4 FIFTEENTH LEGISLATURE - SECOND SESSION

5 A BILL

6 For an Act entitled: "An Act relating to the power and duties of the 7 Alaska Public Offices Commission; and providing for 8 an effective date."

9 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

10 * Section 1. AS 44.21 is amended by adding new sections to read:

11 ARTICLE 9. ALASKA PUBLIC OFFICES COMMISSION.

12 Sec. 44.21.450. ALASKA PUBLIC OFFICES COMMISSION. (a) There is 13 created in the Department of Administration the Alaska Public Offices
14 Commission consisting of five members. The governor shall appoint all 15 members of the commission in the manner prescribed in (b) and (c) of 16 this section, subject to confirmation by a majority of the legislature
17 in joint session.

18 (b) The governor shall appoint two members of each of the two 19 political parties whose candidate for governor received the highest 20 number of votes in the most recent preceding general election at which 21 a governor was elected. The two appointees from each of these two 22 parties shall be chosen from a list of four names to be submitted by 23 the central committee of each party.

24 (c) The four members selected under (b) of this section shall,
25 by a majority vote, nominate to the governor an individual to serve as 26 the fifth member of the commission. The governor shall either appoint
27 the nominee to the commission, or shall reject the nominee and request
28 the commission to nominate another individual to serve as the fifth
29 member of the commission.

1 (d) The term of office for each member of the commission is five
2 years and until a successor is appointed and qualifies. If a vacancy
3 occurs before the expiration of a member's term, the member appointed
4 to fill the vacancy serves for a full five-year term. A commission
5 member may not serve more than one term.

6 (e) A member of the commission, during tenure, may not

7 (1) hold or campaign for elective office;

8 (2) be an officer of a political party, political commit-
9 tee, or political group;

10 (3) permit the commissioner's name to be used, or make any
11 contributions whatsoever, in support of or in opposition to a candi-
12 date or proposition or question that appears on any ballot in the 13 state including that of a municipality; however, contributions may be 14 made to a candidate for the office of President of the United States;

15 (4) participate in an election campaign or participate in
16 or contribute to a political party; or

17 (5) lobby or employ or assist a lobbyist.

18 (f) Members of the commission are entitled to receive compen-
19 sation of $50 a day while attending commission meetings and are enti-
20 tled to travel expenses and per diem authorized by law under AS 39.- 21 20.180.

22 (g) The members of the commission shall elect a chairman. A
23 majority of the commission constitutes a quorum. The affirmative vote
24 of at least three members is required to take official action. A
25 vacancy does not impair the power of the remaining members to exercise
26 the powers of the commission.

27 (h) The commission may employ an executive director and other
28 employees it considers necessary. The executive director and an
29 employee of the commission may not, during tenure,

1 (1) serve as a member of the commission;

2 (2) engage in an activity described in (e) of this section
3 except as necessary to carry out the purposes of AS 44.21.450 - 44.-
4 21.500.

5 (i) The commission shall establish a central office and shall
6 establish or designate a commission office in each election district
7 of the state for the filing and public inspection of the reports,
8 registrations, or statements required to be filed with the commission.
9 Only one commission office may be established or designated in a
10 municipality that contains more than one election district. A dis-
11 trict office designated under this subsection may be a municipal or
12 other public office.

13 (j) The forms and material required for compliance with AS 15.13
14 shall be made available in each commission office to candidates,
15 persons, and groups required to file reports under AS 15.13.

16 (k) The commission shall promptly forward a copy of each report
17 filed by a statewide candidate to each district office, and it shall
18 promptly forward a copy of each report filed by a legislative candi-
19 date to the district office in the election district where the candi-
20 date is seeking office.

21 (1) The commission shall ensure that copies of each report filed
22 by a candidate for municipal office are made available for public
23 inspection in the municipality in which the candidate is seeking 24 office.

25 Sec. 44.21.455. DUTIES OF THE COMMISSION. The commission shall

26 (1) develop and provide forms for the reports, registra-
27 tions, and statements required under AS 15.13, AS 24.45, and AS 39.50;

28 (2) prepare and publish a manual setting out uniform meth-
29 ods of bookkeeping and reporting for use by persons required to make

1 reports, registrations, and statements under AS 15.13 and otherwise
2 assist candidates, groups, and individuals in complying with AS 15.13;

4 registrations, and statements required to be filed under AS 15.13 and,

7 registration, and statement filed with the commission;
8 (5) prepare a summary of each report, registration, or
9 statement filed under AS 15.13 and make a copy of the summary avail-
10 able to an interested person at cost;
11 (6) notify, by registered or certified mail, all persons
12 who are delinquent in filing a report or statement required under 13 AS 15.13;
14 (7) report to the office of the attorney general within 60
15 days after each election the names of all persons and groups who have 16 failed to comply with a provision of AS 15.13;
17 (8) examine, investigate, and compare reports, statements,
18 and actions required by AS 15.13, AS 24.45, and AS 39.50 and report to 19 the attorney general the names of all persons or groups the commission
20 has substantial reason to believe have violated AS 15.13, AS 24.45, or 21 AS 39.50;
22 (9) prepare and publish an annual report to the legislature
23 concerning the activities of the commission; the effectiveness of 24 AS 15.13, AS 24.45, AS 39.50, and AS 44.21.450 - 44.21.500; their 25 enforcement by the attorney general's office; and recommendations and 26 proposals for change; and
27 (10) adopt regulations necessary to implement and clarify
28 the provisions of and that are consistent with AS 15.13, AS 24.45, and 29 AS 39.50, subject to the provisions of the Administrative Procedure

1 Act (AS 44.62).

2 Sec. 44.21.460. PRELIMINARY INVESTIGATIONS. (a) The commission
3 shall investigate a violation of AS 15.13, AS 24.45, or AS 39.50 upon
4 receiving a signed and sworn complaint from any person. Upon receipt
5 of a properly signed and sworn complaint, the executive director shall
6 immediately acknowledge receipt of the complaint to the complainant
7 and to each person against whom the complaint was filed

8 (b) The executive director shall, within 10 working days after 9 receiving the complaint under (a) of this section, determine whether 10 the facts alleged, if true, would constitute a violation of AS 15.13,
11 AS 24.45, or AS 39.50.

12 (c) The executive director may conduct a preliminary inves-
13 tigation of a violation of AS 15.13, AS 24.45, or AS 39.50 that comes 14 to the attention of the executive director in the normal course of 15 business. The executive director shall immediately notify a person
16 against whom the investigation is proceeding of the nature of the 17 alleged violation.

18 (d) A person whose name is mentioned in a complaint or identi-
19 fied during an investigation or at a hearing being conducted by the 20 commission and who may have violated a provision of AS 15.13, AS 24.-
21 45, or AS 39.50 shall be advised by the executive director of the 22 information obtained by the commission. A person advised under this 23 subsection may appear personally at the hearing and testify or may 24 file a signed and sworn written statement of facts or other evidence
25 for the record.

26 (e) If, after a preliminary investigation under (a) or (c) of 27 this section, the commission determines that there is probable cause
28 to believe that the person named in the complaint has committed a 29 violation of AS 15.13, AS 24.45, or AS 39.50, the commission shall

1 commence violation proceedings by filing and serving an accusation on
2 the person alleged to have committed the violation. The commission
3 shall serve the accusation in the manner prescribed by court rules for 4 serving a complaint in a civil action.

5 (f) If the commission terminates an investigation without filing
6 an accusation, the commission shall, immediately after terminating the 7 investigation, inform the complainant and each person against whom the 8 complaint was filed of the information reviewed and that the commis-
9 sion will not be taking further action concerning the complaint.

10 Sec. 44.21.465. HEARINGS. (a) A hearing shall be conducted if 11 a respondent requests a hearing on a contested accusation or under 12 AS 44.21.475. In the absence of a request, the commission in its 13 discretion may decide to hold a hearing. A hearing under this section
14 shall be conducted under AS 44.62.330 - 44.62.630 and shall be open to 15 the public.

16 (b) When a hearing officer submits a proposed decision to the 17 commission under AS 44.62.500, the respondent and commission staff
18 may, within 10 working days after receipt of a copy of the proposed 19 decision, submit written comments on the proposed decision to the 20 commission. Before adopting the proposed decision the commission
21 shall consider the written comments.

