4 THIRTEENTH LEGISLATURE - SECOND SESSION

5 A BILL

6 For an Act entitled: "An Act relating to debt of the state, its agencies,
7 and municipalities; and providing for an effective
8 date."

9 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

10 * Section 1. AS 37.15.110 is amended to read:

11 Sec. 37.15.110. CREATION AND MEMBERSHIP OF STATE BOND COMMITTEE.

12 There is created within the Department of Revenue a committee known as 13 the "state bond committee," the members of which are the commissioner 14 of commerce and economic development, the commissioner of administra-
15 tion, [AND] the commissioner of revenue, the chief fiscal officer of a 16 city or borough, and a member of the board of directors of a public 17 corporation which is an instrumentality of the state authorized to 18 issue bonds. The chief fiscal officer and board member are appointed 19 by the governor and serve at the pleasure of the governor. If a 20 member of the committee who is a commissioner is absent or otherwise 21 unable to act, the member's designee [IN THE DEPARTMENT] shall act as 22 a member of the committee in the member's place.

23 * Sec. 2. AS 37.15.130 is amended to read:

24 Sec. 37.15.130. OFFICERS, RECORDS AND PROCEEDINGS. (a) The 25 commissioner of revenue [COMMERCE AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT] is the 26 chairman of the state bond committee [AND THE COMMISSIONER OF REVENUE
27 IS THE SECRETARY]. A majority of the members of the committee consti-
28 tute a quorum. The committee shall keep a full, complete, and perma-29 nent record of its proceedings. All records and correspondence of the 1 committee shall be kept in the office of the commissioner of revenue.

2 (b) The committee may meet and transact business by electronic 3 media if

4 (1) public notice of the time and locations where the 5 meeting will be held by electronic media has been given in the same
6 manner as if the meeting were held in a single location;

7 (2) participants and members of the public in attendance
8 can hear and have the same right to participate in the meeting as if 9 the meeting were conducted in person; and

10 (3) copies of pertinent reference materials, statutes, 11 regulations, and audio-visual materials are reasonably available to 12 participants and to the public.

13 (c) A meeting by electronic media as provided in this section 14 has the same legal effect as a meeting in person.

15 (d) For the purposes of this chapter public notice of 24 hours 16 or more is adequate notice of a meeting of the committee at which the 17 issuance of bonds is authorized.

18 * Sec. 3. AS 37.15.140 is amended to read:

19 Sec. 37.15.140. DUTIES OF STATE BOND COMMITTEE. (a) The state
20 bond committee shall adopt the resolution and prepare the documents 21 necessary for the issuance, sale, and delivery of bonds issued on 22 behalf of the state.

23 (b) The state bond committee shall prepare an annual report to 24 be submitted to the governor and legislature before January 31 of each 25 year. The report must show (1) all outstanding debt of debt issuing 26 entities of the state; (2) the anticipated impact on the finances and 27 credit of the state, including the effect on long-term debt capacity
28 and creditworthiness resulting from that debt; (3) which long-term
29 debt is tax supported and which is supported only by revenues

1 attributable to the project being financed by the debt; (4) all long-
2 term capital lease obligations of the state; (5) the volume of short-
3 term debt issued and retired during the year by debt issuing entities
4 of the state; and (6) specific identification of each issue for which 5 the state has pledged some form of indirect support for the debt
6 including any moral obligation of the state to support the debt. The 7 committee may require that any information needed to prepare the 8 report be furnished by debt issuing entities of the state at a time
9 determined by the committee.

10 (c) The state bond committee shall develop written policies 11 concerning debt of the state and debt of instrumentalities of the 12 state authorized to issue tax exempt obligations. The committee shall 13 develop written informational guidelines for management of debt of 14 municipalities of the state. The policies and guidelines shall in-15 clude recommended level of debt, debt management, bidding procedures 16 and bid awards and compensation for financial service.

17 (d) The state bond committee shall require the debt issuing 18 entities of the state to (1) prepare and submit to the committee by 19 January 31 of each year a calendar of all debt proposed to be issued 20 during the calendar year showing the amount and type of the debt and 21 the month in which issuance is proposed, and (2) prepare and submit 22 monthly a report showing all proposed changes to the calendar sub-23 mitted.

24 (e) In this section the term "debt issuing entities of the 25 state" includes the state, each agency or instrumentality of the state 26 authorized to issue tax exempt obligations, and each municipality of 27 the state.

28 (f) In this section the term "debt" means (1) long-term bonded
29 indebtedness secured by the full faith and credit of the government

1 unit, (2) long-term bonded indebtedness secured by a mortgage or lien
2 on specific properties or receivables, (3) short-term notes, (4) 3 warrants, and (5) capital lease obligations; but "debt" does not in-
4 clude debt owed within the debt issuing entity or to another debt 5 issuing entity.

