BOROUGH TO CELEBRATE HISTORIC PRESERVATION WEEK

(Juneau, April 7) — Plans are being finalized for Juneau's yearly observation of National Historic Preservation Week, May 10 through May 16. This year's theme, "Landmarks of Democracy," celebrates the Bicentennial Year of the U.S. Constitution; in Juneau, those landmarks that have played an important part in the state's history will be saluted. Preservation week activities currently being planned include nightly historic harbor cruises on the M/V Princeton Hall, dinner specials at the Inn at the Waterfront, the first annual "Downtown Strut," and the annual awarding of the Capital City's historic preservation awards.

The State Capitol, Governor's Mansion, Elks' Hall, House of Wickersham and the Alaska Statehood Site are being honored as Juneau's "landmarks of democracy." The Elks' Hall, meeting place for the fraternal order and summer home of Perseverance Theatre's LADY LOU REVIEW, is also the site of the first meeting of the Territorial Legislature on March 3, 1913. The Alaska Statehood Site is a strip of pavement located between the Juneau Memorial Library and 5th Street. It was at this location on July 4, 1959 that the 49-star flag commemorating Alaska statehood was raised for the first time.

Recipients of this year's Historic Preservation Awards are: the M/V Princeton Hall; the I.B.E.W. Building; the Inn at the Waterfront; and the Waterfront Building. For the first time ever, a certificate of appreciation will be presented. It will go to the Downtown Business Association (DBA) and the Glory Hole for their cooperative effort in painting the shelter. Awards will be presented at a public ceremony in Gunakadeit Park immediately following the first ever, to be annual, DOWNTOWN STRUT -- a fun run, jog, stroll or strut for historic preservation through a number of Juneau's historic neighborhoods and past a number of its landmarks. The 3.5K (or 2.2 mile) race, co-sponsored by the City & Borough and the DBA is scheduled for 10AM the morning of the 16th. There is no charge; commemorative t-shirts will be provided to the first 50 who register upon completion on the race. More information can be obtained from the Borough's Department of Community Development, 586-5235.

Recipients of awards have also planned activities to commemorate the week-long celebration. Bill and Kathy Ruddy will take Juneauites on a one-hour "historic harbor" tour aboard the M/V Princeton Hall each evening from May 10 through the 16th. For more information contact the Princeton Hall at 789-7558. A minimum charge is involved. Also, Ann House and Bill Cullinane, owners of the newly restored and renamed Inn at the Waterfront (formerly "The Summit") will feature tours of their new building and dinner specials all week long. For more information call the Inn at the Waterfront at 586-2050.

City planner Gabrielle LaRoche, coordinator of the week-long celebration, will be the featured speaker at the Juneau Chamber of Commerce on Friday, the 15th. Speaking on the topic of "Historic Preservation in Economic Downtimes," LaRoche will be joined by historical archivist Glenda Choate. (Note: Former City Planning Department head Tom Peterson, now Planning Director for Ft. Collins, Colorado, will deliver a similar speech at the Alaska Planning Association meeting in Anchorage earlier that week.)