22 Sec. 44.21.470. IMPOSITION OF PENALTY. (a) The commission may
23 impose the penalty provided by law for the violation only if the 24 respondent, having been advised of the right to a hearing, admits or 25 pleads no contest to the allegations contained in the accusation, or 26 if the commission

27 (1) holds a hearing at which the respondent is afforded the 28 right to appear, with or without counsel, the right to present wit-
29 nesses or other evidence, and the right to cross examine witnesses;

1 and
2 (2) following the hearing, determines by substantial evi-
3 dence that the respondent has committed the violation of which the 4 respondent was accused.
5 (b) Except when there is no evidence of a wilful violation, the 6 executive director of the commission may not formally or informally
7 make a recommendation to the commission as to a particular penalty in 8 a pending matter or make a commitment to the respondent to make a
9 particular recommendation to the commission in the future until after 10 the respondent has admitted or pleaded no contest to the accusation or 11 until after a hearing and a final determination by the commission that 12 the respondent has committed the acts charged in the accusation.
13 (c) Before the executive director of the commission may make a
14 recommendation to the commission for the imposition of a particular
15 penalty in a matter, the respondent shall be given notice of the 16 recommendation and afforded an opportunity to respond to the recom-
17 mendation in person or in writing.
18 (d) In imposing a penalty, the commission shall consider
19 (1) the seriousness of the violation in terms of the extent
20 to which the violation has impeded public disclosure of information
21 required to be filed with the commission as to the amount and source
22 of contributions; and
23 (2) the extent to which the respondent's conduct, including
24 prior violations of AS 15.13, AS 24.45, or AS 39.50 shows a continuing 25 disregard for the law.
26 Sec. 44.21.475. SUMMARY DISPOSITION OF VIOLATIONS. (a) Not-
27 withstanding the provisions of AS 44.21.465 - 44.21.470, the commis-
28 sion may establish by regulation the violations described in AS 15.13,
29 AS 24.45, or AS 39.50 that are amenable to summary disposition without

1 formal accusation.

2 (b) If the commission discovers that a person has committed a
3 violation that is amenable to summary disposition, the commission may,
4 in lieu of serving an accusation on the person, mail a notice of fine
5 to the person indicating the circumstances of the violation and the 6 amount of the fine. The person to whom the notice is directed may pay
7 the fine within 30 days after receiving the notice, file a notice of 8 defense disputing the facts and requesting a hearing under AS 44.21.-
9 465, or file an affidavit stating facts in mitigation of the amount of 10 the fine.

11 (c) If the person does not properly respond under (b) of this
12 section, the notice of fine constitutes an accusation and the commis-
13 sion shall proceed against the person under AS 44.21.465 - 44.21.470.

14 (d) If the person files an affidavit stating facts in mitigation
15 of the amount of the fine under (b) of this section, the commission
16 shall hold a hearing limited to the amount of the fine. A hearing
17 under this subsection shall be held in accordance with procedures
18 adopted by regulation of the commission and is not subject to AS 44.-
19 62.330 - 44.62.630.

20 Sec. 44.21.480. CONFIDENTIALITY. (a) A complaint, the commis-
21 sion proceedings related to the complaint, and the records and infor-
22 mation obtained by the commission during a preliminary investigation
23 are confidential until a determination of probable cause has been made 24 by the commission and an accusation is filed or a notice of fine is 25 mailed under AS 44.21.475, unless the person alleged to be in vio-
26 lation requests in writing that the proceedings be public. If the 27 commission does not commence violation proceedings by filing an accu-
28 sation or mailing a notice of fine, the complaint, the proceedings of 29 the commission related to the complaint, and the records and

1 information obtained during the preliminary investigation remain
2 confidential.

3 (b) A person, including a member or employee of the commission,
4 may not disclose a matter made confidential under (a) of this section
5 unless a court orders the disclosure or the disclosure is authorized
6 under AS 44.21.460 - 44.21.500.

7 (c) A knowing violation of the provisions of this section is a
8 class A misdemeanor.

9 Sec. 44.21.485. JUDICIAL REVIEW. Judicial review of a final
10 order of the commission may be had by filing a notice of appeal under
11 applicable rules of court governing appeals from administrative agen-
12 cies.

13 Sec. 44.21.490. COMPELLING TESTIMONY; EXAMINATION OF RECORDS.
14 (a) In connection with an investigation or hearing involving a vio-
15 lation of AS 15.13, AS 24.45, or AS 39.50, the commission may compel
16 the attendance of witnesses and production of papers, books, records,
17 accounts, documents, and testimony, and may have the depositions of 18 witnesses taken in a manner prescribed by court rule or law for the 19 taking of depositions in civil actions when consistent with the powers
20 and duties assigned to the commission by law.

21 (b) The commission may examine the papers, books, records,
22 accounts and documents of a person subject to AS 15.13, AS 24.45, or 23 AS 39.50 to determine the correctness of a report filed with the 24 commission or in conjunction with an investigation or inspection
25 conducted under (a) of this section.

26 (c) Subpoenas may be issued and shall be served in the manner
27 prescribed by AS 44.62.430 and court rule. The failure, refusal, or
28 neglect to obey a subpoena is punishable as contempt in the manner
29 prescribed by law or court rule. The superior court may compel

2 scribed for obedience to a subpoena issued by the court.

CSSB 85 (State Affairs)

Fiscal Analysis

Although many of the provisions contained in this measure would codify existing commission procedures, two sections would change current practice in ways which would create a fiscal impact for the agency.

Proposed Section 44.21.470(a) states that the commission may impose a penalty only if the respondent either admits or pleads no contest to allegations, or if the commission holds a hearing. This language has the effect of prohibiting the commission from settling a matter unless the terms of the settlement agreement contain an admission or a statement of no contest to factual allegations of wrongdoing.

In FY 87 the commission settled three matters. None of the settlement documents contain an admission or a plea of no contest; two of the documents expressly indicate that the respondent does not admit to the allegations. It is assumed for purposes of this fiscal note that these respondents would have chosen to proceed to hearing rather than to enter into a settlement which required an admission of wrongdoing or a statement of no contest.

Two of the settled matters involved simple factual allegations, and each hearing could have been concluded within one day. One of the matters involved more complex facts as well as a large number of respondents, and would have required a minimum of three hearing days. Costs for a hearing officer, witness fees and transcription total $3000 per hearing day. Since it is difficult to quantify additional time spent by commission members in deliberation over these matters and additional staff time devoted to hearing preparation, these costs are not reflected in the fiscal note.

Proposed Section 44.21.475 will have a minor fiscal impact on the agency. This section provides that in matters amenable to summary disposition, the commission may follow less formal due process standards unless respondents wish to dispute the facts. In FY 87 150 matters subject to summary disposition were appealed to the commission. Of these, five matters appear to have involved factual disputes (focusing primarily on controverted facts about mailing of reports). Since these matters center on very simple facts, and it is unlikely that respondents will raise complicated issues through legal counsel, it is assumed that these five matters would have required a total of one and one-half days of hearings. Staff would endeavor to schedule these matters at one time to avoid any hearing officer costs attributable to five separate appearances at commission offices. Based on costs of $3000 per day, one and one-half days of hearing would require an additional expenditure of $4500 to fund the more formal due process procedures warranted when factual disputes arise.

CONTINUATION of FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

For Bill/Resolution No. SB 85

This bill repeals the existing Campaign Disclosure Law, replacing it with a new chapter effective January 1, 1988. For the Commission, FY 88 would be particularly demanding, devoted to revising its regulations; establishing procedures to administer the new law; and publishing information for those active in the 1988 campaigns. The changes in the statutory requirements include a requirement that a quorum of the citizen Commission sit at each hearing, with or without a hearing officer, and include a complete revision of the violation provisions. Much work will have to be done quickly if the 1988 contributors, candidates, and groups are to be advised of their limitations, requirements and responsibilities. Development work will continue for the 1990 campaigns, to make necessary refinements based on the experiences of 1988.

A reasonable awareness of the new law will take 4-6 years to establish. The new procedures for handling violations will require long term changes in the way the Commission operates, but it is difficult to quantify those changes precisely. It is assumed for the purpose of this fiscal note that the FY 88 staffing and professional service levels requested will be sufficient for FY 89-92. The Commission's 1987 recommendations for statutory changes reflect the fact that its funding is insufficient to its existing tasks. For the purposes of this fiscal note, no reduction in Commission responsibilities in other areas can be assumed. Although new positions are requested, they are at low and modest salary ranges. No inflation factor is estimated. One-time equipment items are eliminated after FY 88.

Because the bill provides increased civil penalty powers, an increase in unrestricted General Fund revenue should be anticipated. However, successful assessments against 1988 campaigns will probably not be realized until late in FY 88, extending well into FY 89 due to the need to design and implement new procedures. In FY 86 the Commission collected $32.6 in fines. The FY 87 estimate is $25.0, with $21.7 received to date. This fiscal note assumes the average increase per year would be $30.0; some years will likely be higher and some lower because of the statewide-legislative-local campaign cycles. Experience will be needed to refine the estimate.

