extensive remodeling, but to provide waiting areas when practical, given existing spatial constraints, there is no fiscal impact upon the court.

Identification in the public records of criminal actions arising from acts of domestic violence will not require new resources (Sec. 12.61.020 (a)(4)).

Orders prohibiting defendants from pretrial contact with victims can be incorporated into existing paperwork. (Sec. 12.61.020 (b) and (c)).

Attempts to discover crisis intervention service records may increase once this procedure is set forth in a statute. It is impossible to quantify the potential increase in number of in camera hearings, and a fiscal impact is unlikely. (Sec. 12.45.047).
