MEMORANDUM

Date: March 18, 1985

Re: SB 114

SB 114 is scheduled to be heard by the committee this afternoon. This bill proposes to amend AS 28.10.021 (motor vehicle registration) by requiring the Department of Public Safety to verify that federal heavy vehicle use taxes have been paid, for those vehicles required to do so, before the department can issue a registration for the vehicle. As the Governor's transmittal letter points out, if this change to the State's law is not made, the federal government may withhold 25% of federal funds for highway construction.

In your folder you have a copy of the bill, a copy of the federal statute making the bill necessary, a DPS fiscal note and analysis, and position papers from DPS and DOT/PF. Also included is a proposed amendment suggested by Jim Fischer of the Attorney General's office, which would delete references to requirements of the now defunct Alaska Transportation Commission.

Outline about SB 114

1. This legislation is required by passage of Federal legislation in 1982. That enactment was the Surface Transportation Assistance Act of 1982.

2. When Congress passed the 1982 statute it included a provision which could penalize a state for up to 25% of its federal highway aid money. To avoid such a penalty the state must check to see if the federal heavy vehicle use taxes have been paid. If the federal taxes have not been paid, then the state must refuse to register those heavy vehicles on which no use taxes have been paid.

3. Alaska statutes presently lack any provision which permits the Division of Motor Vehicles to refuse registration for failure to show evidence of payment of federal heavy use taxes. To grant such authority to the Division of Motor Vehicles is the reason SB 114 is now before the legislature. This authority should be in place not later than October 1, 1985 the deadline set by the federal government.

Other questions:

(a) Doesn't the proposed enactment place Alaska in the position of collecting federal taxes?

Answer: No. IRS must continue to collect but if a truck owner, for example, doesn't show a receipt (Form 2290), demonstrating the tax has been paid to it, then the truck cannot be registered in Alaska. The state does not have to handle any money for the federal government.

(b) Doesn't this measure require Alaska to be an indirect tax collector?

Answer: It can be argued that that is what occurs. However, it is mandatory under the federal law.

(c) Will the proposed measure place additional demands on the staff of the Division of Motor Vehicles (DMV)?

Answer: Yes, it is an extra step for registration of a heavy vehicle truck (GVW 55,000 pounds). DMV employees will probably have to answer questions which should logically be directed to the IRS. However, if an Alaskan doesn't understand the heavy vehicle tax law when applying to DMV, then state officials should be ready to respond to inquiries which should really be answered by federal employees.

STATE OF ALASKA
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
JUNEAU

SB 114

January 30, 1985

The Honorable Don Bennett
President of the Senate
Alaska State Legislature
Pouch V
Juneau, AK 99811

Dear Senator Bennett:

Under the authority of art. III, sec. 18, of the Alaska Constitution, I am transmitting a bill that will authorize the division of motor vehicles (DMV), Department of Public Safety, to refuse to register heavy trucks and trailers if the owner of the heavy vehicle does not furnish proof that applicable federal heavy use taxes have been paid. This authorization is necessary to protect Alaska's full apportionment of federal highway funds.

In 1982 the U.S. Congress adopted the Surface Transportation Assistance Act of 1982. The Act increases, as of July 1, 1984, the heavy vehicle use tax which heavy trucks and trailers must pay under sec. 4481 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. Section 143 of the Act (23 U.S.C. sec. 141(d)) authorizes the federal government to withhold up to 25 percent of a state's apportionment of federal highway funds during any year in which heavy vehicles subject to such taxation may be registered in the state without presenting proof of payment of these taxes. The present federal law requires that this proof-of-payment requirement must be effective no later than January 1, 1985.

In order to prevent the loss of these federal highway funds, this bill authorizes DMV to refuse to register a heavy vehicle unless the owner provides proof that the required federal tax has been paid. If an applicant fails to provide the required proof of payment, the applicant's vehicle will not be registered. The State of Alaska is not required to enforce or collect the federal tax.

At line 15, the bill also makes an incidental amendment (deletion of "and bus transportation") to recognize the 1980 repeal of AS 42.15, the chapter on bus transportation to which this provision refers.

GOVERNOR'S LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

I anticipate that Department of Public Safety personnel will be working with legislative committees on possible amendments to the bill, which may be necessitated by pending federal procedural instructions.

In order to avoid the loss of federal funding needed for Alaska's highway system, I urge your passage of this bill.

