ANALYSIS:

- Section 1: This bill increases the loan limits of the Authority from $10.0 million to $25.0 million. The funding source is bond proceeds derived from the sale of the Authority's general obligation bonds.
- Section 2: Changes the method of calculating the interest on loans purchased by the Authority that are guaranteed by an instrumentality of the U.S. government. Current law provides that the interest rate received by the Authority will equal the Moody's Aa composite bond yield.
- Section 3: Changes 44.88.165 to allow the Authority to provide by regulation when a bank will be restricted from submitting credits to the Authority. Currently, it provides that, when over 2% of a bank's loans sold to the Authority are delinquent 90 days or more, they cease being eligible.
- Section 4: This new section authorizes the feasibility study/financial analysis of the Eagle River ski resort proposal. AIDEA corporate receipts are to be used to finance 50% of the cost of the study.

The Honorable Kay Brown
Alaska House of Representatives
P.O. Box V
Juneau, AK 99811

Dear Representative Brown:

Subject: HB 402

You asked for a response regarding two aspects of HB 402:

1. Expand the feasibility language provisions to allow for future studies as directed by DNR: We consciously crafted the current language in HB 402 to provide precedence on the utilization of AIDEA's feasibility powers as currently provided in statute. We are concerned about the development of an abusive pattern of use, as the current powers to perform feasibility studies ~~is~~ <sup>is</sup> ~~are~~ broad. Specifically, we are desirous of preserving the use of the power to perform studies for which there is a specific and likely role for AIDEA to play in the development of the project. Further, we wish to preserve the 50/50 split of fees as currently provided in HB 402 to discourage individuals from approaching AIDEA and requesting a free study from AIDEA for any project. Finally, we wish to have control over all studies so that the results are consistent with the parameters as agreed between AIDEA and the performer of the study, rather than having a study presented to AIDEA which was developed by a contractor at the direction of a developer.
2. Why use emergency procurement provisions for the Eagle River development: The current draft specifies that the study in question is to be performed as an emergency procurement per AS 26.30.310. It is justified as such per the language therein that authorizes emergency procurement "when a situation exists that makes a procurement through competitive sealed bidding or competitive sealed proposals impracticable or contrary to the public interest. . . ." Our reason for requesting such authorization is twofold: (1) the only developer who responded to the DNR RFP has stated emphatically that all appropriate speed is requested of the state or his interest may wane. This may or may not be the case, but it is easy to address because (2) there are only two internationally recognized accounting firms that perform these types of studies. As we would want the best team possible, it is our desire to enter negotiations directly with these two firms to advance the beginning date of the contract.

Sincerely,

SUBJECT: AIDEA Legislation in House Labor & Commerce

Currently there is legislation related to the Authority waiting to be heard in the House Labor and Commerce (L & C) Committee. They include:

- ° House Bill (HB) 402 entitled "An Act relating to the Alaska Industrial Development and Export Authority; and providing for an effective date." This act does three things and they are prioritized as follows: 1) Provides language to allow the Authority to adopt regulations describing at what delinquency rates a financial institution may not access the Authority's programs. 2) Changes the method of calculating interest on loans purchased by the Authority which are guaranteed by an instrumentality of the United States. 3) Increases the Authority's loan limit from $10,000,000 to $25,000,000.
- ° Committee Substitute for Senate Bill (CSSB) 392 entitled "An Act relating to the Alaska Industrial Development and Export Authority; and providing for an effective date." This act addresses the existing statutes which prohibits the participation of financial institutions in the Authority's programs if loans sold to the Authority by a particular financial institution are over 2% delinquent.

These two bills are priority bills because they can be implemented quickly with positive results.

J. Jack Jessee - Memo
March 31, 1988
Page Two

Because HB 402 and CSSB 392 are priority, House L&C could:

- 1) Pass HB 402 as is;
- 2) Pass CSSB 392 as is; or
- 3) Amend CSSB 392 to include the language in HB 402 regarding interest rates and loan limits and pass it out of committee.

The easiest way to meet the immediate priorities is for House L&C to pass HB 402. This bill is comprehensive and would allow the Authority to immediately implement procedures to allow greater participation of the financial institutions (and business people) in the Authority's programs. The next best method would be to pass CSSB 392 in order to address the delinquency situation of the some of the financial institutions who could otherwise participate in the Authority's programs. ..

Attached you will find the bills and their corresponding bill analyses and fiscal notes.

