The bill removes mountain goat from AS 16.05.407(a) thereby allowing non-resident hunters to hunt mountain goat without being accompanied by a licensed guide-outfitter. New funds are not required to implement this bill.

FISCAL IMPACT:  NONE  FISCAL NOTE ATTACHED

BACKGROUND/LEGISLATIVE INTENT

The requirement that all nonresident mountain goat hunters be accompanied by a guide-outfitter (or relative within the second degree of kindred) was a recommendation of the Task Force on Guiding and Game in January of 1989. Additionally, it was an implication of HB 112/SB 140 during the 15th session that mountain goat be added to Dall sheep and brown bear as species which require guide-outfitters for nonresident hunters. (Cont. on pg 2)

ANALYSIS OF BILL/PROGRAM EFFECTS

In 1988, 320 nonresident goat tags were sold. Preliminary 1989 figures indicate that 107 goat tags were sold. Thus, revenues to the state associated with nonresident mountain goat hunting in 1988 was $79,625 for tags and $19,056 for licenses, for a total of $98,681. By contrast, 1989 revenues were $26,750 (tags) and $6,420 (licenses), for a total of $33,170. A loss of $65,511 (64 percent) was expected due to the reduction of nonresident goat hunter effort in 1989. As this new requirement becomes more accepted it is believed that the opposition to using a guide will diminish and nonresident hunter effort will increase but not to pre-1989 levels.

Whether or not mountain goat remain on the guide-outfitter required list will not seriously affect the management of mountain goats in Alaska.

Mountain goat was recommended for inclusion to this list because of the precipitous terrain they occupy and the danger associated in hunting this species.