6 * Sec. 4. AS 37.15.150 is amended to read:

7 Sec. 37.15.150. STAFF AND [COMMITTEE MAY EMPLOY] SPECIAL SER-
8 VICES. The state bond committee may appoint an executive director who 9 may with approval of the committee select and employ additional staff
10 as necessary. Employees of the committee are in the partially exempt 11 service under AS 39.25.120. If the [STATE BOND] committee considers 12 it necessary and advisable, it may procure architectural or engineer-13 ing, fiscal agent or municipal investment, legal and other expert or 14 specialized services at reasonable and customary fees to assist it in 15 accomplishing the most advantageous sale of the state bonds. The fees 16 may be paid from the proceeds of the sale or advanced from the contin-17 gency fund in the office of the governor or otherwise.

18 * Sec. 5. AS 39.25.120 is amended by adding a new paragraph to read:

19 (19) employees of the state bond committee.

House Special Committee on State Loans

MEMORANDUM

Date: March 23, 1984
To: Members, House Finance Committee
From: Representative Rick Uehling RUE
Subject: CS HB 609 (Loans)

I have asked my staff to prepare the following Sectional Analysis of CS HB 609 (Loans).

Section 37.15.110 changes the composition of the State Bond Committee and places it for administrative purposes in the Department of Revenue. Current law does not locate the Committee for administrative purposes. Two members are added to the Committee, a Chief Fiscal Officer of a city or borough, and a member of the board of directors of a public corporation which is an instrumentality of the State. These two additional members are appointed by the Governor and serve at his pleasure.

Section 37.15.130 makes the Commissioner of Revenue instead of the Commissioner of Commerce and Economic Development the Chairman of the State Bond Committee. (b) allows meeting by electronic means if there is public notice, right to hear and participate in the meeting and copies of materials are available. (e) provides this type of meeting has the same legal effect as a meeting in person. (d) allows 24 hour notice of a meeting to authorize issuance of bonds. The provisions of (b), (e) and (d) which are added to existing law are substantially identical to provisions of AS 18.56.040 concerning meetings of the board of the Alaska Housing Finance Corporation.

Section 37.15.140 adds to the duties of the State Bond Committee. These added duties are:

1. Preparation and submission of an annual report concerning state debt to the legislature and Governor. The material required to be included is specified. The Committee is given the power to require it be furnished with information required for the report.
2. Development of written policies concerning management of State Debt is required. The development of written informational guidelines for the use of debt issuing entities of the State is also required. Required policies and guidelines include recommended level of debt, debt management bidding procedures, bid awards, and compensation for financial services.
3. Requirement of an annual calendar of debt proposed to be issued during the calendar year by each debt issuing entity of the State. The report will show the amount and type of debt to be issued and will be updated on a monthly basis.

The term debt issuing entities is defined as the State, each agency of the State and municipalities thereby making the requirements of the section applicable to each of them.

The term debt is defined as (1) long term bonded indebtedness secured by the full faith and credit of the government unit, (general obligation debt), (2) long-term bonded indebtedness secured by a mortgage or lien on specific properties or receivables (revenue supported debt), (3) short-term notes, (4) warrants, and (5) capital lease obligations. However, debt is not defined as debt owed within the entity or to another debt issuing entity.

Section 37.15.150 allows employment of an executive director and staff and places the employees in the partially exempt service.

Section 5 amends AS 39.25.120 to add employees of the State Bond Committee to the list of employees in the partially exempt service in conformity with Section 37.15.150.

Section 6 provides an immediate effective date.

CHAPTER I

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The changing nature of tax-exempt borrowing, including the shift from traditional tax-supported government bonds to revenue-backed bonds, the rise and volatility in interest rates, the reliance upon individual investors in contrast to institutional lenders, and changes in federal law concerning various aspects of tax-exempt financing, has resulted in states generally being more attentive to debt management and debt policy. This study of State debt management comes at a propitious time. While the past growth of tax-exempt borrowing by issuers bearing the Alaska name has been rapid and sizeable, new programs and proposals before the legislature indicate that the demand for new spending and borrowing is far from sated. At the same time, recent reductions in the market price for petroleum and the unpredictability of its future supply and price raise uncertainties about the level and viability of the principal source of governmental revenues that directly or indirectly supports many of Alaska's borrowing and spending programs.

The interdependence of the Alaskan economy and its oil wealth creates a paradox for assessing the State's debt management and debt capacity. Oil revenues have enabled the State and local governments to borrow at unusually high levels -- in terms of per capita amounts of debt -- and have provided the financial security required by investors in the State's bonds. It is the reliance on these same oil revenues, however, that is the principal weakness of the Alaska credit as a long-term issuer of tax-exempt bonds and that makes assessment of the State's future debt capacity very difficult.

To be effective, debt management must join the capital needs of the State and its constituent governmental units with the ability to achieve bond market access on affordable terms. Market access is a function of debt capacity, debt burden, and perceived ability to pay; it is also conditioned importantly by the overall forces that shape borrowing needs nationally and the willingness of investors to supply funds. The private credit market, where public debts are sold, decides what borrowers will be accommodated and at what cost -- from a fluctuating but always limited pool of lendable funds. While Alaska is concerned first and foremost with the cost and availability of credit for its own needs, Alaska bonds compete with other governmental obligations from all parts of the country. The terms offered Alaska borrowers by the marketplace are strongly influenced by the volume and quality of competing claims from other borrowers. Hence, it is in Alaska's interest to offer a well-structured, high-quality security in order to obtain funds, and to obtain them at acceptable interest rates.