BACKGROUND/LEGISLATIVE INTENT
This legislation originated with the Authority's Board of Directors to address certain particular shortcomings in the Authority's existing statutes. During these difficult economic times furthering the Authority's ability to provide an in-state investor for Alaskan projects and increasing the availability of the Small Business program will assist some businesses who otherwise may be unable to obtain capital through any other means.

ANALYSIS OF BILL/PROGRAM EFFECTS
Section one of the bill increases the Authority's loan limit from its current $10 million maximum to $25 million for those loans which are not guaranteed by an instrumentality of the U.S. Government. For those loans guaranteed by an agency or instrumentality of the U.S. Government, the loan limit is increased from $500,000 to $1 million.

The increase in the bonded program limits to $25 million will allow the Authority to be a participant in transactions that previously have been too large for Authority participation. The recent downturn in the economy has greatly diminished outside correspondent investor relationships and the larger loan limit will allow the Authority to fill a portion of the void. The increase from $500,000 to $1 million for loans guaranteed by the U.S. Government would allow the purchase of these larger guaranteed loans backed primarily by the BIA, National Marine Fisheries Service and the Farmers Home Administration.

BILL ANALYSIS - Alaska Industrial Development and Export Authority
Continuation of Analysis of Bill/Program Effects

When the limit was originally set at $500,000 it coincided with the SBA limit. Subsequently it has been learned that several other instrumentalities of the U.S. Government guaranty larger loans and this would accommodate these. The purchase of the guaranteed portion of these loans provides a secure investment of the Authority's funds and at the same time assists the Alaskan economy.

Section two of the bill changes the method of calculating the interest on loans purchased by the Authority that are guaranteed by an instrumentality of the U.S. Government. Current law provides that the interest rate received by the Authority will equal the Moody's Aa composite bond yield.

The SBA sets limits on the interest rates it allows banks to charge at 2 1/4% over New York prime for a loan under seven years, and 2 3/4% over New York prime for a loan over seven years. Recently these rates have gotten out of sync with the Moody's rate and makes it impossible for the Authority to participate in this program (i.e. the Moody's rate exceeds the SBA limits). It should be noted that at times during the period of high rates in 1980, '81, and '82, the Moody's rate was as much as 7 1/2% below the SBA limits.

This legislation corrects this problem by setting the rate at the lesser of (1) the prevailing prime rate adopted by SBA, or (2) Moody's Aa index or such other index as set by regulation of the Authority. Additionally the Authority is given the ability to utilize either of these indexes as fixed rates or floating rates providing greater latitude to borrowers and banks. This language will provide the flexibility to once again make the program attractive.

Section three of the bill addresses a problem in that existing statutes prohibits a bank from participating in any of the Authority's programs if over 2% of its loans sold to the Authority are 90 days or more delinquent. The new language provides that the Authority will adopt regulations to describe the circumstances under which it will discontinue purchasing loans which will provide much needed flexibility to allow banks access to the Authority's programs.

ALASKA INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT & EXPORT AUTHORITY
ENTERPRISE DEVELOPMENT FUND

Notes to Financial Statements

June 30, 1987 and 1986

The activities of the Alaska Industrial Development & Export Authority are accounted for in the Enterprise Development Fund and the Economic Development Fund. Both Funds were established by the legislature of the State of Alaska for separate and distinct purposes to be administered by the Authority and are not related in any way. In addition, the Authority is prohibited by statute from pledging or using assets of the Enterprise Development Fund to assist in financing, developing or operating a project of the Economic Development Fund. Therefore, separate financial statements are prepared for each Fund. The financial statements and related notes presented herein relate only to the financial activities of the Enterprise Development Fund.

(1) Historical

The Alaska Industrial Development & Export Authority (Authority) is a public corporation of the State of Alaska, constituting a political subdivision within the Department of Commerce and Economic Development, but with separate and independent legal existence. The Authority's purpose is to promote, develop and advance the general welfare of the people of Alaska by providing permanent, long-term financing for industrial, manufacturing and other business enterprises.

Prior to July 1, 1980, the Authority's sole means of providing financing for business enterprises was through a tax-exempt stand-alone revenue bond program. Funds were provided to qualified applicants by issuance of the Authority's industrial development revenue bonds, which are secured solely by the revenue earned by the applicant's project and the financial credit of the individual applicant.

