Fiscal Analysis/DOC

SB 292

February 14, 1994

The bill would modify language in the Interstate Corrections Compact, making the standard for determining the impact of an out-of-state transfer consistent with AS 33.30.061, i.e., that the transfer will not substantially impair the prisoner's rehabilitation. This could lessen the chances of successful inmate litigation protesting out-of-state placement.

By facilitating out-of-state transfer of prisoners, the bill provides a greater opportunity for the department to avoid increasing operating and capital expenditures for new prison beds in Alaska. Although there is a nationwide shortage of prison space, any prison space available outside Alaska is likely to cost less than building, operating, maintaining, and repairing prison space in Alaska.

According to The Corrections Yearbook (1993), Alaska's daily operating cost per bed in 1992 ($100.76) was double the national average ($50.22). Construction costs were almost twice as high as in other states.