Effective debt management must also provide State and local issuers and the State's debt managers with the flexibility to react quickly and responsibly to changes in the financial markets. That the tax-exempt bond market is highly sensitive to changes in the federal tax code was obvious in late 1982 as the pendency of the bond registration requirement brought a flood of issues to market. Now, as a result of this legislation, the primary and secondary market acceptance of an issuer's securities will in part depend on a timely, accurate and efficient transfer process (discussed on pages 35-36). Changes in other federal tax provisions can also sharply affect the demand for tax-exempt bonds. Chapter Two includes a survey of the tax acts of 1981 and 1982, and their impacts on the municipal bond market. These changes, like volatility in interest rates, are factors over which the State has little control. However, a responsible and flexible debt management program places the State in the best position to respond effectively to events that may effect the State's borrowing.

State-Level Debt

The evidence presented in this study shows that Alaska debt has grown from 0.7 to 1.8 percent of annual national tax-exempt bond market volume since 1970. The rising market share accorded Alaska bonds has been the result of an increase in the State's annual volume of new debt issues from $134 million to $1.4 billion between 1970 and 1982. Chapter Three documents the increase in borrowing and includes a profile of the major State debt issuers. Of all State-level issuers in Alaska, the Alaska Housing Finance Corporation has issued the largest amount of public debt -- over 62 percent of State-level debt and over 44 percent of all State-wide debt (including local government obligations) outstanding -- and is the State's most frequent and best-known borrower.

At a time when we have seen the national credit rating agencies downgrade the credit rating of many states, Alaska can be proud of its rating upgrade over the past 10 years from a Baa to an AA credit. Credit analysts and the market itself have recognized the quality of Alaska's bonds as an investment. The evidence shows that Alaska now trades on par with such strong AA credits as Connecticut and Ohio. Chapter Four presents the results of our study of the State's past market experience. The data show that Alaska has consistently experienced lower borrowing costs than other states with similar ratings. Evidence to support this comes from the lower underwriting spreads, larger number of bids, and the lower interest rates on Alaska bonds as compared to those of other states of similar high quality.

State Bond Committee

In spite of the strong past performance of the State's bonds, the mid-1980s is a good time for the State of Alaska to broaden and strengthen the role of the State in debt management and oversight, particularly through the State Bond Committee (see pages 157 to 160). Recent fluctuations in the worldwide price of oil and the decline of Prudhoe Bay oil production within the ten-year range have alerted investors to the "boom and bust" nature of the Alaskan economy. These two events will be important factors behind the ability of the State to issue further debt in the coming years. One major role for a newly reconstituted State Bond Committee would be oversight of the State's total indebtedness. It is not intended that the State Bond Committee supplant the activities or authority of independent agencies and corporations; however, it is vital that the State annually review and assess its debt position -- including within that review all State-level debt -- relative to the State's debt capacity and priorities for future public investment.

In order to carry out its expanded scope of activity, the State Bond Committee should be restructured. The chairmanship should reside in a senior-level fiscal official -- such as the Commissioner of Revenue or the Director of the Office of Management and Budget -- who is actively involved in the State's debt management. The Commissioner of Commerce and Economic Development is the Committee's present chair. Expanding the membership to include a representative from the governing board of a State corporation, and the Commissioner of Community and Regional Affairs would emphasize the interrelationship of the State, its agencies, and local government in the debt management area. To assist in fulfilling its expanded duties, the Committee should be staffed full-time by a professional in the field of public finance.

The Committee should be given the responsibility to take a global view of the State's debt-related activities in a formal manner, not in the loose, informal way that is presently said to exist. The State may wish to require that each entity of the State which is authorized to issue bonds annually file a debt financing plan with the State Bond Committee. From these plans a master debt issuance schedule may be compiled to inform and assist all debt issuers in the State. The schedule could be updated monthly or on an "as-needed" basis as financing plans change. The State Bond Committee should also annually prepare a comprehensive profile of outstanding debt and monitor its impact on the State's fiscal condition. Special attention in this review should be paid to the level of the State's contingent liabilities, such as moral obligation debt, and changes in the growth and composition of local debt.

It is advised that the State develop written debt management guidelines that include several criteria for evaluating the desired and affordable level of debt issuance in lieu of a legislative ceiling on debt issuance. The State Bond Committee should be responsible for implementing these guidelines by reviewing each State-level bond issue before it is brought to market. The Committee's only power in this regard would be to defer or veto an issuance because the security structure or sources of repayment are inadequate or the issue jeopardizes the financing plans or creditworthiness of the State. Likewise, if the State wishes to maintain its present interest rate ceiling on the issuance of bonds, it is preferable to set such a ceiling administratively rather than legislatively.

