ORGANIZATIONAL AND

LEADERSHIP SKILLS: Worked independently, representing a state legislator in his absence. Responsible for supervision of staff.

Supervised 8-10 clerks, parts clerks and warehouse workers in capacity as warehouse foreman at large pipeline camp (Galbraith). Responsible for purchase of equipment and supplies valued at $1.5 Million.

Incorporated goals, objectives and responsibilities to be accomplished within legislative committee framework.
Organized, set direction and maintained cohesiveness within legislative committee of nine inter-related consultant studies.

Planned, organized and facilitated arts festivals and events with an attendance of 5,000 and a two day budget of $30,000. Supervised volunteer staff of 100. Consistently updated format through utilizing participant and staff feedback and resources as they became available.

Prepared grant proposals, administered grants and maintained oversight of CETA employees.

COMMUNICATION SKILLS: Acted as legislative liaison to the University of Alaska providing improved communications and cooperation.

Effectively solved legislator's constituent problems with state agencies in a positive manner.

Acted as public relations person by actively seeking and maintaining contacts with a wide variety of agencies, businesses, individuals and interest groups. Represented groups and individuals through various use of media: TV, radio and newspaper.

RESEARCH SKILLS: Researched and analyzed financial needs of the University of Alaska. Prepared legislative fiscal reports and recommendations concerning UA's $185+ million budget.

Researched historical data and provided an overall view of background information pertinent to legislative committee work.

FINANCIAL SKILLS: Operated as financial consultant for individuals, non-profit corporations, single proprietorships, partnerships and small corporations.

Operated as full-charge bookkeeper, prepared financial statements and tax forms for profit and non-profit entities.

Actively raised funds for non-profit groups through private and public sources.

WORK HISTORY:

3/81 to present. Realtor with ERA Meyeres Real Estate. During 1982, my annual sales exceeded $1.8 million.

12/76 to present. Self-employed as organizational and financial consultant. Within this time period, I worked for the legislature (off and on) as needed as an aide to ex-Rep. Brian Rogers and the House Finance Committee. Since becoming a Realtor, this work has been done strictly on an 'occasional' basis.

1/74 to 12/76. Worked as truck driver, surveyor and warehouse foreman for several pipeline contractors. Warehouse foreman for Arctic Constructors.

9/70 to 3/72. Administrative Assistant. Western Washington State College, Bellingham, Washington.

EDUCATION:

University of Alaska (1979-1981)

10 credits towards a degree in Business Administration.

3.7 Average. I plan on taking six credits next semester.

Copley High School, Akron, Ohio (1968 Graduate)

Graduated in top 3% of class. Offered several scholarships to colleges but unable to accept them due to death in family and subsequent responsibilities.

Much of my education has been self-taught or acquired through thousands of hours of volunteer work.

VOLUNTEER WORK:

Solstice, Inc. (non-profit arts organization), 1975-present. Past officer and present member.

Minority Business Enterprises (non-profit, state-funded org.), 1981-1982. I was asked to serve as Board Member to help save the failing organization.

Women in Crisis-Counseling and Assistance, (non-profit, state funded) 1980-1982. Past officer and present member. Averaged 40-100 hours per month during crisis situations.

College Community Center, past officer and past member.

Campaign Worker: Croft for Governor
Rodey for Senate
Brian Rogers for State House
Cowper for Governor
Sheffield for Governor
many other local, statewide and federal candidates

PERSONAL:

Age: 32, Excellent health. Avid reader and musician.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Final power and authority to determine standards for admission to the practice of law in Alaska resides in the supreme court, which has the inherent power to intercede at any time in admission matters. In re Luna, Sup. Ct. Op. No. 1503 (File No. 2789), 569 P.2d 789 (1977).

Practice of law not defined. — There is no rule defining the practice of law. Nor is there a statute defining the term except in the context of the requirements of active practice of law as a qualification for justices. In re Robson, Sup. Ct. Op. No. 1573 (File No. 3448), 575 P.2d 771 (1978). See also In re Labcock, Sup. Ct. Op. No. 178 (File No. 408), 387 P.2d 694 (1963), decided prior to the 1976 and 1981 amendments to this section.

For case construing board's power to define the practice of law prior to the 1976 amendment of this section, see In re Moody, Sup. Ct. Op. No. 1065 (File No. 2035), 524 P.2d 1261 (1974).

A superior court law clerk should be regarded as practicing law for the purposes of membership classification. In Moody, Sup. Ct. Op. No. 1065 (File No. 2035), 524 P.2d 1261 (1974).

Activities constituted practice of law in violation of supreme court's suspension order. — Where a person held himself out as a lawyer; performed legal services and gave legal advice in setting up a prepaid legal service plan, completing and filing necessary forms; signed a letter of the type usually written by an attorney with "attorney at law" printed aside his name; permitted another person to refer to

ALASKA BOARD OF GOVERNORS--This statute only amended in 1981, creating a 12-man board in place of a 9-man board, with three new ones to be lay members appointed by the governor. (The other nine, all attorneys, are elected at annual bar convention--this year June 9 & 10--and will take office, any new ones, June 11).

*Lay Members:

KAREN SLACK, Anchorage, Term expires 1984 (probably June 30th). She has just resigned, by letter, and in same, asks governor to appoint as quickly as possible...may be an appointment coming through for her LeROY COOK, Fairbanks, term expires June 30, 1983...expected to resign, as Hammond appointed him in last days of Hammond regime. His name is NOT going to Sheffield, according to Randy Burns, executive director of Alaska Bar Ass'n. in ANchorage...and of course, he has not been confirmed by any House Judiciary Committee...since it's a new administration, suppose Sheffield will nominate a replacement when he gets around to it.

LEW M. WILLIAMS, Ketchikan, just appointed by Governor, not yet confirmed, term expires in 1985 (June 30th).
