SPONSOR STATEMENT

SB440

Senate Bill 440 would prohibit an individual from obtaining a sport hunting, fishing or trapping license in Alaska if that person's license is suspended or revoked in another state. The law would also apply to special permits and tags.

In practicality, this provision would apply by having the Department of Fish and Game add a statement to the existing Alaska hunting/fishing/trapping license form requiring the applicant's signature verifying that his or her right to obtain a hunting, fishing or trapping license in another state has not been suspended or revoked. It would only apply during the period of revocation or suspension.

A person in violation of this law is guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of up to $1000 or up to six months in jail or both. The person is also subject to prosecution under 'unsworn falsification,' a Class A misdemeanor punishable by a fine of up to $5000 or up to one year in jail, or both.

Clearly, our state law enforcement officials and the courts take fish and game violations seriously. I believe Alaskans take pride in holding in high regard the value of our fish and game resources and in respecting the laws that apply to fishing, hunting and trapping. Adoption of Senate Bill 440 will further demonstrate our commitment to protecting Alaska's fish and game resources for the benefit of all law-abiding consumptive and non-consumptive users.