The changes in Juneau staffing would have the effect of upgrading the existing position from range 16 to range 18 and would add a clerical person. At present the Juneau office receives many inquiries from state campaigns and officials who must file Conflict of Interest Statements; the new law would increase the number and complexity of those inquiries making it impossible to handle the regular work of administering the Lobbying Law without a clerk.

The range 16 position now in Juneau would be transferred to Anchorage and a new Regulations Specialist II would be added. Additional staff months in Anchorage would be added to an existing Clerk IV. Eliminating the vacancy factor presently shown in the FY 88 request would assure that the Research Analyst II position actually worked year-round. This position is particularly important because it is largely devoted to assisting and auditing campaigns.

72000 - Travel
Transportation for Commissioners	6.0
Per diem & honorarium	11.7

The bill's prohibition against a matter being heard by a hearing officer alone and the new sanctions for violations will require additional meetings of the Commission. It is assumed the Commission would meet 12 times per year rather than six. Three days is allowed for each of the six additional meetings. This bill assumes the Commission members will continue to be volunteers who receive only a per day honorarium. The increased meeting schedule may require consideration of increased remuneration if commissioners with full-time jobs are to be able to serve.

Type of Expenditure			Justification
			Administration of the Lobbying Law through the Juneau Branch Office has already been undermined by requests for campaign assistance and the phase-out of funding for a clerk. The PCN would upgrade the position in the Juneau office to reflect the actual tasks performed. Establishment of this position would allow the existing lower range Project Coordinator PCN to be transferred to Anchorage. Many incumbent campaigns begin before the end of the calendar year or before the end of the Session. With the comprehensive revisions to AS 15.13 proposed by SB 85, the Juneau office can anticipate an increased demand for information and assistance from campaigns concerned about the new requirements.

** Section 44.21.450. ALASKA PUBLIC OFFICES COMMISSION.

This section corrects a serious constitutional problem with the manner in which the commission chooses its fifth member. Article II, Section 26 of the Alaska Constitution requires all members of regulatory or quasi-judicial boards or commissions to be appointed by the Governor and confirmed by the legislature. However, since the commission was established in 1974, the four members have chosen the commission's fifth member themselves, without appointment by the Governor or confirmation by the legislature. This section sets out a procedure for the appointment and confirmation of the fifth member; the selection of successors; and deletes obsolete material relating to the initial terms of members.

Subsection (h) is a new provision 1/ which holds commission staff to the same standard as commission members by prohibiting staff from engaging in political activity while they are employed by the APOC.

** Section 44.21.455. DUTIES OF THE COMMISSION.

This section is identical to present law, AS 15.13.030, which describes the responsibilities of the commission to administer AS 15.13 (campaign disclosure), AS 24.45 (lobbying) and AS 39.50 (conflict of interest).

** Section 44.21.460. PRELIMINARY INVESTIGATIONS.

Existing statutes governing APOC investigations are hopelessly confused and raise serious questions about the lack of constitutional due process afforded individuals who are subjected to APOC staff investigations.

Subsection (a) is similar to present regulation 2 AAC 50.450 (c)(1), which sets out a procedure for handling complaints which are properly filed and sworn. However, this subsection sets out a new requirement for the executive director to notify each person against whom a complaint is filed. The present APOC regulation only requires staff to acknowledge receipt of a complaint to the complainant but not to the respondent. Subsection (a) also sets out a new requirement that both parties be notified immediately.

1/ The use of language such as "new provision" or "new requirement" means that similar language does not exist in present law.

Subsection (b) adds a new requirement for the executive director to make an initial determination whether a complaint sets out facts which, if true, would constitute a violation of the law, within 10 working days after first receiving the complaint, for purposes of notifying the complainant and the respondent.

Present APOC regulation 2 AAC 50.450 (c)(2), simply states that the staff must make this determination "promptly".

Subsection (c) provides that the staff may conduct a preliminary investigation of violations of the campaign disclosure, conflict of interest and lobbying laws on its own motion. Present APOC regulations (2 AAC 50.460 (a)(2), (b) and 2 AAC 50.450 (e)), which describe these procedures are poorly written and extremely confusing.

Subsection (c) also sets out a new requirement for an investigation which the staff begins on its own motion, that requires the executive director to immediately notify a person against whom a preliminary investigation is proceeding of the nature of the alleged violation. Present law and regulation do not require commission staff to notify a person that he or she is under investigation. It has happened in the past that individuals were not aware of the existence of an APOC investigation which involved them until after the staff terminated its investigation and made public charges in a report to the commission which recommended that action be taken against them.

Subsection (d) is a new provision which is modeled after similar provisions in Florida, Nebraska and Hawaii. The subsection provides that a person whose name is mentioned in a complaint or identified during an investigation or at a hearing as someone who may have violated AS 15.13, AS 24.45, or AS 39.50 shall be advised by the executive director of the information obtained by the commission. This person may appear personally and testify at the hearing or may file a signed and sworn written statement of the facts or other evidence for incorporation into the record.

The intent of this subsection is to ensure that individuals who are identified as possible violators of the law, but who have not been formally made a party to an action, be allowed an opportunity to provide facts or other evidence so that an investigation or hearing can develop a full and fair record. This does not mean that everyone whose name merely comes up in a commission matter will be notified, as the APOC staff fears. It is hoped that professional staff will be able to distinguish between a casual, frivolous or malicious mention and the point at which the evidence raises a serious possibility that an individual may have violated the law.

Commission staff have also pointed to the Florida provision and argued that notification should be restricted to hearings only. While it is true that the Florida provision pertains to hearings, it is also true that the hearings in Florida are kept closed, while those in CSSB 85 (SA) are open to the public. The point being -- that an individual whose conduct is seen to rise to the level of possibly violating the law during proceedings which are confidential and hidden from public view, should be given the opportunity to incorporate his or her side of the story into the record, before being blind-sided by possibly damaging, defamatory and inaccurate staff accusations in a public hearing. This is precisely what has occurred to individuals in the past, and is the reason why the subsection was put in the bill.

When staff concludes the preliminary investigation and submits their report, the commission deliberates. The purpose of this initial deliberation is to elicit evidence on the question of whether or not the complaint was filed on justifiable grounds.

Subsection (e) is a new provision and provides that when a preliminary investigation is ended and the commission makes a determination that there is probable cause to believe that the person named in the complaint has committed a violation of AS 15.13 (campaign disclosure), AS 24.45 (conflict of interest) or AS 39.50 (lobbying), the commission will then commence violation proceedings by filing and serving an accusation on the person who is alleged to have committed the violation.

Subsection (f) is a new requirement which provides that if a preliminary investigation is terminated and the commission finds that no probable cause exists that the person named in the complaint has committed a violation, the commission shall immediately inform the complainant and each person against whom the complaint was filed, of the information which was reviewed and that the commission will not be taking further action concerning the complaint. The commission will then close the file.

** Section 44.21.465. HEARINGS.

There is very little existing law governing the actual administrative procedures that the commission must follow in adjudicating violations and imposing penalties. In the absence of statutory provisions, the commission has filled the void with a large number of its own administrative regulations.

It is much better policy to include basic procedures in the law, rather than leaving such important matters to questionable regulations and staff interpretation.

Subsection (a) is new and provides that a hearing shall be conducted if a respondent requests a hearing on a contested accusation or under the conditions described in the "Summary Disposition of Violations". In the absence of a request, the commission in its discretion may decide to hold a hearing. The hearing shall be conducted under the provisions of the Administrative Procedures Act and will be open to the public.

Subsection (b) is a new requirement that when a hearing officer submits a proposed decision to the commission, the respondent and the commission staff may, within 10 working days after receipt of a copy of the proposed decision, submit written comments on the proposed decision to the commission. This is to allow an opportunity for both sides to comment on the hearing officer's proposed decision. The commission is required to consider these written statements before adopting the hearing officer's decision.

*** Section 44.21.480 IMPOSITION OF PENALTY

This entire section contains new provisions and has no counterpart in existing law.

Subsection (a) provides that the commission may impose penalties only after a person has admitted or plead no contest to an accusation or after the commission holds a hearing at which certain due process rights have been afforded to the respondent, and at which the commission determines by substantial evidence that the person has actually committed the violation. Existing law does not address standards of proof in hearings before the commission.

Subsection (b) provides that in cases where there is evidence of a willful violation (emphasis added) of the law, the commission staff may not formally or informally make a recommendation to the commission members as to a particular penalty in a pending matter or make a commitment to the respondent to make a particular recommendation to the commission in the future until after the respondent has admitted or pleaded no contest to the accusation or until after a hearing and a final determination by the commission that the respondent has actually committed the acts charged in the accusation. This ban on plea bargaining by staff is restricted to instances where there is evidence of a flagrant, willful violation and does not in any way impair staff's ability to negotiate settlements in other cases.