Debt Capacity and Affordability

The analysis of debt capacity is addressed in Chapter Seven. Comparisons of State debt with that of other states indicates that Alaska is an "outlier" with extremely high ratios of debt per capita and debt per $1,000 of personal income. Therefore, it is necessary to look in-depth at the State's revenue sources to assess its capacity for further debt issuance. Determination of the affordable level of general obligation debt essentially depends upon the State's ability and willingness to pay debt service now and in the future on any amounts borrowed. For the immediate future, Alaska's debt capacity will be determined by the amount of general fund revenues that the State wishes to allocate to the payment of debt service and the preservation of the permanent fund. Thus, short-term affordability depends exclusively on the fluctuating level and uncertain future of oil revenues as long as the State's source of funds to repay debt is tied to this single source. In the longer term, when the State's oil wealth has subsided, the ability of Alaska to issue debt will depend upon the stability and breadth of the State's economy. Without its extensive petroleum resource base Alaska will become much more like other states and analysis of its debt capacity will follow the traditional steps outlined in pages 196 to 206.

The methodology for evaluating Alaska's short-term debt affordability is presented on pages 218 to 222. If the State maintains its current ratio of debt service to revenues at the five percent level and continues to issue debt with maturities within the known and predictable range of State revenues, the State's creditworthiness will be preserved. If the State wishes to have debt service comprise a larger share of the State budget (to a maximum of 10 percent), debt capacity would be increased -- although this would force trade-offs against other State spending priorities and possibly result in a decline in the State's AA credit rating. Through 1990, the State's general obligation debt capacity is estimated to range from $252 million to $1.2 billion, depending upon the level of current revenues the State decides to commit to the payment of debt service.

Because of the frequent changes in petroleum prices and their impact on State revenues, the affordability analysis along the lines presented in this report must be continually updated. Revisions should take place at least quarterly when the Department of Revenue releases long-range revenue forecasts and when ever the State issues general obligation debt. Such analysis will provide the State Bond Committee with important information to be used in formulating future debt issuance plans.

Even though the affordability of revenue bonds is principally determined by the adequacy of the revenue stream pledged to repayment of the bonds, along with the market's acceptance of the security structure behind the bonds, revenue bonds indirectly affect the State's debt capacity. To the extent that revenue bonds are supported by a pledge of the State's moral obligation, or their issuance creates an oversupply of bonds bearing the Alaska name in the marketplace, the State's ability and willingness to carry debt will be affected.

Use of Moral Obligation Bonds

We do not see the possibility of entirely eliminating the use of the State's moral obligation pledge in the case of all Alaska financings. Where it is possible to avoid its use, such as in the case of Alaska Housing Finance Corporation bonds, it should be avoided. The moral obligation pledge should not be treated as a right, available to most State issuers, as it is at present. Rather, it should be considered a privilege, an indication to the bond market that, after close scrutiny, the State believes the project meets public policy objectives and is financially sound. The State Bond Committee should have the responsibility for determining the necessity of the moral obligation to an agency's borrowing program, and its potential impact on the State's creditworthiness.

If moral obligation debt increases at a time when overall State revenues are stable, are growing at a rate less than the growth in contingent liabilities, or are declining, the moral obligation burden may encumber the State's credit capacity. Such an occurrence would make general obligation debt more costly and, therefore, less affordable due to weaker credit quality. Hence, the importance for including contingent debt in the State Bond Committee's annual review of the State's outstanding debt.

If it were not for the Permanent Fund, the limited sources of State revenue would cause investors to discount the moral obligation pledge heavily. The mere existence of the Permanent Fund provides comfort to bondholders that the State would be able to meet its moral obligations, if necessary, even though such action is not constitutionally permitted and would require a change in law. Any attempt to erode the principal of the Fund, or to otherwise weaken its position should, therefore, be avoided.

Capital Financing Plan

Demonstrating keen fiscal management and attention to capital financing and debt management is especially important to Alaska because of the uncertainties surrounding State revenues. The State must wisely allocate scarce resources to its developing economy in a manner that balances capital investment with the return on that investment yielding a diverse and broadened economy that will be able to maintain the public infrastructure put in place. Accordingly, the need for a capital financing plan linked to a comprehensive capital improvement plan is evident. (see pages 165 to 174)

The quality of financial reporting is an important element in a capital financing plan and to the complete debt management picture. While Alaska's financial reporting is complete, it does not conform to generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). States that use an accounting system that conforms to, and is consistent with, GAAP benefit in several ways (see pages 174-175). It is recommended that the State consider converting its annual financial reports to GAAP. Such action will provide the State with vital information on its financial condition, encourage the State to take a global view of outstanding debt, improve financial management, and will be looked upon favorably by investors in the State's bonds.

General Debt Management

Specific debt management practices being used in the State could be improved. The State and its agencies recognize the importance of securing professional advice on debt issuance. However, financial advisors and bond counsel are typically compensated based on a percentage of the amount of bonds sold. Tying the advisor's compensation to the amount of bonds sold or the successful delivery of the bonds builds in an unnecessary risk of conflict of interest. The State should review its method of compensation for financial advisory services and seek arrangements that do not encourage conflicts between the advice and the payment for the advice. In this regard, a flat fee -- such as a base retainer and hourly rates -- is to be preferred over a fee based upon the amount of bonds issued. (see pages 185 to 190).

There is a place for both negotiated and competitive techniques for selling bonds in a debt management and debt marketing strategy. The approach which is judged to provide the greatest market reception and lowest interest cost should be followed. While each bond issue is unique, it appears that some bond issues presently being sold by negotiation by the State, for example, those of the Alaska Housing Finance Corporation, would be candidates for a competitive sale. (see pages 182 to 184).

