The Honorable Brian Porter
Chairman, Judiciary Committee
The House of Representatives
State Capitol, Juneau, AK 99801-1182

Dear Representative Porter:

I am writing to you today to speak against House Joint Resolution 27 (HJR 27), relating to a resolution of the Alaska State Legislature requesting the Congress to prepare an amendment to the U. S. Constitution prohibiting desecration of the flag of the United States.

The Alaska Civil Liberties Union (AkCLU), an affiliate of the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU), strongly disagrees with any legislation which would limit an individual's right to freedom of expression, and most particularly when it relates to symbolic speech.

The language of HJR 27 repeatedly recognizes that the flag is, indeed, a fine symbol of the many important events and achievements in the history of this country. As a result, some have come to believe that the U. S. flag is somehow more than a mere symbol of our nation; instead, it has become an international symbol for freedom, justice, tolerance, and equality. However, when one considers this fact, one must also remember that one of the most important freedoms that the flag symbolizes for Americans and foreigners alike is our Constitutional (First Amendment) right of free speech.

Surely the freedom that the people of this world's oppressed nations most desire is the freedom to express an opinion or idea without fear of reprisal: to be themselves, wholly. Do we not define the nature of governments first and foremost by the controls which they place on individual liberties, including the freedom of speech?

HJR 27, by attempting to create criminal punishments for desecrating the symbol (our flag) of an idea (freedom), infringes on the very individual liberties our flag represents, while doing great harm to the Constitution itself. The flag is a symbol, a way of communicating an idea to others without the use of words. As such, its destruction is also merely symbolic: a way of communicating feelings and ideas to others.

The First Amendment also guarantees that the sharing of a particular idea, even if that idea may be offensive to a majority of the public, is not to be denied based merely on the content of that idea. Although a proposed amendment banning desecration of the flag might not contain explicit content-based limitations on the symbolic uses of the flag, as U. S. Supreme Court Justice Brennan noted in the majority opinion in U.S. v. Eichman (which upheld the constitutionality of flag desecration), such a Constitutional amendment would suffer from the flaw of suppressing expression "out of concern for its likely communicative impact" (emphasis added).

The thirteen colonial legislatures, when debating whether to accept the Constitution as the basis for this country's governmental structure, refused to ratify it without written guarantee that certain basic rights would not be infringed. These rights were codified and attached to the Constitution as the first ten amendments, also known as the Bill of Rights. There has been no change to these amendments in the past 200 years. An amendment banning flag desecration would restrict one of these freedoms.

Once a justification for making one change has been made and accepted, it would be just that much harder to resist further changes to the Bill of Rights, should they be proposed. Today, we have an amendment prohibiting flag desecration. What would it be tomorrow? An amendment prohibiting a march by Neo-Nazi sympathizers, or laws banning black armbands worn to protest a governmental action? Potentially, the amendments could reach even more outrageous proportions.

Finally, the idea that an amendment should be made to the Constitution to prohibit one particular form of expression, so long as enough people protest that particular form of expression, is outrageous. The First Amendment was enacted to protect political expression offensive to prevailing opinion and sentiment, to protect that speech which may in fact disturb or anger the majority: to protect individuals from the tyranny of the majority.

Any proposed amendment, although it might appear simple, would conceal a variety of complex issues. Would such an amendment supersede the rest of the Constitution? If so, states could seize evidence of flag desecration in violation of the Fourth Amendment and deny due process in criminal trials. Would the proposed Amendment supersede only the First Amendment? If so, a state could prohibit all flag burning but that in protest, for example, of the Vietnam War. Would that be intended? If not, just how much and what part of the First Amendment would be superseded by the proposed Amendment?

The flag symbolizes different things to different people. As Justice Brennan noted in Texas v. Johnson, mistreatment of the flag should not be an exception to the principle of free speech: "We do not consecrate the flag by punishing its desecration, for in doing so we dilute the very freedom that this cherished emblem represents."

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Randall Burns". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned above the typed name.

Dear Sirs,

I missed any news item that petitions were available to sign against desecration of the American flag.

To me, the flag is not political - it is our Country - it is us.

Hoping this letter can be added - as a help towards law that will prohibit desecration of our American flag.

Thank you,

Margaret T. Hendrickson

Dear Mr. Mahoney

I as an American join with the hundreds of thousands in protest of the deplorable treatment of our Great Flag. A deep hurt exists in the hearts of the American People when they see anyone tread on our National Colors. Please add my name to those who wish to object in writing to the desecration of the AMERICAN FLAG.

DATE: 3/18/93

REF: HJR 27

Mr. Chairman:

I see that HJR 27, the U.S. flag desecration amendment resolution is now in your committee.

I would appreciate it if you would schedule this resolution for a hearing at your earliest convenience.

This issue is of vital and emotional concern to the many veterans in Alaska, as witnessed by the testimony on a similar measure before the Senate Finance Committee. I hope to see this measure approved this session and feel the House Military and Veteran's Affairs Committee version has the best chance for passage.

Thank you in advance for your consideration.

REGARDING HJR-27 Flag Deceration Resolution

WE HAVE TRANSMITTED _____ PAGES OF DOCUMENTS, IF YOU DID

NOT RECEIVE ALL THE PAGES, PLEASE NOTIFY OUR OFFICE AT THE TELEPHONE OR FAX NUMBER LISTED ABOVE. THANK YOU.

COMMENTS. AMERICAN LEGION, DEPT. OF AK, URGES YOUR COMMITTEE GIVE DUE PASS TO HJR 27, WHICH MEMORIALIZES CONGRESS TO PASS CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT PROHIBITING BURNING OR DECERATION OF AMERICAN FLAG. CONGRESSIONAL PASSAGE OF CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT WOULD PRESERVE AND PROTECT SYMBOLIC AND PATRIOTIC CHARACTER OF OLD GLORY BY PROHIBITING DISPITABLE ACTS WITHOUT ABRIDGEMENT OF FREE SPEECH IN ANY WAY.

William R. Weber
DEPT. COMMANDER

P.S. Chief, if the House acts quickly on passage of HJR-27, Senator Taylor has advised us the Senate would push the Majority resolution HJR-27 and leave the Senate resoution, SJR-9, lay dormant. The Legion really wants this one. Thanks for any assistance you can give us.

Representative Ed Willis
State Capitol
Juneau, AK 99801-1182

Dear Representative Willis,

For several years, the veterans of the great state of Alaska have been trying to get legislation approved to protect our nations greatest symbol, her flag. We have been unsuccessful previously.

As Commander of our states 6,500 members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, I endorse immediate passage and implication of HRS 27, a bill which carries the support of all of our veterans.

It is unfortunate that the flag of our nation requires protection. Many good friends and comrades have come home with our flag as their escort, which was then folded and presented to their survivors from "A grateful nation". The actions of a few radical individuals to desecrate this symbol is a outrageous injustice to those proud Americans who gave their all for our Nations cause.

I solicit your support in passing HRS 27 this session.

Sincerely Yours,

LARRY J. PATCH
