ANALYSIS FOR SENATE BILL 2

This bill extends the life of the Board of Governors of the Alaska Bar Association for four more years. Unless this legislation is passed, the Board will expire on June 30, 1985.

There is a Judiciary Committee Substitute which shortens the period of extension from five to four years. This is necessary because the original bill did not conform to those provisions of the sunseting law that stipulate the maximum extension to be four years.

There is no fiscal impact but an $11,400 fiscal note was at some point made up by the the Senate Judiciary Committee but never officially adopted. Staff has verified that there is no additional fiscal impact because this amount has already been requested in the Governor's FY 86 budget, Commissioners Office, Department of Community and Regional Affairs. (copy attached). To avoid possible future confusion, it might be advisable for the Senate Finance Committee to adopt a new zero fiscal note.

DESCRIBE WHY THIS INCREMENT/DECREMENT IS NEEDED AND WHAT IT PURCHASES:

This increment will fund a grant to the Alaska Bar Association to pay for the travel and per diem expenses of the three lay (non-attorney) members of the Association's Board of Governors during FY 85.

The Legislature decided in 1982 that expenses of the Board 's lay members should be covered by the General Fund rather than by the Alaska Bar Association itself in order to ensure the independence of these public representatives. Lay member expenses have previously been included in the operating budget of the Office of the Governor.

The funds requested will permit the three public members of the Board of Governors to attend the six scheduled meetings of the Alaska Bar Association during FY 86.

Jay Hogan
Associate Director of Budget Review
Office of Management and Budget
Office of the Governor
State of Alaska
Pouch AM
Juneau, AK 99811

Dear Mr. Hogan:

As we discussed last week, I am writing to provide the Office of the Governor with the Alaska Bar Association's funding request for FY '86. As you are aware, the Alaska Bar requests funding for only the travel and per diem expenses of the public members appointed to the Board of Governors, the entity which governs the operations of the Association. When we spoke, you indicated that some background information on the Association's request would be helpful, so before I get down to dollars and cents, I thought I'd provide you with a history of the Association's appropriations request.

The Bar Association, like many other State agencies and instrumentalities, was placed under provisions of "sunset" legislation adopted in the mid-Seventies. As a result of legislative hearings on the continued existence of the Bar during 1980 and 1981, the Integrated Bar Act was amended in 1981 to include the addition of three non-attorney (or public) members to the Bar's governing board.

In early 1982, at the instigation of Senator Rodey and with the concurrence of the Governor's Office, the leadership of both the House of Representatives and the Senate formally requested Governor Hammond to provide monies from out of his contingency fund to pay for the travel and per diem expenses of the public members about to be appointed to the Board of Governors. As is stated in President Kerttula's and Speaker Hayes' March 26, 1982 letter (copy attached), the Legislature agreed "that it would not be appropriate to have the Association pay for the expenses [of the non-attorney members] as it would, indeed, affect the independence of the lay members."

In October of 1982, following the appointment in July of that year of the first three public members to the Board of Governors, the Association requested an appropriation in the amount of $9,447.00 to cover the projected expenses of the public members for one year. The Bar received a check in that amount from the State of Alaska on November 9, 1982.

In December of 1983 I wrote to John Shively concerning the Bar's request for FY '85 (copy attached). Because slightly less than half of the original $9,447 appropriation had actually been expended by the end of 1983, the Bar Association requested an appropriation of only $6,572 for FY '85. The $6,572 figure reflected the difference between the Bar's FY '85 projected costs of $11,205.00 and the as yet unexpended balance of $4,633.00 from the original appropriation.

However, the lateness of my FY '85 request to the Governor, coupled with the Administration's belief that the Bar's request should more appropriately be included in the State's operating budget (as opposed to coming directly from the Governor's contingency fund), mandated that the Bar Association seek its FY '85 request directly from the Alaska Legislature.

As John Shively's January 3, 1984 letter indicates (copy attached), the Administration did agree that it was "appropriate public policy for the State to pay for the [expenses of the] non-attorney members" who serve on the Bar's Board of Governors. Mr. Shively also expressed the willingness of the Administration to support the Association's efforts before the Legislature in adding the Bar's request to the already published operating budget.

