20 (b) Upon receiving a petition under (a) of this section, the

26 [SUPERIOR] court may issue any order it determines to be necessary for 27 the protection of the health, safety or welfare of the petitioner or 28 of a minor child in the care of the petitioner. An order under this

28 from domestic violence, the [SUPERIOR] court may extend the provision
29 of the order for a period of time not to exceed 45 days. The court

17 SUPERIOR COURT IMMEDIATELY UPON ISSUANCE OF AN ORDER GRANTING EMER-
18 GENCY INJUNCTIVE RELIEF UNDER THIS SECTION.]

18 * Sec. 7. AS 25.35.020(d) is amended to read:

State of Alaska

OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE DIRECTOR

KARLA L. FORSYTHE
General Counsel

303 K Street
Anchorage, AK 99501

March 1, 1985

Representative Mike Miller
Chair, House Judiciary Committee
Alaska State Legislature
Pouch V
Juneau, Alaska 99811

Dear Representative Miller:

The Alaska Court System requests that the House Judiciary Committee consider three amendments to CSSB 1, an act relating to the jurisdiction of the superior court and the district court, presently before the committee and scheduled for hearing on March 11.

Section one of the bill provides that "an action that falls within the concurrent jurisdiction of the superior court and the district court may not be filed in the superior court, except as provided by rules of the supreme court." District court judges are concerned that this provision could be construed to require filing of domestic violence petitions in district court. The intent of the proposed legislation is to expand the court's ability to hear these matters, not to require that these petitions be heard in district court. The intent would be clarified by rewording section one to include the following underlined language: "With the exception of petitions for injunctive relief under AS 25.35.010, an action that falls within the concurrent jurisdiction...".

This language should also be added to paragraph (b) of section one (page 2, line 23).

The court system also requests that the immediate effective date provided in section 10 be amended to provide for an effective date of July 1, 1985. As contemplated by section one, the supreme court will consider adopting a rule which permits actions within the district court monetary limits to be filed in superior court if they are particularly complex or if there are other compelling circumstances. An effective date of July 1 would provide sufficient time to adopt this rule.

Additionally, the effective date section should provide that the filing requirement applies only to those cases filed after the effective date of the legislation.

As a final comment, there appears to be a typographical error on page 2, line 4. A hyphen has been deleted from the statutory citation, which should read "AS 09.55.020 - 09.55.060."

Thank you for your consideration of these comments. If further information is needed, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Karla L. Forsythe
General Counsel