Since July 1, 1980, the legislature of the State of Alaska has appropriated the following to the Enterprise Development fund of the Authority:

- (a) $32,212,300 cash.
- (b) All rights, title and interest in loans, with remaining principal balances totaling approximately $166,000,000, held by the State Department of Revenue and State Department of Commerce and Economic Development.
- (c) Assets and liabilities of the Alaska State Development Corporation, the Small Business Development Corporation and the Alaska Toll Bridge Authority, with fund balances of $2,554,055.

ENTERPRISE DEVELOPMENT FUND

Notes to Financial Statements

State of Alaska legislation has also enabled the Authority to significantly expand its financing programs as follows:

(a) A tax-exempt umbrella bond program, under which the Authority's bonds are sold on national markets, was established to provide loans of up to $10,000,000. The proceeds of the sales are used to purchase portions of loans made by financial institutions to their customers. The bonds may be secured by any or all of the following:

- The full faith and credit of the Authority.
- Principal and interest payments received on the loans.
- Collateral held by the Authority on projects financed by the loans.
- A Capital Reserve Fund to be established from the State appropriation.
- A negative covenant on other commitment of assets.

The Authority has made a covenant that it will not incur any General Obligation Indebtedness causing estimated Net Income to be less than 150% of the General Obligation Annual Debt Service Requirements in each year and to take no action to cause its Unrestricted Surplus to be less than the lesser of $200 million or the amount of General Obligation Indebtedness outstanding. Coverage for the year ending June 30, 1987, was 313%, and, at June 30, 1987, the Unrestricted Surplus was $329.0 million covering a $200 million requirement.

- (b) The tax-exempt stand-alone revenue bond program was also expanded to enable the Authority to issue bonds to provide funds for business enterprises other than those of a manufacturing or industrial nature. Such bonds are not secured by the full faith and credit of the Authority and are not recorded as obligations of the Authority.
- (c) The Authority has annual authorization to finance projects totaling $400,000,000 under its bond programs.
- (d) Uncommitted funds held in the Enterprise Development Fund may be used to purchase the guaranteed portion of business loans (usually 90% of the loan amount) guaranteed by the Small Business Administration, the National Marine Fisheries Service or the Farmers Home Administration.
- (e) On June 24, 1982, legislation was signed into law by the Governor of Alaska providing authorization and funding of a multifamily housing loan program. Under this legislation, $21,000,000 in certificates of deposit were appropriated by the State to the Authority in July 1982 for a multifamily housing loan security fund to provide a loan loss reserve for certain multifamily housing loans. As the legislation excluded the assets of the fund from the general assets of the Authority, the fund and the earnings thereon are not recorded on the financial statements of the Authority.

Notes to Financial Statements

Cont. - Subsequent to the initial appropriation, the Alaska legislature expanded the uses of the fund to provide a loan loss reserve for all multifamily housing loans and for capital reserve fund purposes and directed or authorized the following transfers to be made:

$5,000,000 to other State uses.

$12,000,000 to the Economic Development Fund established within the Authority for the purpose of financing the DeLong Mountain transportation project.

$554,100 for multifamily capital reserve purposes.

$8,000,000 to the Loan Insurance Account in the Enterprise Development Fund of the Authority.

The fund balance at June 30, 1987, was $1,171,174.

(2) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting

The Authority uses the accrual basis of accounting, under which revenues are recorded when earned, and expenditures are recorded when liabilities are incurred.

Investments

Investments are recorded at the acquisition cost which approximates market.

Income Taxes

The Internal Revenue Code provides that gross income for tax purposes does not include income accruing to a state or territory, or any political subdivision thereof, which is derived from the exercise of any essential governmental function or from any public utility. According to the Alaska Statutes, the Authority constitutes a political subdivision of Alaska and is therefore exempt from State and Federal income taxes.

Tax-Exempt Stand-Alone Revenue Bonds

Tax-exempt stand-alone revenue bonds issued by the Authority are not general obligations of the Authority. They are payable solely out of the revenues derived from the financing of projects. They do not constitute indebtedness of the Authority within the meaning of any provision or limitation of the Constitution or Statutes of the State of Alaska, and they do not constitute or give rise to a pecuniary liability of the Authority or a charge against its general credit. The repayments of these bonds by the various entities on whose behalf they have been issued are made directly to the trustee for each bond issued and, therefore, are not recorded as Authority revenues and expenses.