Fortunately, with the support in the House of Judiciary Committee Chair Charlie Bussell, the support in the Senate of Senator Bob Ziegler, and the support of the Administration, the Bar's request for $6,500 was "appropriated from the general fund to the Office of the Governor to pay for the per diem and travel expenses of the lay appointees to the Board of Governors of the Alaska Bar Association" (see Section 68, Chapter 171, of SLA 1984).

Under an agreement worked out with the Administration through Michael Nizich, the Bar Association will submit itemized billings to the Office of the Governor for the expenses it incurs during FY '85 on behalf of the public members on the Board.

October 16, 1984

In follow-up to John Shively's January 3rd letter, I wrote Mr. Shively in late August of this year concerning inclusion of the Bar's funding request in the Governor's FY '86 Budget submission to the Legislature. It was Mr. Shively's September 21st response, as you know, that prompted my telephone call to you late last week and which now brings me back to the Association's FY '86 request.

We are requesting an appropriation for FY '86 of $11,898 or, rounded, $11,900. This amount reflects the travel and per diem costs of sending the three (3) public members on the Board of Governors to six (6) Board meetings between July 1, 1985 and June 30, 1986. Five meetings will be held in Anchorage and one meeting in Valdez (the site of the 1986 Bar Convention).

As of this date, there remains but $1,176.25 of the original $9,447.00 appropriation. The upcoming three-day meeting of the Board in early November will finally exhaust the amount remaining from that original appropriation. That will leave us with the $6,500 from the FY '85 budget appropriation to cover lay member expenses through June of 1985. There are three additional meetings scheduled between December of this year and June of next year. Our projection for those three meetings (two in Anchorage, one in Sitka) assumes a cost of $6,300.00, so we should be right on budget now, with no substantial carry-over.

Not knowing what kind of detail you need or desire, I provide the following expense breakdown for the three public members in FY '86:

3rd Quarter, 1985
1, two-day meeting in Anchorage	$ 1,908.00
4th Quarter, 1985
2 meetings in Anchorage (1 two-day and 1 three-day meeting)	$ 3,189.00
1st Quarter, 1986
2, two-day meetings in Anchorage	$ 3,508.00
2nd Quarter, 1986
1 meeting in Valdez (Bar Convention, 4 days)	$ 3,293.00
	<hr/>
Total for FY '86	$11,898.00

October 16, 1984

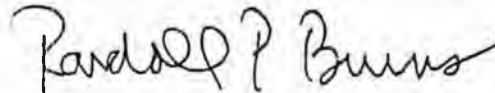

Should you have any questions concerning this funding request, please do not hesitate to contact me. Very specific budget detail regarding our request is obviously available, should you wish it.

Finally, I would appreciate hearing from you, as budget preparations progress, regarding the placement of this request within the operating budget. I understand that there is some question concerning in which department the Bar's request should be inserted (e.g., Department of Law, Court System, Office of the Governor). Once that matter is resolved, I would appreciate knowing from OMB which department will act as our foster parent. The Bar Association, I know, would prefer to continue within the operating budget of the Office of the Governor under its current relatively uncomplex system of reimbursement.

I appreciate the assistance of your Office in this matter.

Very truly yours,

RE: Travel and per diem expenses for the three lay members appointed to the Board of Governors of the Alaska Bar

Dear Mr. Reinwand:

On June 25, 1981 the Governor approved Chapter 52 SLA 1981 which amended AS 08.08.040 to increase the Board of Governors of the Alaska Bar to nine active members and three persons appointed by the Governor who are not attorneys.

It has come to our attention that no monies were appropriated to cover the travel and per diem expenses of the three lay members. This matter has been discussed with the Alaska Bar Association and we agree that it would not be appropriate to have the Association pay for the expenses as it would, indeed, affect the independence of the lay members.

Attached is an expense projection which outlines the travel and per diem expenses for the three lay members for the time period of July 1, 1982 through June 30, 1983. The total projection is $9,447.00.

We understand this matter has been brought to your attention and agree that it would be more appropriate to pay these expenses from the Governor's contingency fund.

Representative Joe L. Hayes
Speaker of the House of Representatives

John Shively
Chief of Staff
Office of the Governor
State of Alaska
Pouch A
Juneau, AK 99811

Dear Mr. Shively:

I am writing on behalf of the Alaska Bar Association to request an appropriation from the Office of the Governor in the amount of $6,572.00. This amount is requested for the calendar year 1984, to fund the projected travel and per diem expenses of the non-attorney members who serve on the Board of Governors of the Bar Association.