Subsection (c) states that before the executive director may make a recommendation to the commission for the imposition of a particular penalty in a matter, the respondent must first be given notice of the recommendation and afforded an opportunity to respond to the recommendation in person or in writing.

Subsection (d) contains specific guidelines for the commission to follow in imposing penalties. This subsection provides that the higher penalties should be reserved for egregious conduct where the violation has impeded public disclosure of information as to the amount and source of contributions; and the extent to which the respondent's conduct, including prior violations of AS 15.13, AS 24.50, or AS 39.50 shows a disregard for the law.

The intent of this section is for the legislature to provide clear guidelines to the commission in exercising its discretionary "sentencing" authority, so that the law is the determining factor in the commission's imposition of penalties and not the staff's interpretation; It is also intended to provide some standards for judicial review of commission actions.

*** Section 44.21.485. SUMMARY DISPOSITION OF VIOLATIONS

This section authorizes the commission to establish by regulation the less serious violations that are amenable to summary disposition without formal accusation. This category of violations makes up the vast majority of the commission's business and involves such transgressions as inadvertent mistakes and the late filing of reports.

The intent of this section is to permit the commission to continue to deal with relatively minor violations in a summary fashion, without having to employ the more detailed procedures of the Administrative Procedures Act. The concept of the "summary disposition of violations" by means of a schedule of fines, is modeled after the "mail-in-bail" provisions of the Motor Vehicle Code (AS 28).

Subsection (b) states that a notice of fine may be mailed to the person who is alleged to have committed a summary violation which indicates the circumstance of the violation and the amount of the fine. The person may then pay the fine within 30 days after receiving the notice, file a notice of defense disputing the facts and requesting a hearing, or file an affidavit stating facts in mitigation of the amount of the fine.

Subsection (c) provides that if a person does not properly respond under the requirements of the section, that the notice of fine constitutes an accusation and the commission shall proceed against the person under AS 44.21.465 - 44.21.470.

Subsection (d) provides that if the person files an affidavit stating facts in mitigation of the fine, the members of the commission shall hold a hearing limited to the amount of the fine. This is not an APA-type of hearing and does not require a hearing officer.

*** Section 44.21.490. CONFIDENTIALITY

This entire section contains new provisions and has no counterpart in existing law.

Most states, including the Federal Elections Commission provide for confidentiality. In drafting the confidentiality provision for CSSB 85, we reviewed the following states: South Carolina; Hawaii; Minnesota; Nebraska; Illinois; Florida; Kansas; Washington; Massachusetts and California.

In CSSB 85, the complaint, the commission proceedings related to the complaint, and the records and information obtained by the commission during a preliminary investigation are confidential until a determination of probable cause has been made by the commission and an accusation is filed under 44.21.465, unless the person alleged to be in violation requests in writing that the proceedings be public.

If the commission finds that there is no probable cause to believe an individual has committed an offense, the parties are notified, the file is closed and the matter remains confidential. This is the same procedure used by the Ombudsman.

It is no secret that complaints have been filed as a campaign strategy to inflict maximum damage upon an opponent. It is also no secret that prejudicial material has been leaked to the press by commission staff in order to bolster their "case" in front of the commission, with no regard for whether the information is true or false.

Whatever its source, this practice denies an individual his or her constitutional rights to privacy and due process and destroys any expectation to be treated fairly under the law. A person who is targeted for staff investigation should not be blind-sided by the dissemination of prejudicial and defamatory material before the commission even makes a determination that there is probable cause to proceed.

Sensational press accounts which are purposely timed to appear before commission decisions, make a mockery out of the common law doctrine of the "deliberative process privilege" which is intended to protect from public disclosure those pre-decisional documents that reflect the decision-making authority of an agency.

The rationale for the privilege was discussed in Ryan v. Department of Justice, 617 F. 2d 781 (D.C. Cir. 1980), in which the court stated:

The [privilege] was created to protect the deliberative process of the government, by ensuring that persons in an advisory role would be able to express their opinions freely to agency decision-makers without fear of publicity. In the course of its day-to-day activities, an agency often needs to rely on the opinions and recommendations of temporary consultants, as well as its own employees. Such consultations are an integral part of its deliberative process; to conduct this process in public view would inhibit the frank discussions of policy matters and likely impair the quality of decisions.

The United States Supreme Court has emphasized that documents that are protected by the privilege remain privileged even after a final decision is reached in the matter, unless ideas expressed in the document(s) are incorporated in the final decision. The rationale for this is that "disclosure at any time could inhibit the free flow of advice, including analysis, reports, and expression of opinion within the agency." Federal Open Market Committee of the Federal Reserve System v. Merrill, 443 U.S. 340, 360 (1979). 2/

Commentators Stone and Liebman discuss this privilege, as recognized by the federal courts, in part as follows:

...a document is protected if its disclosure would reveal "the methods by which a decision is reached, the matters considered, the contributing influences, or the role played by the work of others."

The ultimate purpose of the privilege is "to prevent injury to the quality of agency decisions." Its particular purposes are (1) to encourage open, frank discussions on policy matters between subordinates and their superiors by assuaging fear of public ridicule or criticism; (2) to protect against premature disclosure of proposed policies before they have been finally formulated or adopted; and (3) to protect against confusing the issues and misleading the public by disclosure of reasons that were not in fact the actual reasons for the agency's actions.

....The scope of the privilege is not so narrowly confined, however, it has been held to extend to "recommendations, draft documents, proposals, suggestions, and other subjective documents which reflect the personal opinion of the writer rather than the policy of the agency."

S. Stone & R. Liebman, Testimonial Privileges (1983).

I think it is important not only to review the provisions of the confidentiality section in terms of the deliberative process privilege, but to weigh those provisions with the constitutional right to privacy in Alaska, which exceeds even that of the federal standard. According to a 1984 Attorney General's Opinion (1984 Inf. Op. Att'y Gen. Oct. 366-625-84):

"Regarding the (constitutional) right to privacy, first it must be determined whether the information is of the type that would be protected under Article I, Section. 22 of the Alaska Constitution, which provides that:

The right of the people to privacy is recognized and shall not be infringed.

In this regard, the issue is whether the information is "sensitive"; that is, information

. . . which a person desires to keep private and which, if disseminated, would tend to cause substantial concern, anxiety or embarrassment to a reasonable person.

Falcon v. Alaska Public Offices Commission, 570 P.2d 469, 479 (Alaska 1977). If the information is not "sensitive" it is not protected by the right to privacy.

If it is determined that the information is "sensitive", and thus protected by the constitutional amendment, then the second step in the analysis must be taken. This step involves a balancing process, in which the nature and extent of the harm to the individual that would be caused by public disclosure is balanced against the public interest furthered by disclosing the information."

At the Supreme Court's direction after the Falcon decision, the Public Offices Commission in 1978, adopted 2 AAC 50.100, a regulation which specifies the procedures to be used when a person claims that information is exempt from disclosure under the right of privacy. The regulation reads in part:

(a) Disclosure of another person's name in a report is not required and should not be made where that disclosure alone would likely result in disclosing sensitive information which the person would want to keep private and which, if made public, would tend to cause substantial concern, anxiety, or embarrassment to a reasonable person....

The APOC narrowly restricted the application of this regulation to AS 39.50 (Conflict of Interest), in instances when a candidate for public office claims that disclosure of information to the commission, as required by statute, would violate someone's right to privacy. However, I think that it can be reasonably argued that the Falcon test which prompted this APOC regulation, is broader than APOC's interpretation and also extends to certain documents such as complaints, reports or other sensitive material obtained or produced prior to the hearing stage under 15.13, 24.45 and 35.50. These matters fall within the confidentiality provision contained in CSSB 85 (SA).

As far as the actual procedures specified in CSSB 85 for the handling of complaints on through the hearing phase, I would like to briefly discuss similar procedures used by South Carolina, which, like CSSB 85 (SA) allows the executive director to determine from the facts presented in a complaint if sufficient cause exists to conduct a preliminary investigation of the alleged violation or failure to file required statements. If it is determined that facts are not sufficient to constitute a violation, the complaint will be dismissed and all parties will be notified. If the executive director determines that facts are sufficient to constitute a violation, a preliminary investigation will be conducted by the staff.

When the preliminary investigation is terminated, the executive director reports the results of the preliminary investigation to the Commission for review, to determine if probable cause exists to support an alleged violation. If the commission determines that there is insufficient cause to support the violation, all parties will be notified, the complaint will be dismissed and the matter will remain confidential. When sufficient facts do exist to support the alleged violation, the commission shall file an accusation. It is the probable cause determination made by the commission, resulting in the filing of an accusation which ends the confidentiality and makes the matter public.

