MEMORANDUM

March 16, 1988

TO: Representative John Sund, Chairman
House Judiciary Committee

FROM: Senator Johne Binkley

RE: Senate Bill 51 - "An Act relating to alcohol."

Bootlegging in communities where there is a restriction on alcohol is a serious crime. Communities that have adopted a local option law recognize how serious alcohol problems are and how devastating these problems are to their community. Community police and public safety officers work very hard and at great expense to apprehend and convict bootleggers. Under current law, most offenders are charged with a Class A Misdemeanor. The District Attorney in Bethel estimates that two dozen misdemeanor cases are referred to his department each year and two or three felony cases. This bill would raise the penalty for bootlegging in a local option area to a Class C Felony.

Current Law

Under current law the person would be charged with the misdemeanor offense unless the following circumstances were present:

- *the person had been previously convicted of bootlegging
- *the sale was made to a minor
- *the quantity of the sale was of a specified amount
 - 12 liters or more of distilled spirits
(a little more than 17 quarts)
 - 24 liters or more of wine
(about 6½ gallons)
 - 45 liters or more of malt beverages
(approximately six cases)

If any of the above circumstances have occurred the person is charged with the felony offense.

Penalties

A Class A Misdemeanor carries a maximum jail term of one year and a fine of up to $1,000. Typical sentences in the Bethel courts are 30-90 days with a fine double the value of the alcohol involved.

A Class C Felony carries a maximum jail term of five years and a fine of up to $5,000 (for the first conviction). A second "Class C Felony" charge also carries a two year presumptive term.

Communities in my district feel strongly that the stiffer penalty will be a greater deterrent to the bootlegger. Under present law when the bootlegger is caught and charged with the Class A Misdemeanor, he is educated in how the legal system works; he learns to improve his system, and how not to get caught. Bootlegging in a local option community is a serious crime. By increasing the penalties to the more serious Class C Felony charge we will send a clear message to those who would break the law that lawbreaking will not be tolerated.

POSITION PAPER / DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY

The Division of Alaska State Troopers supports passage of this legislation.

This legislation changes the current statute to reflect a concern over continuing violations over local option laws by making violators subject to a class C felony, regardless of previous convictions or age of the perpetrator.

Although no additional enforcement effort is anticipated as a result of the passage of this legislation, it will provide a stronger disincentive to violate the local option elections.

REF: Senate Bill 51

Dear Senator Binkley:

Sale of Liquor Without a License, commonly called "bootlegging", is a very serious problem for the Yukon-Kuskokwim region. Bootlegging certainly plays a major role in criminal activity and life-threatening situations in this area.

In 1985, Bethel police officers responded to approximately 11,000 calls for assistance. These calls ranged from curfew violations to homicides. I can safely say that approximately 95% of the crime-related calls and investigations were alcohol-related. Approximately 1,100 people were incarcerated at the state jail in Bethel for "protective custody" during this same period, simply for being incapacitated by alcohol in a public place.

The question is always asked, "where does all the alcohol come from-Bethel's supposed to be a dry town"? Well, the answer to that question is simple, the majority of alcohol involved in criminal activity as well as care for protective custodies is bootleg liquor. Unfortunately, the penalty for selling liquor without a license is certainly no deterrent. The money made (and to be made) bootlegging far outweighs the cost to the bootlegger of a misdemeanor conviction. In studying the sentencing for bootleggers, one learns quickly that a misdemeanor is more of an inconvenience than punishment. Bootlegging is a "business" for many people in this small town, and a lucrative one, at that. The misdemeanor penalty for bootlegging makes it extremely frustrating for the police officers who are required to spend many man-hours and considerable funds developing and producing strong, prosecutable S.O.L.W.O.L. cases, and for the District Attorney who must also spend considerable time and money taking the case to court, the end result usually being a minor fine and a possible day or two in jail, or in some cases, an "SIS" (Suspended Imposition of Sentence). An SIS means that the second time around, when the conviction should result in a felony, the defendant is again only facing a misdemeanor because the first offense has been forgiven.