Neither the State Bonding Act nor the State statutes regarding municipal debt specify the method by which effective interest rate on a competitive bond sale must be determined. However, the State and most municipalities have chosen to use the net interest cost (NIC) method to compare alternative bids at competitive sale. This method may not be in the best interests of the State because the winning bid on a NIC basis does not necessarily result in the lowest true interest cost (TIC) -- a measure of the "true" cost of borrowing money that takes into account the time value of money. We recommend that the State Bond Committee review the current rules that govern the award of the State's competitive general obligation bond issues, and that municipalities be encouraged to do so as well, with a view toward awarding bond issues on the basis of TIC. (see pages 179 to 181).

Local Government Debt

Local governments in Alaska have issued approximately 29 percent of all State-wide debt. The analysis of local government borrowing in Chapter Five indicates that the bonds of Alaska's localities sell at yields significantly above the average for the overall market. Furthermore, the evidence indicates that yields on the North Slope Borough's debt are vastly higher than the average for other Alaska municipalities. The most significant comparison of local and State bond issuance is the markedly higher underwriting cost on local issues. Compared to other states, local governments in the Alaska rely on general obligation bond financing at twice the national rate. Given the high levels of debt that have been issued by the State's localities, the much higher than average interest costs of Alaska's local debt, and the loss to the State of revenues from taxes levied by certain localities to pay the annual debt service on their debt, the State may wish to analyze further local bond market experience and State policies regarding local debt management. The State should take the lead in implementing programs that encourage the prudent use and guard against the misuse of local debt issuance.

Currently the State is being short-changed by those localities that levy a high amount of taxes on oil production property in order to finance debt service. Because taxes paid to the locality are credited towards State property tax liability, this represents a direct revenue loss to the State. It is, therefore, in the State's interest to address the absolute level of debt issuance by its localities. It is recommended that the State develop a two-tiered ceiling on local debt issuance, based on per capita amounts of debt and a percentage of property value.

Specific State-level programs which can assist local borrowers and improve local debt management are covered in pages 136 to 141. In evaluating alternative State policies, the State must consider both the direct budgetary costs of the programs and the indirect effects on the State's own credit worthiness, and the amount of autonomy the State wishes its localities to enjoy. A reasonable compromise between encumbering the State's debt capacity and providing greater financial assistance to local governments would be to expand the role of the Municipal Bond Bank. Our review of the Bank's market performance indicated that, compared with other state bond banks, the Alaska Bond Bank has the potential for saving as many as 50 basis points in borrowing cost by undertaking an active national marketing effort. The State should review the present security structure behind the Bank's bonds with the view toward improving their market reception by taking advantage of the State's high creditworthiness.

The State's present program to subsidize the cost of school construction is an expensive undertaking; however, its cost could be minimized through attention to the cost of the project and to the means of financing during the Department of Education's approval process. Further alternatives include the issuance of State general obligation bonds in lieu of local school construction bonds, and requiring the Municipal Bond Bank to issue all school construction debt.

GFRC Debt Study Recommendations

1. State Bond Committee

a) Oversight responsibilities of the State Bond Committee should include all State-level debt.

b) Committee Chairman should be Commissioner of Revenue or Director of O.M.B., as they are actually involved in the State's Debt Management.

c) Membership of State Bond Committee should be expanded to include the Commissioner of Community and Regional Affairs and the head of a debt issuing agency (AHFC, AIDA, etc.).

d) State Bond Committee should have a full time professional staff person who is an expert in public finance.

e) State Bond Committee should require annual financing plans from each authorized issuer of bonds.

f) The State Bond Committee should prepare an annual profile of outstanding debt and monitor its impact on the State's fiscal condition.

g) State Bond Committee should develop written debt management guidelines.

2. Debt Capacity:

To preserve State's credit worthiness the State should keep its debt service-to-revenue ratio to 5%, and the State should keep maturities within the known and predictable range of State revenues (we could go to as high as 10%, but we would face tradeoffs against other spending priorities and it could result in a lowering of the State's AA rating).

3. Moral Obligation Bonds:

a) Where possible, use of the moral obligation should be avoided. The moral obligation should be a privilege not a right. State Bond Committee should make the determination.

b) Existence of the Permanent Fund provides comfort to bondholders that the State would be able to meet its moral obligation (even though not presently permitted by the Constitution), so any attempt to erode the principal of the Fund should be avoided.

4. Capital Financing Plan:

a) A plan linking a capital financing plan to our long range capital improvement plan is necessary.

b) The State should consider bringing its accounting system into conformance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP).

5. Local Government Debt Management

a) The State should take the lead in implementing programs that encourage the prudent use, and guard against the misuse, of local debt issuance.

b) The State should take steps to improve the market performance of the Municipal Bond Bank and use of the Bond Bank by all localities should be encouraged.

c) The State should develop a two-tiered ceiling on local debt issuance, based on per capita amounts of debt and as a percentage of property values.

d) The current State program to subsidize school construction should be replaced.

