counting purposes. However, these costs are based on the assumption that all candidates and issues will fit on three ballot cards, which is the norm. It should be noted, however that should the inclusion of this issue require a 4th ballot to be printed, the cost increase would have to be calculated at 16 cents per ballot x approximately 320,000 voters. The total cost of printing the additional ballot card would be $51.2.

Under these circumstances the fiscal note would be:

53.4

Re: HJR 67 - Legislative Confirmation

HJR 67 proposes a ballot proposition to amend Alaska's Constitution to require legislative confirmation of appointments to public corporations.

The House Labor and Commerce Committee introduced HJR 67 in response to a court ruling that Alaska's Constitution does not require legislative confirmation of appointments to public corporations. Alaska's constitution does require legislative confirmation of appointments to regulatory agencies. However, the founders of our constitution did not anticipate the creation of public corporations in the future and therefore did not specifically include them under the provisions regarding legislative confirmation.

Our Committee was concerned that the proliferation of public corporations, coupled with the court's ruling, has left Alaskans without adequate safeguards to assure accountability of appointees to public agencies. These public corporations (see attached list) are responsible for millions of dollars of public money and have a huge impact on public policy decisions.

It is clear that the founders of our constitution believed confirmation authority was a critically important and appropriate tool to assure public accountability by members of public agencies. HJR 67 is simply an extension of that wisdom, and I urge your support for the measure.

MEMORANDUM

January 25, 1988

RECEIVED
JAN 25 1987

SUBJECT: Confirmation of the board members of state corporations (Work Order No. 5-1694)

TO: Representative Dave Donley

FROM: Richard A. Bradley
Legislative Counsel

You have requested a constitutional amendment that would require the legislative confirmation of the members of certain state boards. Those that we identified when we spoke included the Alaska Railroad Corporation (AS 42.40.010); the Alaska Power Authority (AS 44.83.020); the Alaska State Housing Authority, now called the Alaska State Building Authority (AS 18.55.020, 18.55.030); the Alaska Housing Finance Corporation (AS 18.56.020), and the Alaska Public Offices Commission (AS 15.13.020).

All of the agencies except the Public Offices Commission are fairly described as "public corporations;" it is simply an agency of the state.

Certain other corporations that are presumably of interest and that get picked up in the description of a "public corporation" include

- (1) Alaska Student Loan Corporation (AS 14.42.100);
- (2) Alaska Seafood Marketing Institute (AS 16.51.010);
- (3) Alaska Medical Facility Authority (AS 18.26.010);
- (4) Medical Indemnity Corporation of Alaska (AS 21.88.020);
- (5) Alaska Resources Corporation (AS 37.12.010);

Representative Dave Donley

Page 2

January 25, 1988

- (6) Alaska Permanent Fund Corporation (AS 37.13.040);
- (7) Alaska Gas Pipeline Finance Authority (AS 44.82.010);
- (8) Alaska Municipal Bond Bank Authority
(AS 44.85.020); and
- (9) Alaska Industrial Development Authority
(AS 44.88.020).

Others may exist. The computer search that I did of "public corporation" failed to identify the Alaska State Building Authority because it is a "public corporate authority".

At this point, since the governor seems to think that the members of the Alaska Public Offices Commission are subject to confirmation by the legislature--see his SSSB 241-- there may be no difficulty in not dealing with that issue. And my earlier opinion on that question may be wrong; I could be persuaded.

If I may be of further assistance, please advise.