In 1981 the Alaska Legislature enacted, and Governor Hammond signed into law, a number of amendments to Chapter 8 of Title 8 (the "Alaska Integrated Bar Act"). Among the most important was an amendment to AS 08.08.040 ("Board of Governors of the Alaska Bar") which added three (3) non-attorney or "lay" members to the nine-attorney-member Board of Governors. The non-attorney members are appointed by the Governor and are subject to confirmation by the Legislature in joint session.

Since July of 1980, the Alaska Bar Association has essentially been self-supportive and has received no funds from the State for its operating expenses. However, both houses of the Legislature felt that the major expenses of the non-attorney -- or public -- members should be borne by the State of Alaska in order to not compromise "the independence of the lay members" (see attached letter, dated March 26, 1982). House Speaker Joe Hayes and Senate President Jay Kerttula co-signed the letter to Governor Hammond, agreeing with the Administration that it would be appropriate for the expenses of the public members to be paid for from out of the Governor's contingency fund.

In October of 1982 I wrote Jerry Reinwand, Governor Hammond's Executive Assistant, requesting an appropriation in the amount of $9,447.00 to cover the projected expenses of the public members for one year (see the October 1, 1982 letter attached). We received a check in that amount from the State on November 9, 1982. Enclosed with this letter, as promised, is a printout of the expenses for the public members through the end of this year. Of the $9,447.00 received, the Bar Association has expended $4,814.00 leaving an unexpended balance of $4,633.00. The amount spent is considerably less than projected, mainly because of vacancies, the serious illness of one lay member, and a "period of adjustment" during the first half of 1983 between the time vacancies occurred in two public member positions and the now infamous appointments controversy was "settled" in June of this year. At the current time, only two of the public positions are filled, the Governor having an additional appointment to make.

The Alaska Bar's projected non-attorney expense for 1984 is $11,205.00 (see attached Bar Association budget for 1984). This is based on a computation of six Board meetings attended by three non-attorney members. All of the scheduled 1984 meetings are planned for Anchorage. The Association is requesting a 1984 appropriation of $6,572.00, which reflects the difference between the expected costs of $11,205.00 and the unexpended balance of $4,633.00.

The Bar Association itself obviously continues to support the wisdom of the State's original decision to fund the expense of the public members appointed to the Board of Governors, inasmuch as they particularly serve in the public's interest. Although it is my personal observation that the former, all-attorney Board never lost sight of its public role, the addition of the non-attorney members serves as an unqualified reminder to the Association of its responsibilities to the citizenry. This independence should not be compromised. Indeed, the Association has welcomed the participation of the public members, as it provides the Administration and the Legislature with individuals who can objectively evaluate the Bar's performance of its duties.

Further, because the Association receives no public funds (except for the costs of the non-attorney members), and survives primarily on the dues paid by its members, it is the position of the Association that it cannot be expected to fund the expense of the non-attorney appointments, especially when membership dues are $310.00 a year (the highest in the country), and the Association fully funds the cost of disciplining attorneys and substantially underwrites the cost of attorney admissions and the Bar's continuing legal education offerings.

John Shiveley

Dear Mr. Burns:

Thank you for your letter requesting that Governor Sheffield spend $6,572.00 out of our contingency fund. I have reviewed your request with other members of the Administration, and we agree that it is appropriate public policy for the State to pay for the non-attorney members of the Alaska Bar Association.

However, we do not believe it is appropriate that these funds come from the Governor's contingency fund. If they are intended to be an operating function of government, they should be in the operating budget.

Unfortunately, by the time we received your request, the Governor's operating budget was closed. It is necessary to close the budget in December so that we can have it printed in time to present to the Legislature on January 11.

The Administration would support any efforts the Bar Association would like to make to get the Legislature to add this appropriation to the operating budget. The appropriation would most appropriately be placed in the Department of Law but should you desire to have the appropriation elsewhere, I am sure that would not be a major issue. As these funds would not be available until after July 1, 1984, you may want to seek a slight increase in the amount requested. I would be glad to work with you on that if you so desire.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Bill Sheffield