6. General Debt Management:

a) Financial advisors and bond counsel should be paid on a flat fee basis rather than as a percentage of the bond issue to avoid any conflicts between the advice and payment for advice.

b) Greater use of competitive bidding versus negotiated sales should be used when possible. For example: AHFC issues.

c) Bonds should be bid on the basis of true interest cost, not net interest cost, as is presently done.

(c) Refunding bonds may be exchanged for the bonds being refunded or refunding bonds may be sold in the manner and at the prices which the state bond committee determines to be for the best interest of the state and its inhabitants either at public or private sale.

(d) The issuance of refunding bonds need not be authorized by the qualified voters of the state. Sec. 37.15.410. Bond authorization. For the purpose of providing part or all of the money to be used, with or without any grants or other money which may become available, the issuance and sale of revenue bonds of the state in the total principal sum of not to exceed $62,825,000 is authorized to acquire, equip, construct and install the additions, improvements, extensions and facilities authorized in AS 37.15.510. The principal of and interest on these bonds shall be paid out of and secured by the gross revenues derived by the state from the ownership, lease, use and operation of the airports, and of all the facilities of them and out of any other revenues or money which the state legislature may provide exclusive of any state tax or license. (§ 1 ch 149 SLA 1972; am § 1 ch 66 SLA 1974; am § 1 ch 68 SLA 1979; am § 1 ch 11 SLA 1982; am § 1 ch 25 SLA 1983)

Effect of amendments. — The 1979 amendment substituted "$43,325,000" for "$34,825,000" in the first sentence.

The 1982 amendment, substituted "$34,825,000" for "$43,325,000" in the first sentence.

The 1983 amendment substituted

"$62,825,000" for "$34,825,000" in the first sentence.

Editor's notes. — See ch. 69, SLA 1979 in Temporary and Special Acts and Resolves for the appropriation of the increase in bonds authorized by ch. 68, SLA 1979.

Sec. 37.15.420. Construction fund. (a) There is a special fund of the state known as the "International Airports Construction Fund," into which shall be paid the proceeds of the sale of the bonds (except any accrued interest paid on them, which shall be paid into the bond redemption fund) and any grant or other money which is legally provided for the same purposes for which the bonds are authorized. The money in the construction fund shall be used to pay the costs of acquiring, equipping, constructing and installing additions and improvements to and extensions of and facilities for the airports and costs incidental thereto including costs of the authorization, issuance and sale of the bonds. To the extent provided in the bond resolution, money in the construction fund may also be used for the payment of interest on the bonds during the period of actual construction, and for such further period, not exceeding one year after the period of construction, as may be provided in the bond resolution. Money in the construction fund may also be transferred to the bond redemption fund, to the extent provided in the bond resolution, to establish a reserve for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds.

(b) The bond resolution may provide for the investment of money in the construction fund in such manner as the committee may determine. The interest earned upon or any profits derived from the sale of this investment shall be deposited in and become a part of the construction fund. (§ 1 ch 149 SLA 1972)

Cross references. — For initial appropriations to fund, see section 2, ch. 149, SLA 1972, Temporary and Special Acts.

Opinions of Attorney General. — This fund does not represent an unconstitutional dedication of public funds under § 7, art. IX, of the state constitution, as that section of the constitution contains an implied exception for revenue derived from bond issues and for revenue derived from facilities constructed with bond proceeds, at least to the extent that it is necessary to satisfy the debt obligation or maintain the facility so that it continues to generate revenues for that purpose. November 30, 1982, Op. Att'y Gen.

Sec. 37.15.430. Revenue fund. (a) There is another special fund of the state, known as the "International Airports Revenue Fund," which shall be completely segregated and set apart from all other funds of the state, which is a trust fund for the uses and purposes provided in AS 37.15.410 — 37.15.550, and into which shall be paid all revenues, fees, charges and rentals derived by the state from the ownership, lease, use and operation of the airports and all of the facilities and improvements of them and facilities and improvements used in connection with them. These revenues, charges, fees and rentals shall not include the proceeds of any state tax or license. The money in the revenue fund shall only be used for the purpose of paying or securing the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds and of and on any other revenue bonds issued by authorization of the legislature to provide funds to acquire, equip, construct and install additions and improvements to, and extensions of and facilities for, the airports and to be payable out of the revenue fund, the purpose of paying the normal and necessary costs of maintaining and operating the airports and all of the improvements and facilities of them, the purpose of paying the costs of renewals, replacements and extraordinary repairs to the airports and all of the improvements and facilities of them, the purpose of redeeming before their fixed maturities any and all revenue bonds issued for the purposes of the airports, the purpose of providing funds to acquire, construct and install necessary additions and improvements to and extensions of and facilities for the airports and all of their facilities, and the purpose of providing funds to pay any and all other

(b) The investment of money in the revenue fund may be made in such manner as the committee may determine. The interest earned upon or any profits derived from the sale of this investment shall be deposited in and become a part of the revenue fund. (§ 1 ch 149 SLA 1972)

derived from facilities constructed with bond proceeds, at least to the extent that it is necessary to satisfy the debt obligation or maintain the facility so that it continues to generate revenues for that purpose. November 30, 1982, Op. Att'y Gen.

