DRAFT OF PROPOSED AMENDMENTS FOR HB.47

*Section 1. AS 16.30.010 is amended by:

(d) In this section, "most of the edible meat" of a big game ~~wild~~ food animal means no less than the meat of the ribs, neck and brisket, and the meat of the front quarters, as far as the juncture of the humerus and the radius-ulna (knee), and the meat of the hindquarters, as far as the distal joint of the tibia-fibula (stifle joint) and that portion of the animal between the front and the hindquarters except the viscera. However, the following is not considered edible meat:

- (1) the meat of the head;
- (2) any meat that has been damaged and made inedible by the method of taking; and
- (3) the bones, sinew, and incidental meat reasonably lost as a result of boning or a close trimming of the bones.

(e) In this section, "most of the edible meat" of a small game animal means no less than the meat of the breast.

(f) If a person is convicted under this section of failing to salvage edible meat of a big game food animal, the court shall impose a minimum sentence of imprisonment of 5 days and a minimum fine of $2500 and shall, in addition, impose loss of hunting privileges for that year and the year following. The execution of the minimum sentence under this subsection may not be suspended nor may probation be granted until the minimum imprisonment provided in this section has been served. Imposition of sentence may not be suspended.

*Section 11. AS 16.30.030 is amended:

(2) "big game" ~~wild~~ food animal" includes a moose, caribou, mountain sheep, mountain goat, feral reindeer, deer elk, bison, musk ox, walrus [duck, goose, brant, wilson or jack snipe, grouse and ptarmigan.]

(3) "Small game wild food animal" includes all species of wild waterfowl, snipe and cranes, and grouse and ptarmigan.

USE OF GAME

5 AAC 81.210. GAME AS ANIMAL FOOD OR BAIT. The use of game as food for dogs or fur animals or as bait is prohibited with the following exceptions:

- (1) the hide, skin, viscera, or bones of any game;
- (2) the skinned carcasses of bear or fur animals;
- (3) hares, rabbits and red squirrels;
- (4) legally taken unclassified game.

5 AAC 81.215. UTILIZATION OF CARNIVORES. The hide or flesh of bears, wolves, wolverine, coyotes, fox and lynx must be salvaged for human use.

5 AAC 81.216. RETRIEVAL OF BIG GAME MEAT. The meat of caribou taken in the portions of Units 18 and 21 north of the Yukon River and Units 22 through 26 must be removed immediately or cached within 10 days of taking in such a manner that it cannot readily be reached by scavengers.

5 AAC 81.218. FEEDING OF GAME. Within the State of Alaska it is unlawful to deliberately feed bears, wolves, foxes or wolverine or to deliberately leave human food or garbage in such a manner that it attracts such animals. This does not apply to the use of legal bait materials used in trapping fur animals.

QUANTITY OF MEAT TO BE SALVAGED FROM WILD FOOD ANIMALS (AS 16.30.010)

(a) It is unlawful for a person who kills a wild food animal to intentionally, knowingly, recklessly or negligently fail to salvage for human consumption most of the edible meat of a wild food animal, unless he shows that failure to salvage the meat was due to circumstances beyond his control, including but not limited to:

- (1) loss in the field to another animal;
- (2) weather or other acts of God;
- (3) theft.

(b) If the edible meat is not lawfully salvaged for human consumption under (a) of this section, the person who killed the animal is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction:

- (1) is punishable by a fine of not more than $5,000, or by imprisonment for not more than six months, or by both; and
- (2) shall surrender to the Department of Fish and Game all portions of the animal that have been salvaged.

(c) The shooting of a wild food animal is prima facie evidence of intent to kill it.

(d) In this section, "most of the edible meat" of a wild food animal means no less than the meat of the front quarters, as far as the juncture of the humerus and the radius ulna (knee), and the meat of the hindquarters, as far as the distal joint of the tibia/fibula (stifle joint) and the portion of the animal between the front- and hindquarters except the viscera and the meat of the ribs. However, the following is not considered edible meat:

- (1) the meat of the head and the neck;
- (2) any meat that has been damaged and made inedible by the method of taking; and

USE OF GAME

(3) the bones, sinew, and incidental meat reasonably lost as a result of boning or a close trimming of the bones. AS 16.30.010

NOTICE TO HUNTERS

Hunters who take game, and who may not wish to utilize all the meat legally required to be salvaged, are urged to contact the village council of the nearest town or village to offer the meat for their use. Wild game is important to many local Alaskans.

POSSESSION OF RAW HORNS OR ANTLERS (AS 16.30.012)

(a) It is unlawful to possess the raw horns or antlers of a wild food animal without its being accompanied by most of its edible meat unless:

- (1) most of its edible meat was salvaged in accordance with law;
- (2) the horns or antlers were acquired by gift from another person after the associated meat was salvaged;
- (3) the meat was lost due to circumstances beyond the possessor's control, including loss in the field to another animal, weather or other acts of God, or theft.

(b) If a person who possesses raw horns or antlers without its being accompanied by most of its edible meat raises a justification specified in (a)(1)(3) of this section, additional corroborating evidence of that justification may be required by the department. In this section:

(1) "being accompanied" means having most of the meat in actual possession with the horns or antlers unless the person is engaging in the act of transporting most of the meat from the same animal in portions at different times but in a continuous manner without unnecessary interruption, from the place of taking to its destination for human consumption;

(2) "raw" means an appearance, by reasonable observation, that indicates its having been taken from a wild food animal during the current or most recent lawful hunting season for that animal.

ARTICLE 6. CONTROLLED USE AREAS.

5 AAC 81.221. DELTA MANAGEMENT AREA. That area bounded on the north by the Alaska Highway east from Delta Junction to the Little Gerstle River trail, then south along the west side of the trail to its end, then along a line running due south-southeast to the west bank of the Johnson River, then southwest along the west bank of the Johnson River and Johnson Glacier to Mount Gakona (latitude 63°17'N, longitude 145°12'W) then due west to the north edge of Canwell Glacier, then west along the north edge of Canwell Glacier and north bank of Miller Creek to the Richardson Highway (latitude 63°22'N, longitude 145°45'W) then across the

RABIES INFORMATION

Dept. of Health & Social Services
Division of Public Health

RABIES, a virus disease of the central nervous system which is nearly always fatal, occurs naturally in wild animal populations

Man can become infected through the bite of a rabies-infected animal (generally a fox, wolf, or dog) or through exposure of an open cut or scratch to saliva of an infected animal. For this reason, plastic or rubber gloves should be worn when skinning foxes or wolves.

Most diseased animals act strangely; being unnaturally withdrawn, overly friendly or "mad." The latter action, one in which the animal will bite or attack anything including other animals, people or objects, is most often associated with rabies. "Dumb" rabies also occurs, however, and should be recognized as being equally dangerous. Paralysis, usually of the lower jaw, is its first recognizable symptom.