*** Section 44.21.495. JUDICIAL REVIEW

This section has no counterpart in existing law and is modeled after a similar section in the Administrative Procedures Act.

*** Section 44.21.500. POWERS OF THE COMMISSION

This section is, apart from minor editing, identical to existing AS 15.13.045, and provides the commission with the power to compel witnesses, issue subpoenas, etc. with respect to an investigation or hearings.

*** Section 6 (13)

A new provision that requires the executive director and the professional staff of the commission to submit conflict of interest reports under AS 39.50.200 (b).

*** Several conforming amendments follow.

*** Immediate effective date.

Position Paper
April 5, 1988

The Alaska Public Offices Commission supports one provision of this measure, but opposes two other provisions. Other sections of the bill also raise concerns.

The commission supports proposed sections 44.21.450 (a)-(c), dealing with appointment procedures for commission members. This language makes it clear that all commission appointments are made by the governor, subject to legislative confirmation, in accordance with Article III, Section 26 of the Alaska Constitution. The bill retains existing procedures which provide for four appointees recommended by the two major political parties, and one appointee recommended by the other four.

Section 44.21.480 makes a major change in confidentiality provisions covering commission investigations into allegations of violations of the laws which APOC administers. Under this section, complaints, responses, and staff investigatory reports to the commission would be confidential unless the commission decides to issue a formal accusation and proceed to hearing. The commission favors language under which complaints and responses would be public record, as is currently the case, but which would provide statutorily for confidentiality of investigations and the subsequent staff report until the commission determines whether or not to issue a formal accusation. The commission believes the public has a right to know the subject of complaints under investigation, and also the right to know which complaints have been dismissed and the reasons why.

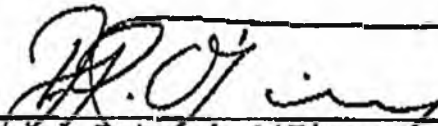

The commission opposes language in section 44.21.460 (d) which requires notice to all persons mentioned in an investigation who may have violated a law the commission administers. Although the commission agrees that all persons under investigation are entitled to respond fully to allegations against them, language in this section is far broader, and will have a chilling effect on the investigatory process.

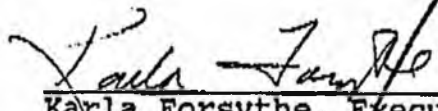

The commission is also concerned about possible adverse impacts arising from restrictions on staff's ability to settle matters prior to issuance of a formal accusation (proposed Section 44.21.470) and from requirements that various staff action be undertaken immediately or within strict time frames, such as ten days.

Other provisions of the bill either restate existing law with minor changes; or establish procedures similar to current practices.

The fiscal note submitted by the commission reflects costs of holding additional hearings anticipated if this measure is enacted.

POSITION PAPER

SB 85

MAR 04 1987

This bill repeals the existing Campaign Disclosure Law, replacing it with a new chapter, AS 15.14, effective January 1, 1988. The first half of the bill concentrates on basic provisions and prohibitions. The second half of the bill provides a complete re-working of the enforcement provisions.

Many of the positive provisions from SB 356, introduced in 1986, are retained but few of the problem areas identified by the Commission have been addressed in any meaningful fashion.

New provisions include:

Candidates and PACs are required to register within ten days of accepting contributions exceeding $1,000.

The $100 threshold for reporting contributor names is increased to $250.

10 Day Post-election reports for candidates and groups are eliminated.

Independent expenditures are defined and a $250 threshold established for reporting by an individual or a person.

Cash contributions are banned entirely, unless received at an event where no individual pays more than $25 and there are 25 or more paying participants.

An individual may contribute no more than $1,000 to a candidate or a PAC.

PACs may not receive loans and candidates may receive campaign loans only from a spouse, parent, child.

Contributions or expenditures in a fictitious name, anonymously, or in the name of another are banned. A contribution by a corporation is not a contribution in the name of a shareholder and vice versa. A candidate or PAC has ten days to dispose of a questionable contribution.

PACs may not contribute to a candidate or to other PACs or to a political party.

Campaign officers are required to be registered before acting as officers.

A person may transfer or deliver a campaign contribution without being a deputy treasurer if the contributor is disclosed and the deliveryman does not exercise discretion or control as to the amount or identity of the recipient.

Campaign funds may be used only for influencing voters.

Candidates are required to terminate campaigns by specified dates. In the case of legislative campaigns, termination is required by December 31.

Disposal of a candidate's surplus, including transfer to a new campaign, donation to charity, transfer to office allowance fund, or "paying an individual who worked in the candidate's designated election campaign, must occur prior to termination.

Solicitation by, or of, a public officer or employee on state or municipal premises is banned.

Independent expenditures are required to be identified as "not authorized by a candidate."

The publishing of false information is banned.

All violations are subject to civil penalties with no criminal provisions. Sixteen subsections describe one or more first degree (intentional) campaign financing violations subject to fines ranging from $100 to $25,000. The statute of limitations is four years.

Fifteen subsections describe one or more second degree failures to comply subject to fines ranging from $25 to $5,000 each. The statute of limitations is two years.

Candidates and groups may not pay fines from campaign funds.

First degree violations are subject to removal from office proceeding similar to those presently in effect.

Investigations, accusations, notice of defense and hearings are consistent with the Administrative Procedures Act, except that a quorum of the Commission must sit at every hearing.

Penalties may be imposed only upon a finding of clear and convincing evidence, taking into account whether the violation impeded public disclosure of information as to contributions of significant interest to the voters and the extent of a continuing disregard for the law.

Staff may not discuss settlement with a respondent prior to an admission by the respondent or a determination of violation by the Commission after holding a hearing.

A schedule of fines not to exceed $500 may be established which do not require a formal accusation or hearing.

Commission members and staff may not disclose the existence of an investigation unless or until an accusation is filed.

Staff is required to file Conflict of Interest Statements.

The Commission reserves its support of the bill in its present form because so few of its concerns raised a year ago have been addressed. Please see Attachment A. On the other hand, the Commission concurs that numerous substantive amendments to AS 15.13 are overdue. Its most recent effort to summarize those changes is Attachment B. A draft bill based on the Commission's recommendations will be available by the March 4 hearing. If there is room for serious deliberation that might find the reasonable compromises, then the Commission wishes to encourage such discussions.

For an Act entitled: "An Act relating to election campaign financing and 7 the Alaska Public Offices Commission; and providing 8 for an effective date."

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

10

* Section 1. AS 15 is amended by adding a new chapter to read:

11

CHAPTER 14. ELECTION CAMPAIGN FINANCING.

12

ARTICLE 1. ALASKA PUBLIC OFFICES COMMISSION.

13

Sec. 15.14.010. APPLICABILITY. (a) This chapter applies in 14 each election for governor, lieutenant governor, a member of the state
15 legislature, a delegate to a constitutional convention, and a judge
16 seeking electoral retention.

17

(b) This chapter applies to each election for mayor, municipal
18 governing body, and school board in a municipality with a population
19 of more than 1,000 according to the latest estimates of population
20 certified by the Department of Community and Regional Affairs under 21 AS 29.60.020. A municipality may exempt its elections from the re-
22 quirements of this chapter if a majority of the voters voting on the 23 question at a regular election as defined by AS 29.71.800 or a special 24 municipality-wide election called for that purpose vote to exempt its 25 elections from the requirements of this chapter. The question of 26 exemption from the requirements of this chapter may be submitted to 27 the voters by initiative or by the city council or borough assembly by 28 ordinance.

29

(c) This chapter does not prohibit a municipality from

1 additional regulation of campaign contributions and expenditures by
2 ordinance.

3 (d) Except as otherwise provided, this chapter applies to a
4 contribution, an expenditure or a communication made by a candidate, a
5 political action committee, a municipality, or a person for the pur-
6 pose of influencing the outcome of a ballot proposition or question as
7 well as that made to influence the nomination or election of a candi-
8 date.

9 (e) This chapter does not apply to contributions or expenditures
10 made for the sole purpose of acquiring signatures on a state or munic-
11 ipal initiative or referendum petition.

12 Sec. 15.14.020. ALASKA PUBLIC OFFICES COMMISSION. (a) The 13 Alaska Public Offices Commission is established in the Department of 14 Administration.

15 (b) The commission consists of five members.

16 (c) The governor shall appoint four members of the commission.
17 Each of the two political parties whose candidates for governor re-
18 ceived the highest and the second highest number of votes for the 19 office of governor at the most recent preceding gubernatorial election
20 is, as vacancies occur, entitled to submit nominations of four indi-
21 viduals to the governor for two members of the commission. The four 22 members appointed by the governor under this subsection shall appoint,
23 by a majority vote, the fifth member when a vacancy in that position
24 occurs.