Sincerely,

BILL NO: Senate Bill 114

APPROVED:
R. J. Knapp
Commissioner

TITLE: An act relating to the registration of heavy vehicles; and providing for an effective date.

DATE: March 1, 1985

The Alaska Department of Transportation and Public Facilities urges speedy passage of Senate Bill (SB) 114. SB 114 enables the Division of Motor Vehicles in the Department of Public Safety to require proof-of-payment of the federal heavy vehicle use tax before registering heavy vehicles in the State of Alaska. The heavy vehicle use tax is one of a number of user fees that fund highway improvements through the federal Highway Trust Fund. The State of Alaska receives a very favorable distribution from the Highway Trust Fund; this distribution is over nine times the amount collected through federal taxes on highway use in Alaska.

If SB 144 is not enacted, Alaska will be subject to a reduction in our Interstate apportionments from the highway trust fund. This reduction in funds will hurt the Department's efforts to improve Alaska's Interstate System, consisting of the Parks, Alaska, Glenn and Tok Cut-off highways and portions of the Richardson, Seward, and Sterling highways. The Department estimates that withholding, when applied, will cost the state over $10 million a year in Interstate apportionments. In a time of declining oil revenues and pressing road improvement needs, the state can ill afford any loss of federal-aid highway funds.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY

POSITION PAPER - SB 114

SUPPORT

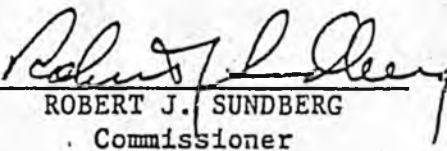

February 6, 1985

SB 114, An Act relating to the registration of heavy vehicles and providing for an effective date.

The United State Congress has amended the United States Code to reflect the Secretary of Transportation shall reduce the state's apportionment for federal-aid highway funds in any fiscal year beginning after October 1, 1985, if a vehicle subject to the use tax may be lawfully registered in the state without having presented proof of payment of the use tax.

Enforcement of a federal law by state registration processes is not a desirable use of state resources. However, the alternative, a loss of 25 percent of federal highway funds, leaves the state little choice. The state is not required to enforce or collect the federal tax but only to verify it has been paid before the vehicle is registered.

Therefore, it is felt this bill should be passed this session to bring Alaska in compliance with the federal requirement and avoid loss of the federal-aid highway funds.

Will require proof of IRS filing or payment of the Federal Heavy Truck Use Tax prior to registration for all motor vehicles with a gross vehicle weight (GVW) of 33,000 lbs or over. Alaska vehicle classifications are based on unladen weight rather than GVW, so it is not possible to determine exactly how many vehicles are affected, but an estimate based on unladen weight would be 2,500 to 3,500 vehicles.

ANALYSIS (Continued)

Notification to vehicle owners and collection of the proper forms would require a special mailing, and individual handling. Most of these vehicles are commercial vehicles registered during December, so one position working four months, October through January, would be able to accomplish most of the work and the rest would be absorbed by existing positions.

DESCRIBE WHY THIS INCREMENT/DECREMENT IS NEEDED AND WHAT IT PURCHASES: Proposed legislation would amend AS 28.10.021 dealing with vehicle registration to ensure that the vehicle owner has complied with federal regulations requiring that a heavy vehicle use tax be paid if applicable prior to State registration. Notification to vehicle owners and collection of the proper forms would require a special mailing and individual handling. Most of the affected vehicles are commercial vehicles registered during December, so one seasonal position working four months (October-January) would be able to accomplish most of the additional workload involved in administering the change in Statute. If the Secretary does not make such a determination within such one-year period, the amounts so withheld shall be reapportioned to all other eligible States.

(d) The Secretary shall reduce the State's apportionment of Federal-aid highway funds under section 104(b) (5) of this title in an amount up to 25 per centum of the amount to be apportioned in any fiscal year beginning after September 30, 1984, during which heavy vehicles, subject to the use tax imposed by section 4481 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, may be lawfully registered in the State without having presented proof of payment, in such form as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, of the use tax imposed by section 4481 of such Code. Amounts withheld from apportionment to a State under this subsection shall be apportioned to the other States pursuant to the formulas of section 104(b) (5) of this title and shall be available in the same manner and to the same extent as other Interstate funds apportioned at the same time to other States.
