MEMORANDUM

May 20, 1981

TO: Representative Bette Cato, Chairman
Transportation Committee

FROM: Senator Mike Colletta

Mike Colletta

SUBJ: Whittier Access/Portage Road (SB 122, HB 535)

Please find attached for your information a petition in support of SB 122 and HB 535. I would like to request your consideration to speedy hearing on this issue.

Thank you.

WHITTIER, ALASKA 99693
BOX 727

MAY 15 P.M.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

FROM KAY SHEPHERD, CITIZEN

The enclosed petition portrays the feeling of most of the residents of Whittier concerning the access road from Portage Glacier Lodge to Bear Valley. The number of voters at any election in Whittier ranges from about 85 to 90.

Whittier would certainly benefit from this improved access but, beyond that fact, Anchorage and a great part of interior Alaska could have better advantage of the extensive recreation area of beautiful Prince William Sound.

The new addition to the small boat harbor, for which there is a long waiting list, and the great interest in the potential harbor for Shot Gun Cove indicate the intense interest that Alaskans have in Prince William Sound, the finest recreation spot in the State of Alaska.

Thank you for giving sincere attention to this petition from Whittier and if it is possible to move SB 122 and HB 535 through the committees and to the respective floors for vote, it our desire that you do so.

Again, thank you.

WE, THE UNDERSIGNED, BEING RESIDENTS OF THE CITY OF WHITTIER, ALASKA, ARE IN FAVOR OF A ROAD BEING BUILT FROM PORTAGE TO BEAR VALLEY IN ORDER TO DECREASE THE EXPENSE AND TRAVEL TIME AND TO INCREASE ACCESS TO WHITTIER.