Allowance for Loan Loss

Management regularly reviews the loan portfolio and determines provision for loss based upon experience and management's estimate of potential loss.

Other Real Estate Owned

Other real estate owned represents property acquired through foreclosure on loans or a deed received in lieu of foreclosure. It is carried at the lower of the unpaid loan balance at the time of foreclosure or the estimated fair market value of the property. When the balance of the Authority's investment in the loan is greater than the fair market value of the property, the difference is charged to the allowance for loan losses.

Retirement Plan

All employees of the Authority participated in the State of Alaska Public Employees' Retirement System. The State's policy is to fund pension costs accrued.

Bond Issue Costs

When advanced by the Authority, costs of bond issues, including underwriters' fees and commissions, legal fees, bond insurance and printing, are amortized over the life of the bond issue on the straight-line method and are recovered from the borrowers primarily as a part of the interest rate charged. Current practice is to require borrowers to pay for bond costs at the time of funding.

Furniture and Equipment

Purchases of furniture and equipment are expensed, as such items are the property of the State of Alaska.

(3) Investments

At June 30, 1987, investments were in certificates of deposit, United States Government securities or commercial paper, yielding interest at 4.8% to 13.0% and maturing generally within one year, except $5,479,261 in United States Treasury Notes maturing in subsequent years through 1992 for restricted purposes and $6,305,000 in Seward C.O.P.'s maturing serially to 2000.

At June 30, 1986, all investments were in certificates of deposit, United States Government securities or commercial paper, yielding interest at 6.4% to 13.0% and maturing within one year, except United States Treasury Notes of which $997,930 mature in 1987 and $5,189,683 mature in subsequent years through 1992.

Certain invested funds are restricted by the terms of the Authority's bond resolutions and are held and invested by the trustees. A summary of these investments follows:

On the first day of January, April, July and October of each year, the Authority must replenish the capital reserve funds to the required amounts or may withdraw any excess amounts.

STEVE COWPER
GOVERNOR

STATE OF ALASKA
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
JUNEAU

7R 402

January 27, 1988

The Honorable Ben Grussendorf
Speaker of the House
Alaska State Legislature
P.O. Box V
Juneau, AK 99811

Dear Representative Grussendorf:

Under the authority of art. III, sec. 18, of the Alaska Constitution, I am transmitting a bill relating to the Alaska Industrial Development and Export Authority's (AIDEA's) handling of financial institution loans.

Current law provides in AS 44.88.155(d)(1)(A) that when the authority purchases a participation under its enterprise development account in a loan made by a financial institution, the loan may not exceed $10 million. (The enterprise development account is the "general fund" of the authority, and bonds issued in connection with this account are general obligations of the authority.) Section 1 of this bill increases from $10 million to $25 million the limit on such loans in which the authority may use assets of that account to purchase a participation. This increase to $25 million from $10 million will allow authority involvement in larger transactions that will help diversify the state's economy. Due to the recent downturn in the Alaskan economy, many of the traditional investor relationships with outside organizations no longer exist and the larger loan limit will help by allowing the authority to fill a portion of that void.

Section 1 also increases from $500,000 to $1,000,000 the loan limit on federally guaranteed loans that the authority may purchase. The current limit, enacted with the original AIDEA statutes, is too restrictive, especially in light of current federal loan guaranty levels. These guaranteed loans provide not only a good investment for the authority but also are an important source of capital for Alaskan borrowers.

Section 2 of this bill amends AS 44.88.159(c), which sets the interest rate on those loans guaranteed by an instrumentality of the United States government. Current law sets the rate equivalent to the Moody's Aa corporate bond yield. The new language adopts the prevailing methodology used by the Small Business Administration in setting its rates. Additionally, to provide a degree of protection to borrowers in high interest rate environments, it uses the lesser of the prime rate, Moody's Aa corporate bond yield, or other index selected by the authority.

Current law provides in AS 44.88.165 that if more than two percent of the total outstanding balance of loans purchased from a financial institution (i.e., the authority's participation in such loans) becomes delinquent for 90 days or more, the authority may no longer purchase from that financial institution participations in loans for which it has not already made a commitment, until the delinquencies are reduced to less than two percent. Section 3 of this bill repeals that requirement and substitutes a requirement that the authority adopt regulations to describe the circumstances under which it will discontinue purchasing loans from a financial institution because of delinquencies among the loan participations previously purchased from that institution.

Sincerely,