I feel that a misdemeanor conviction for a first time bootlegger is not at all a sufficient deterrent. I strongly support Senate Bill 51, and Senator Binkley's efforts to help reduce this criminal activity.

If there are any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Sir,

wed appreciate your support of the felony bootleg bill. Our local bootlegger says he will cease business if the bill passes. Since we've been unable to interest troopers in our situation, this just might be the break our town needs.

thank you.

Native elders 'declare war' on alcohol and drug use

By KATHI BERRY
Staff Writer

The elders of the Athabascan Nation have "declared war" on all those who are associated with alcohol and drug abuse, according to a resolution passed after the Tanana Chiefs Conference last week.

"The use of alcohol and drugs offers nothing to our Native villages but broken spirits, broken families, pain, grief, suffering and death," the resolution says.

The two-page document was passed unanimously by the delegates representing 43 villages on the TCC board, according to Will Mayo, TCC program director.

A similar resolution to ban alcohol and drugs from the villages was passed by board members of Doyon, Ltd., but taken back later for reconsideration.

"Philosophically, we are in agreement with the resolution, but at least one board member wants to make some changes," said Morris Thompson, president. "We can only speculate that he wants to make the wording stronger in some areas."

The resolution adopted by TCC

was drawn up by Denakkanaage, an advocacy group for Native elders. In the document, the elders ask village councils and village courts within TCC to "strongly consider the use of traditional Native justice mechanisms and banish bootleggers and drug pushers from the villages."

Banishment of bootleggers is the next step after villages adopt the state's local option law to make alcohol consumption illegal, Mayo said.

"As it is, the state law lacks teeth," he said. "People are beginning to despair that they will never be able to do anything through the state law. At times, it seems non-enforceable."

Villagers have to stage a "sting" operation before they can get enough proof to get a bootlegger arrested, Mayo said.

"Then, very often, the bootlegger gets a light penalty in court and comes right back to the village again," he said. "It's not a very strong deterrent to him or others who who want to set up illegal sales."

Villages would all have different

WILL MAYO
"Law lacks teeth"

ways of enforcing traditional banishment, Mayo said.

"This could work if everyone in the village got behind it and decided to oust the guy," he said. "Bootleggers are not people who fly around with a plane load of booze. These are people who live in the community. They are everyone's cousin."

Through the resolution, the elders also ask that a comprehensive (See ALCOHOL, Back Page)

ALCOHOL

sive alcohol and drug prevention program be set up in each village and that each school incorporate a comprehensive drug prevention course in their curriculum.

They further resolved that no alcohol will be served at any TCC function "as an example to our children and to each other," and that any TCC employee with a drug or alcohol problem will be given the option to receive treatment or be immediately terminated from employment.

Some of the impetus for the resolution came from the movie, "The Honor of All," shown during the convention. The movie tells the story of one couple who worked against threats, hatred and violence to turn a Canadian village with a near 100 percent alcoholism rate into a town that is now 95 percent sober.

"The movie helped, but to attribute the resolution to it is an oversimplification," Mayo said. "Native elders have been fighting this all along. They are sick of seeing their grandchildren die and the neglect, domestic violence and the sorrow that alcoholism brings."

CONTINUATION of FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

For Bill/Resolution No. SB 51

This bill amends AS 04.16.200(b) by reclassifying the illegal sale of alcoholic beverages from a class A misdemeanor to a class C felony.

A total of 45 such violations were referred to the department last year for prosecution. About one-half of those reported violations occurred in the Bethel service area.

Although this change will require some additional work on our part, preparing these cases for grand jury, this addition does not warrant fiscal note costs because of the small number of cases involved. Our estimate assumes that the same enforcement pattern will continue. However, if police agencies substantially increase their enforcement activities, because of the increased penalties available for felons, it may be necessary to request increased appropriation at a later time. In any event, the department will not be able to respond to a marked increase in this area at this time due to the serious budget shortfalls it now faces.