25 (d) In filling a vacancy that is subject to appointment by the 26 governor, the governor shall make the appointment within 30 days after 27 receiving the nominations of four names from the central committee or 28 other governing body of the party. The governor shall make the ap-
29 pointment from nominees submitted to the governor by the central

1 committee or other governing body of the party.

2 (e) The term of office for each member of the commission is five
3 years and until a successor is appointed and qualifies. If a vacancy
4 occurs before the expiration of a member's term, the member appointed
5 to fill the vacancy serves for the remainder of the unexpired term. A 6 commission member may not serve more than one term, but a person
7 appointed to fill an unexpired term may be appointed to a successive
8 full five-year term.

9 (f) A member of the commission, during tenure, may not

10 (1) hold or campaign for elective office;

11 (2) be an officer of a political party or political action
12 committee;

13 (3) publicly support or oppose or make a contribution in
14 support of or in opposition to a candidate or proposition or question
15 that appears on a state, municipal or other ballot in the state;

16 (4) participate in an election campaign or participate in
17 or contribute to a political party; or

18 (5) lobby, employ, or assist a lobbyist.

19 (g) Members of the commission are entitled to receive compen-
20 sation of $100 a day while attending commission meetings and are 21 entitled to travel expenses and per diem authorized by law for state
22 employees.

23 (h) The members of the commission shall elect a chairman. A
24 majority of the commission constitutes a quorum. The affirmative vote
25 of at least three members is required to take official action. A
26 vacancy does not impair the power of the remaining members to exercise
27 the powers of the commission.

28 (i) The commission may employ an executive director and other
29 employees it considers necessary. The executive director and an

1 employee of the commission may not, during tenure,

2 (1) serve as a member of the commission;

3 (2) engage in an activity described in (f) of this section.

4 (j) The commission shall establish a central office and shall
5 establish or designate a commission office in each election district
6 of the state for the filing and public inspection of the reports,
7 registrations, or statements required to be filed with the commission.
8 Only one commission office may be established or designated in a
9 municipality that contains more than one election district. A dis-
10 trict office designated under this subsection may be a municipal or
11 other public office.

12 (k) The forms and material required for compliance with this
13 chapter shall be made available in each commission office to candi-
14 dates, persons, and political action committees required to file
15 reports under this chapter.

16 (1) The commission shall promptly forward a copy of each report
17 filed by a statewide candidate to each district office and it shall
18 promptly forward a copy of each report filed by a legislative candi-
19 date to the district office in the election district where the candi-
20 date is seeking office.

21 (m) The commission shall ensure that copies of each report filed
22 by a candidate for municipal office are made available for public
23 inspection in the municipality in which the candidate is seeking
24 office.

25 Sec. 15.14.030. DUTIES OF THE COMMISSION. The commission shall

26 (1) develop and provide forms for the reports, registra-
27 tions, and statements required under this chapter, AS 24.45, and 28 AS 39.50;

29 (2) prepare and publish a manual setting out uniform

1 methods of bookkeeping and reporting for use by persons required to
2 make reports, registrations, and statements under this chapter and
3 otherwise assist candidates, political action committees, and persons
4 in complying with this chapter;

5 (3) receive and hold open for public inspection reports,
6 registrations, and statements required to be filed under this chapter
7 and, upon request, furnish copies to an interested person at cost;

8 (4) compile and maintain a current list of each report,
9 registration, and statement filed with the commission;

10 (5) prepare a summary of each report, registration, or
11 statement filed under this chapter and make a copy of the summary
12 available to an interested person at cost;

13 (6) notify, by registered or certified mail, each person
14 whom the commission or its staff has probable cause to believe is 15 delinquent in filing a report, registration, or statement required
16 under this chapter;

17 (7) compile within 60 days after each election a list of 18 the names of all persons, candidates, and political action committees
19 who have failed to timely file a report, registration, or statement
20 required under this chapter and make the list available to the public;

21 (8) examine, investigate, and compare reports, registra-
22 tions, statements, and actions required by this chapter, AS 24.45, and
23 AS 39.50;

24 (9) prepare and publish an annual report to the legislature
25 concerning the activities of the commission, the effectiveness of this 26 chapter, and recommendations and proposals for change; and

27 (10) adopt regulations necessary to implement consistent
28 with the provisions of this chapter, AS 24.45, and AS 39.50, subject
29 to the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (AS 44.62).

ARTICLE 2. REGISTRATION AND REPORTS.

Sec. 15.14.040. REGISTRATION BY CANDIDATES. (a) An individual shall register with the commission on a form prescribed by the commission within 10 days after the individual either

(1) accepts contributions of $1,000 or more in the aggregate for the purpose of seeking elective office; or

(2) files for an elective office.

(b) The registration under (a) of this section must designate the office and the year of the election for which the campaign will be conducted, and designate whether the election is for a state or a municipal office.

(c) An individual required to register under this section shall include with the registration information required under AS 15.14.170.

Sec. 15.14.050. REGISTRATION BY POLITICAL ACTION COMMITTEES.

(a) A political action committee shall register with the commission on a form prescribed by the commission within 10 days after the political action committee either

(1) accepts contributions of $1,000 in the aggregate; or

(2) makes an expenditure in support of or in opposition to the election of an individual to an office covered by this chapter, or on behalf of or in opposition to a ballot proposition or question.

(b) A political action committee formed solely for the purpose of sponsoring an initiative, a referendum or a recall shall register with the commission within 30 days after it files a petition with the lieutenant governor or with a municipal clerk.

(c) The registration of a political action committee is valid from the date of registration until the following January 31.

(d) A political action committee may not use or file with the commission a name that is the same as or materially similar to the

1 name of a political action committee whose registration is then on
2 file with the commission.

3 (e) If a political action committee intends to support or oppose
4 only one candidate or to contribute to or expend more than 50 percent
5 of its funds on behalf of or in opposition to one candidate, the name
6 of the candidate must be part of the name of the political action
7 committee. On receipt of the registration, the commission shall 8 promptly notify the candidate of the political action committee's
9 organization and its intent.

10 (f) A political action committee that makes expenditures or re-
11 ceives contributions with the authorization or consent, express or 12 implied, or under the control, direct or indirect, of a candidate is 13 controlled by the candidate. A contribution to a political action
14 committee controlled by a candidate is a contribution to the candidate
15 under AS 15.14.110(b).

16 (g) A political action committee required to register under this
17 section shall include with the registration the information required
18 under AS 15.14.170 and shall designate the year of the election for

24 so that the respondent is able to prepare a defense. The accusation
25 must also specify the statute or regulation that the respondent is 26 alleged to have violated, and the maximum penalty provided for the 27 violation. The accusation may not consist merely of charges phrased
28 in the language of the statute and regulation.

29 (b) The commission shall include in or with the accusation a

1 statement in substantially the following form:

2 "To the Respondent: Unless you deliver or mail a written
3 request for a hearing signed by you or on your behalf to 4 the commission within 15 days after this accusation was
5 personally served on you or mailed to you, the commission
6 may proceed upon the accusation without further notice to 7 you. You may request a hearing by delivering or mailing

4 be filed within the period unless the commission in its discretion
5 authorizes the filing of a later notice.

6 (c) The respondent is entitled to a hearing on the merits if the 7 respondent files a notice of defense. The notice of defense is con-
8 sidered a specific denial of all parts of the accusation not expressly
9 admitted. Failure to file a notice of defense within the time spec-
10 ified in (a) of this section constitutes a waiver of the respondent's
11 right to a hearing, but the commission in its discretion may neverthe-
12 less grant a hearing. Unless objection is taken as provided in (a)(3)
13 of this section, all objections to the form of the accusation are 14 waived.

15 (d) The notice of defense must be in writing, signed by or on 16 behalf of the respondent, and must state the respondent's address.
17 The notice of defense need not be verified or follow a particular 18 form.

19 Sec. 15.14.310. HEARINGS. (a) If a respondent requests a 20 hearing on a contested accusation or, in the absence of a request, the

23 10 days before the hearing. The hearing may not be held before the 24 expiration of the time within which the respondent is entitled to file
25 a notice of defense. The notice to respondent must be consistent with 26 the form for notice of hearing under AS 44.62.420.