Sec. 37.15.440. Redemption fund. There is another special fund of the state, known as the "International Airports Revenue Bond Redemption Fund," which is a trust fund for paying and securing the payment of the principal of and interest and redemption premium, if any, on the bonds and which shall be at all times completely segregated and set apart from all other funds of the state. The committee, on behalf of the state, shall obligate and bind the state to set aside and pay into the bond redemption fund any part or parts of, or all of, or a fixed proportion of, or a fixed amount of the money in the revenue fund sufficient to pay the principal of and interest and redemption premium, if any, on the bonds as the payments become due and, if it considers it necessary, to set aside and maintain reserves for this purpose. The bond redemption fund shall be drawn upon for the purpose of paying the principal of and interest and redemption premium, if any, on the bonds, and the bonds do not constitute a general obligation of the state. (§ 1 ch 149 SLA 1972) derived from facilities constructed with bond proceeds, at least to the extent that it is necessary to satisfy the debt obligation or maintain the facility so that it continues to generate revenues for that purpose. November 30, 1982, Op. Att'y Gen.

Sec. 37.15.450. Bond terms. (a) The bonds shall be sold in such amounts or series and at such time or times as determined by the committee. Before selling a series of bonds, the committee shall give notice inviting sealed bids in such manner as it may prescribe. If satisfactory bids are received, the bonds offered for sale shall be awarded to the highest responsible bidder. If the committee determines that the bids received are not satisfactory as to price or responsibility of the bidders, it may reject all bids received. The bonds, or each series of them, shall be sold at such a price so that the effective interest rate over the life of the bonds does not exceed 11 percent per year or that rate of interest which is 125 percent of the rate of the Bond Buyer Index of 20 Municipal Bond Average Yields for the week previous to the date of sale of the bonds, whichever is higher. Interest shall be payable annually or semiannually.

(b) The bonds shall mature at such time or times as fixed by the committee. The bonds may be subject to redemption before their fixed maturities as determined by the committee and with such premium or premiums as fixed by the committee, but no bond may be subject to redemption before its fixed maturity date unless the right so to redeem that bond is expressly mentioned on the face of the bond. The bonds may be in denominations determined by the committee; may be issued in coupon form or in fully registered form, and may be registrable as to principal or both principal and interest, all under such regulations and conditions as the committee shall provide; shall be payable as to principal and interest at such place or places as may be determined by the committee; shall be signed on behalf of the state by the governor and shall be attested by the lieutenant governor, both of which signatures may be facsimile signatures; shall have the seal of the state impressed, printed or lithographed on them, and each of the interest coupons attached to them shall be signed by the facsimile signatures of these officials; shall be issued under and subject to such terms, conditions and covenants providing for the payment of the principal of them and interest on them and such other terms, conditions, covenants and protective features safeguarding this payment and relating to the maintenance, operation and improvement of the airports as found necessary by the committee, which covenants may include a provision requiring the setting aside and maintenance of certain reserves to secure the payment of this principal and interest. The committee may provide that any additional bonds authorized after June 27, 1972 by the legislature to be payable out of the same source or sources as the bonds authorized as of that date may later be issued on a parity with the bonds authorized as of that date upon compliance with any conditions which the committee may prescribe.

(c) If found reasonably necessary, the committee may select a trustee or trustees for the holders of the bonds or any series of them, for the safeguarding and disbursement of any of the money in any of the funds created by AS 37.15.420, 37.15.430 and 37.15.440, or for such duties with respect to the authentication, delivery and registration of the bonds as the committee may determine, and shall fix the rights, duties, powers and obligations of the trustee or trustees.

(d) In its determination of all of the matters and questions relating to the issuance and sale of the bonds and the fixing of the maturities, terms, conditions and covenants of them as provided in (a), (b) and (c) of this section, the decisions of the committee shall be those found to be reasonably necessary for the best interests of the state and its inhabitants, and those which will accomplish the most advantageous sale of the bonds, with due regard, however, to necessary or normal costs of maintenance and operation, renewals and replacements of and repairs to the airports and to all improvements to them and facilities of them owned, used, operated or leased in connection with them, the future growth and expansion of the airports and all of such facilities, and the possibility of additional revenue bond financing for airports purposes. Any such decisions of the committee, as expressed in any bond resolution, are final and conclusive when any bonds have been issued pursuant to the bond resolution.

(e) A bond resolution may provide that the bonds issued shall contain a recital that they are issued under AS 37.15.410 — 37.15.550, and any such bonds containing this recital shall be conclusively considered to be valid and to have been issued in conformity with AS 37.15.410 — 37.15.550.

(f) The validity of the authorization and issuance of bonds is not affected by any proceedings for the acquisition or construction of the additions, improvements, extensions or facilities for which the bonds have been issued or by any contracts in connection with the acquisition or construction. (§ 1 ch 149 SLA 1972; am §§ 1, 2 ch 19 SLA 1973; am § 4 ch 85 SLA 1980; am § 5 ch 110 SLA 1982)

Revisor's notes. — AS 37.15.460 was derived from § 7, ch. 88, SLA 1961, as amended by § 8, ch. 62, SLA 1968 and § 3, ch. 173, SLA 1970. In the last sentence of what is now designated subsection (b), the only differences between the wording here and in those earlier versions are that "hereafter" was changed to "after the effective date of this Act" and "authorized by this Act" (in two places) was changed to "authorized as of that date." The latter change suggests that the date referred to in the former change is June 27, 1972, the effective date of the Act putting these provisions in the Alaska Statutes, rather than

April 15, 1961, the effective date of the original international airports bond authorization Act. Therefore, under AS 01.05.031(b)(5), the 1972 date has been inserted in the text.

