Senate Committee on Resources

TO: Senate Resources Committee Members
FROM: Senate Resources Committee Staff
RE: HB 271
DATE: June 9, 1983

SB 169 and SB 170 which passed out of Resources Committee 4/11/83, provide for establishment of an Alaska grain reserve program and loan fund (SB 169) and appropriation of funds to the loan fund (SB 170).

HB 156, (establishment) and HB 271 (appropriation) are the House versions of these two bills. When Resources reported HB 156 out of Committee on 5/25/83, we neglected to also report out HB 271. The Committee Report on this bill is attached for your signature.

HB 271 differs from the Senate version as follows:

SB 170 Appropriation of $1.65 million to the grain reserve loan fund.

HB 271 Appropriation of $1.65 million -- $1,592,400 to the grain reserve loan fund; $67,600 for operational expenses. (This eliminates the need for a fiscal note on HB 156 -- the bill which establishes the program.)

HB 271

REPEALING AN APPROPRIATION MADE TO THE AGRICULTURAL ACTION COUNCIL; MAKING SPECIAL APPROPRIATIONS TO, AND FOR THE OPERATION OF, THE ALASKA GRAIN RESERVE LOAN FUND.

SPONSOR: SHULTZ, LACHER. FINANCE COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE.

Like SB 170, but the $1.65 million reappropriation is split to provide $1,582,400 for the loan fund and $67,600 for operational expenses. This makes the companion bill (HB 156) have zero fiscal impact.