27 (b) The commission shall conduct its hearings under AS 44.62.-
28 440 - 44.62.500, except that

29 (1) the commission may, but is not required to, appoint a

1 hearing officer under AS 44.62.350;

2 (2) if a hearing officer is not appointed, the chairman of
3 the commission, or the commission member designated by the chairman,
4 shall preside at the hearing, and the attorney general shall assign an
5 assistant attorney general to the commission to advise it on matters
6 of law during the hearing;

7 (3) the hearing may not proceed except with a quorum of the 8 commission, whether or not a hearing officer is appointed.

9 (c) A hearing under this section shall be open to the public
10 except that a respondent may request and the hearing officer or the 11 presiding commission member may order that the hearing be closed if 12 one or more of the requirements for holding an executive session under 13 AS 44.62.310(c) is met.

14 Sec. 15.14.320. IMPOSITION OF PENALTY. (a) The commission may
15 impose the penalty provided by law for the violation only if the 16 accused person, having been advised of the right to a hearing, admits
17 or pleads no contest to the allegations contained in the accusation,
18 or if the commission

19 (1) holds a hearing at which the person accused is afforded
20 the right to appear, with or without counsel, the right to present
21 witnesses or other evidence and the right to cross examine witnesses;
22 and

23 (2) following the hearing, determines by clear and convinc-
24 ing evidence that the person has committed the violation of which the 25 person was accused.

26 (b) The executive director of the commission may not formally or 27 informally make a recommendation to the commission as to a particular 28 penalty in a pending matter or make a commitment to the respondent to 29 make a particular recommendation to the commission in the future until

1 after the respondent has admitted or pleaded no contest to the accusa-
2 tion or until after a hearing and a final determination by the com-
3 mission that the respondent has committed the acts charged in the 4 accusation.

5 (c) Before the executive director of the commission may make a
6 recommendation to the commission for the imposition of a particular
7 penalty in a matter, the respondent must first be given notice of the 8 recommendation and afforded an opportunity to respond to the recom-
9 mendation in person or in writing.

10 (d) In imposing a penalty, the commission shall consider

11 (1) the seriousness of the violation in terms of the extent
12 to which the violation has impeded public disclosure of information
13 required to be filed with the commission as to the amount and source
14 of contributions that are large enough to be of significant interest
15 to voters; and

16 (2) the extent to which the respondent's conduct, including
17 prior violations of this chapter, AS 24.50, AS 39.50, or of former 18 AS 15.13 shows a continuing disregard for the law.

19 Sec. 15.14.330. SUMMARY DISPOSITION OF VIOLATIONS. (a) Not-
20 withstanding the provisions of AS 15.14.290 - 15.14.320, the commis-
21 sion may establish by regulation the violations under AS 15.14.240
22 that are amenable to summary disposition without formal accusation or 23 hearing and may establish a schedule of fines, not to exceed $500, for 24 each violation.

25 (b) If an investigation by the commission discloses that a
26 person has committed a violation included in the schedule of fines
27 established under (a) of this section, the commission may, in lieu of 28 serving an accusation on the person, mail a notice of fine to the 29 person indicating the circumstances of the violation and the amount of

1 the fine established in the schedule for the violation. The person to
2 whom the notice is directed may pay the fine within 15 days after
3 receiving the notice or may file a notice of defense under AS 15.14.-
4 300.

5 (c) If the person does not pay the fine under (b) of this sec-
6 tion, the notice of fine constitutes an accusation under AS 15.14.290
7 and the commission shall proceed against the person under AS 15.14.-
8 290 - 15.14.320 and, upon determining that the person committed the 9 violation, may impose a penalty for the violation not to exceed the 10 maximum provided for the violation under AS 15.14.240.

11 Sec. 15.14.340. CONFIDENTIALITY. (a) An investigation by the 12 commission under AS 15.14.280 is confidential unless and until the 13 investigation results in the filing of an accusation under AS 15.-
14 14.290.

15 (b) A member or a former member of the commission and an em-
16 ployee or a former employee of the commission may not divulge the fact
17 of or any particular concerning a pending, past, or contemplated
18 investigation by the commission unless and until the filing of an
19 accusation by the commission except as is necessary for the commission
20 to conduct an investigation.

21 (c) Knowing violation of the provisions of (b) of this section
22 is a class A misdemeanor.

23 Sec. 15.14.350. JUDICIAL REVIEW. Judicial review of a final
24 order of the commission may be had by filing a notice of appeal under
25 applicable rules of court governing appeals from administrative agen-
26 cies.

27 Sec. 15.14.360. POWERS OF THE COMMISSION. (a) In connection
28 with an investigation or hearing under AS 15.14.280 - 15.14.320,
29 AS 24.45, or AS 39.50, the commission may compel the attendance of

1 witnesses and production of papers, books, records, accounts, docu-
2 ments, and testimony, and may have the depositions of witnesses taken
3 in a manner prescribed by court rule or law for the taking of depo-
4 sitions in civil actions when consistent with the powers and duties
5 assigned to the commission by law.

6 (b) The commission may examine the papers, books, records,
7 accounts and documents of a person subject to this chapter to deter-
8 mine the correctness of a report filed with the commission or in 9 conjunction with an investigation or inspection conducted under (a) of 10 this section.

11 (c) Subpoenas may be issued and shall be served in the manner
12 prescribed by AS 44.62.430 and court rule. The failure, refusal, or
13 neglect to obey a subpoena is punishable as contempt in the manner
14 prescribed by law or court rule. The superior court may compel obedi-
15 ence to the commission's subpoena in the same manner as prescribed for 16 obedience to a subpoena issued by the court.

17 Sec. 15.14.370. LEGAL COUNSEL. (a) The attorney general is 18 legal counsel for the commission. The attorney general shall advise 19 the commission in legal matters arising out of the discharge of its 20 duties and represent the commission in actions to which it is a party.

21 (b) When the public interest warrants, and if the attorney
22 general concurs, the commission may employ temporary legal counsel
23 from time to time in matters in which the commission is involved.

LEGISLATIVE FINANCE

My name is Jean Rogers. I'm the chairman of the Alaska Public Offices Commission. Arlayne Knox from Fairbanks who is the vice-chairman of the Commission is here with me as is our newest member, Annie Laurie Howard of Anchorage. Yesterday afternoon the Commission spent some time discussing the bill before you. We find there are things in the bill we support and things in the bill we oppose. I'll try to give you a few examples of each in just a moment.

But first, the members of the Commission wish to point out that this bill is very different from both the one that was initially introduced into State Affairs and from the proposals which received public testimony in October. Quite frankly, with such complex language on a subject of intense public interest, a proposal needs to be put on the table and left there in the same form long enough for people to obtain a copy, read it, and think about it before they testify. Unless that is done, the debate takes place only on a few key issues and many other critical provisions are adopted without scrutiny.

All fall the public discussion centered on Mr. Gross's proposal to abolish the contribution limitation. Now we know that provision is not to be part of the language, but the debate about that proposal has created the impression that everyone knows what's in the bill.

With respect to the the provisions we discussed yesterday, we were reviewing the State Affairs Committee Substitute dated February 24th. The items we like the most include the registration section for candidates and political action committees, the codification of independent expenditures, the requirement to terminate a campaign, the ban on solicitations under force or in public offices. While there may well be room for improvement in these sections, we believe the concepts to be good ones and worth pursuing.

Now let me turn to the provisions which give us the most concern. They are listed in the order they appear in the bill.

Page 18, line 27, subsection 150(a) - As you know we do not support the continuation of contributions by subsidiaries. The records of the past two elections amply illustrate how the limitation is undermined by this practice.

Page 19, line 1, subsection 150(b) - The law needs to spell out that any kind of prohibited contribution must be returned whether was anonymous, in the name of another, in a fictitious name, an excess contribution, etc. We have found case law elsewhere that suggest both the present statute and the proposal before you are inadequate on this subject.

with cases where the issue is what to do about someone who returned a contribution in 11 days, or 12 days or 13 days. Complainants frequently use such provisions to their advantage. It would make more sense to require immediate return and give the Commission room to consider the facts in a specific situation.

Page 20, line 21, subsection 160(e) -- Much has already been said about the language which undermines the requirement to list deputy treasurers. Those of us who believe the public has the right to know who's carrying around campaign money would like to know how a person could solicit a contribution and carry it to a campaign without exercising any discretion over the identify of the campaign or the amount of the contribution. The real bagmen in life don't say, "I hope you give a contribution of some amount to some candidate and if you do, I'll take it to them." That's the only behavior this language would sanction.

Page 21, line 4, subsection 160(f) - This language parrots existing law about the responsibility of candidates. Our experience has shown that there's much room for improvement with respect to the candidates and the organizers of groups being required to be responsible. Anything you can do to strengthen this language would be appreciated.