Effect of amendments. — The 1980 amendment substituted "10" for "eight" preceding "percent per year" near the end of the next-to-last sentence of subsection (a).

The 1982 amendment substituted the language beginning "11 percent per year" for "10 percent per year" at the end of the next-to-last sentence of subsection (a).

Sec. 37.15.460. Bond resolution. The committee is authorized and directed to adopt the bond resolution and prepare all other documents and proceedings necessary for the issuance, sale and delivery of the bonds or any part or series of them. The bond resolution shall fix the principal amount, denomination, date, maturities, place or places of payment, rights of redemption, if any, terms, form, conditions and covenants of the bonds or each series of them. The committee shall also determine and provide for the date and manner of sale of the bonds, and shall provide whether the notice of sale is to be published elsewhere in addition to the publication required by AS 37.15.450. (§ 1 ch 149 SLA 1972)

Sec. 37.15.470. Enforcement by holder. The holder of any bonds or the trustee for the holders of the bonds or any series of them, may by appropriate proceedings in the courts of record of the state, require and compel the transfer, setting aside and payment of money and the enforcement of all of the terms, conditions and covenants as required and provided in AS 37.15.410 — 37.15.550 and in the bond resolution. (§ 1 ch 149 SLA 1972)

Sec. 37.15.480. Amounts required for payments. The committee shall, before December 31 of each year, commencing with the year in which the bonds are issued, certify to the commissioners of revenue and transportation and public facilities the amounts required in the next ensuing calendar year by the bond resolution or resolutions to be paid out of the revenue fund into the bond redemption fund and to be paid into and maintained in any reserve fund or account or any other fund or account created by the bond resolution or resolutions, and shall also certify to the commissioners the last date or dates upon which payments may be made. (§ 1 ch 149 SLA 1972)

Sec. 37.15.490. Bond negotiability. The bonds and the coupons attached to them are fully negotiable instruments under the laws of the state. (§ 1 ch 149 SLA 1972)

Sec. 37.15.500. Airport charges. The commissioner of transportation and public facilities shall fix and collect such fees, charges and rentals derived by the state from the ownership, lease, use and operation of the airports and all of the facilities and improvements of them or used in connection with them as will provide revenues sufficient to comply with all of the covenants of the bond resolution. (§ 1 ch 149 SLA 1972)

Sec. 37.15.510. State improvements to airports. The state is authorized to acquire, equip, construct and install additions and improvements to and extensions of the airports, facilities for the landing, parking, loading, storing, repairing, safety and utility of aircraft at the airports and passenger, freight and terminal facilities, including safety equipment and devices at the airports, found to be necessary by the commissioner of transportation and public facilities. (§ 1 ch 149 SLA 1972)

Sec. 37.15.520. Refunding. (a) The bonds or any part of them may be refunded at or before their maturity by the issuance of refunding revenue bonds of the state if in the opinion of the committee refunding is advantageous to and in the best interests of the state and its inhabitants.

(b) The issuance of refunding bonds need not be authorized by an Act of the legislature, and the committee is authorized and directed to adopt the resolution or resolutions and prepare all other documents and proceedings necessary for the issuance, exchange or sale, and delivery of such bonds. All provisions of AS 37.15.410 — 37.15.550 applicable to revenue bonds are applicable to the refunding bonds and to the issuance, sale or exchange of them, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(c) Refunding bonds may be issued in a principal amount sufficient to provide funds for the payment of all bonds to be refunded by them, and, in addition, for the payment of all expenses incident to the calling, retiring or paying of the outstanding bonds, and the issuance of the refunding bonds. These expenses include the difference in amount between the par value of the refunding bonds and any amount less than par for which the refunding bonds are sold, any amount necessary to be made available for the payment of interest upon the refunding bonds from the date of sale of them to the date of payment of the bonds to be refunded or to the date upon which the bonds to be refunded will be paid pursuant to the call of them or agreement with the holders of them, and the premium, if any, necessary to be paid in order to call or retire the outstanding bonds and the interest accruing on them to the date of the call or retirement. Bonds as legal investments. The bonds are legal investments for all banks, trust companies, savings banks, savings and loan associations and other persons carrying on a banking business, all insurance companies and other persons carrying on an insurance business, and all executors, administrators, trustees and other fiduciaries. The bonds may be accepted as security for deposits of all funds of the state and its political subdivisions. (§ 1 ch 149 SLA 1972)

Sec. 37.15.540. Statutory construction. AS 37.15.410 — 37.15.550 shall be liberally construed in order to carry out the purposes for which they were enacted, and all existing laws in conflict with any of these sections are superseded insofar as necessary to accomplish the purposes of and carry out the provisions of these sections.