Campaign Violations in the 1st and 2nd degree - subsections 220 and 230. Although it appears the Commission could levy substantial fines for 1st degree violations, that would be unlikely. In order to assess the larger fines, the Commission would have to prove by clear and convincing evidence that an act was taken with intent to avoid disclosure. This standard of proof is unreasonably high and would mean few penalties at the higher levels. In the second degree area, we feel that the fines may be too low.

Page 32, Statute of Limitations, section 260 - the term should be 4 years for both kinds of violations, especially since 4-year terms of office are covered by this law.

Page 36, subsection 310(b), "ban on plea bargaining," - The Commission staff serves at the pleasure of the Commission; those who are unhappy with its performance are most welcome to write and let us know.

Page 38, subsection 330, confidentiality - Even if we supported the premise - and we're not sure we do - this language is flawed. The confidentiality requirement is clearly imposed on the Commission and its staff but the complainant would still be free to talk. The language forbids discussion if no accusation is ever filed. Certainly the public has an interest in what cases are dismissed and why. The language in subsection (b) is so prohibitive that it might be illegal to conduct an investigation. If a subpoena were issued with the name of the respondent on it, such could be construed as divulging the existence of an investigation.

That concludes my remarks on behalf of the Commission. Thank you for this opportunity and for the special effort you made to arrange this teleconference. We're most appreciative.

ALASKA PUBLIC OFFICES COMMISSION

1987 Legislative Proposal Recommendations

AS 15.13 - Campaign Disclosure

MAR 04 1987

LEGISLATIVE FINANCE

Introduction

The volume and complexity of campaign financing has outstripped the Law's ability to provide meaningful disclosure and effective enforcement. Public interest in information concerning the sources of campaign financing has grown with the cost of campaigns. Campaigns, contributors, and voters all express dismay at the increased costs and the fund-raising efforts required to support those costs.

The recommendations which follow are intended to reduce the sources of campaign funding and to increase the tools for enforcing those restrictions. Additional recommendations address loopholes in the current statute which allow the organization of last minute efforts to influence elections without adequate notice to the public or the affected campaigns.

Recommendations are also made to reduce the applicability of the chapter in areas where campaign activity is limited.

1. Contribution Limitation - AS 15.13.070(a)

The Commission recommends a comprehensive revision of the type of allowable contributor. The effect of the recommendations is listed below. Attachment A compares present law with the proposal. The effect of the proposal on contributors is:

- a. Individuals may give $1,000 in a calendar year to a candidate, a group, or a district party subdivision, and may give unlimited amounts to a state party central committee.
- b. A group may make no contribution whatsoever to a candidate, another group, or a political party. Group efforts would be restricted to supporting or opposing ballot issues and to making independent expenditures for or against a candidate.
- c. District party subdivisions could give unlimited amounts to a candidate or to their state central committee, make no contributions to groups, and give $1,000 to another district subdivision.
- d. The state central committee of a political party could give unlimited amounts to a candidate, make no contributions to groups, and give $1,000 to district subdivisions. The proposal does not allow for national party organizations to contribute to candidates.

- e. Corporate, union, and partnership contributions are banned entirely on the grounds that contribution decisions by such entities are made by individuals, frequently the same individuals who are giving funds personally. Additional consideration should be given to language banning contributions by unincorporated associations which do not qualify as groups under the definition in AS 15.13.130(4).

The effect of the proposal on recipients is:

- a. Candidates may receive $1,000 from an individual, unlimited amounts from district party subdivisions and the state central committee.
- b. A group may receive $1,000 from an individual.
- c. A district party subdivision may receive $1,000 from an individual, another district party subdivision, or a state central committee.
- d. A state party central committee may received unlimited amounts from individuals and district party subdivisions.

2. Disclosure Thresholds

Report by candidate - reporting dates remain the same as well as the requirement to provide name, address, occupation and employer for those who contribute more than $100.

Provide an exemption for a state or municipal candidate who certifies he or she will not accept more than $1,000 or spend more than $1,000 -- including the candidate's own money -- in an election.

Report by group - reporting dates remain the same as well as the requirement to provide name, address, occupation and employer for those who contribute more than $100.

Report by individual contributor - required of individual giving more than $250.

Report of independent expenditure - required of individual or entity, other than group or political party, making independent expenditure of any amount.

3. Shorten State Campaigns (i.e., make them less expensive)

Establish civil penalty for prohibited expenditures before filing.

Amend the Election Code to shorten the timeframe within which declarations can be filed.

Restrict use of candidate campaign funds to influencing the candidate's own election and to repaying campaign loans which were properly reported.

Ban use of campaign funds by candidates for payment of fines.

Require campaign accounts to be closed by December 31 of the year of the election.

4. Contributions in the Name of Another - AS 15.13.070(d)

Change "A contribution made by a person wishing to remain anonymous" to specify that anonymous contributions, contributions made in the name of another, and fictitious contributions are all subject to return, donation to charity or escheat to the state. Specify the Commission's authority to direct the disposition of such funds.

5. Group Registration - AS 15.13.050

Require prior to accepting contributions or making expenditures.

Require to be filed handcarried or telegraphed if group forms within 14 days of an election it intends to influence.

Registration must include name, address and telephone numbers for chair, treasurer, and each deputy treasurer. Allow chair to certify reports.

Require annual renewal each January 15 until final report is filed.

Ban use of group name that is same or materially similar to name of group on file with APOC.

Require that name of group organized by employees or members of a corporation, partnership, union, association or other organization include name of the corporation, partnership, union, etc.

6. Commission Enforcement

New language establishing broader civil penalties for such things as:

a) knowingly making or accepting an excessive contribution, an anonymous contribution, a contribution in the name of another, or a fictitious contribution;

b) making prohibited expenditures before filing;

c) misuse of campaign funds;

d) late or incomplete registration by candidate or group, including failure to list deputy treasurers;

e) failure to provide proper identification on campaign communications; or

f) other new violations which are added.

7. Municipal Applicability - AS 15.13.010

Raise population threshold from 'more than 1,000' to 'more than 5,000' or structure a date, two-three years hence, after which municipalities are no longer covered. Attachment B lists the 26 municipalities now covered; checkmarks indicate the fourteen locations where population exceeds 5,000.

If population threshold is not increased, provide an exemption for service area board candidates, charter commission candidates, and incorporation election candidates.

8. Year-end Reports - AS 15.13.110(a)(4)

Specify December 31 as end of reporting period.

Change due date to January 15.

9. 24 Hour Reports - AS 15.13.110(b)

Change "one week" to "ten days."

10. Define Independent Expenditures

Codify concept now in regulation, 2 AAC 50.351 and 2 AAC 50.313(j). Banning groups, corporations, and other organizations from making contributions to candidates will increase the practice of making independent expenditures for or against candidates. Expenditures which are not 'truly independent' of a candidate amount to the same thing as contributions. Effective enforcement of the contribution restrictions will require strong language for differentiating between contributions and independent expenditures.

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL

My name is Jean Rogers. I'm the chairman of the Alaska Public Offices Commission. Arlayne Knox from Fairbanks who is the vice-chairman of the Commission is here with me as is our newest member, Annie Laurie Howard of Anchorage. Yesterday afternoon the Commission spent some time discussing the bill before you. We find there are things in the bill we support and things in the bill we oppose. I'll try to give you a few examples of each in just a moment.

But first, the members of the Commission wish to point out that this bill is very different from both the one that was initially introduced into State Affairs and from the proposals which received public testimony in October. Quite frankly, with such complex language on a subject of intense public interest, a proposal needs to be put on the table and left there in the same form long enough for people to obtain a copy, read it, and think about it before they testify. Unless that is done, the debate takes place only on a few key issues and many other critical provisions are adopted without scrutiny.

All fall the public discussion centered on Mr. Gross's proposal to abolish the contribution limitation. Now we know that provision is not to be part of the language, but the debate about that proposal has created the impression that everyone knows what's in the bill.

With respect to the the provisions we discussed yesterday, we were reviewing the State Affairs Committee Substitute dated February 24th. The items we like the most include the registration section for candidates and political action committees, the codification of independent expenditures, the requirement to terminate a campaign, the ban on solicitations under force or in public offices. While there may well be room for improvement in these sections, we believe the concepts to be good ones and worth pursuing.

Now let me turn to the provisions which give us the most concern. They are listed in the order they appear in the bill.

Page 18, line 27, subsection 150(a) - As you know we do not support the continuation of contributions by subsidiaries. The records of the past two elections amply illustrate how the limitation is undermined by this practice.

Page 19, line 1, subsection 150(b) - The law needs to spell out that any kind of prohibited contribution must be returned whether was anonymous, in the name of another, in a fictitious name, an excess contribution, etc. We have found case law elsewhere that suggest both the present statute and the proposal before you are inadequate on this subject.
