SENATE BILL 7

In October of 1993 a man raped and assaulted two women in Anchorage. One of the sad facts in this case was that the perpetrator had been convicted and sentenced for a felony drug offense and yet he was still free. He had a long criminal record that included convictions for three rapes and two vehicle thefts in California. In Alaska he had been convicted for gambling, carrying a concealed weapon, fourth degree assault, trespassing, and possession of cocaine. His criminal record indicates a violent past and a threat of being a danger to the community. In spite of these facts, the defendant was released on ($5,000.00) bail pending appeal. The lives of two women and their families are forever changed because of these circumstances.

Senate Bill 7 is a simple piece of legislation. It adds to the list of circumstances for which bail is not allowed under AS 12.30.040(b). It will prevent a persons release on bail either before sentencing or pending appeal where the person has been previously convicted of a unclassified or class A felony, sexual assault in the second and third degrees, sexual abuse of a minor in the second and third degrees and stalking in the first degree. Currently state laws says that if there is a conviction for a class A or Unclassified felony bail is not allowed following conviction. This legislation would also acknowledge a potential danger to society when the prior felony conviction had been for violent crimes.

I ask for your support so that we might protect the lives of other potential victims of violent crime.

Man sought in assaults on 2 women

Police launching a search for knife-wielding suspect

S.J. KOMARNITSKY
Daily News reporter

Anchorage police are searching for a 36-year-old man they say assaulted one woman and raped another at knife-point early Wednesday morning.

Police have charged Leonard John Hoffman with one count of third-degree assault and four counts of first-degree sexual assault and have issued a warrant for his arrest.

According to court documents, Hoffman allegedly assaulted the first woman shortly after midnight at her Anchorage home. The woman told police she knew Hoffman and let him in. But, she told police, he grabbed her face, pushed her onto a couch and then threatened her with a knife.

He then broke off the attack and drove her vehicle to a second woman's residence in a mobile home park off Boniface Parkway, Capt. Shirley Warner said.

According to court documents, the second woman told police Hoffman is her sister's boyfriend. She let him in after he told her he had been beaten up. The woman said Hoffman had scratches on his arm and she tried to bandage it. She told police he then smoked what appeared to be marijuana.

Meanwhile, he made several trips between the residence and the vehicle. As he went to leave one time, he suddenly grabbed her, pulled out a knife and dragged her into the bedroom, she said. He then raped her, she said.

The woman told officers she ran out of the mobile home about 1:30 a.m. when Hoffman went to get some food in a microwave. She called police from a neighbor's residence. Police staked out the mobile home for about four hours, attempting to make contact. But Hoffman had apparently snuck out after the woman left, Warner said.

Hoffman is considered extremely dangerous and possibly armed, Warner said.

Hoffman has a long criminal record including convictions in California for three rapes and two vehicle thefts.

In Alaska, Hoffman has been convicted for gambling, carrying a concealed weapon, fourth-degree assault, trespassing and possession of cocaine, according to court records.

Last December, he was also charged with four counts of sexual assault for allegedly tying up and raping a woman to whom he offered a ride. Those charges were later dropped for lack of evidence.

In June, he was sentenced to three years in jail for drug possession. He was released on bail after he appealed the conviction.

Sgt. Walt Monegan said police are familiar with Hoffman. And although they didn't step up patrols Wednesday night, all officers had been briefed on him and a picture was being circulated.

"Right now, we are keeping our eyes out ... and following up on any possible sightings," Monegan said.

He said officers also were watching Hoffman's usual haunts. That included his last reported residence on West 26th Street.

Police describe Hoffman as 6 foot, 230 pounds, with brown hair and brown eyes. He often uses the aliases Leonard J. Samano and Leo Hoffman or combinations of the two. He is considered dangerous and anyone spotting him should call the Anchorage Police Department at 786-8900.

Bombings blamed on inmate

Authorities say man tried to scare victims

By LIZ RUSKIN
Daily News reporter

A man in jail on rape charges orchestrated firebombings at two Anchorage homes this winter to frighten his victims out of testifying against him, according to charges filed this week in Superior Court.

Leonard Hoffman, an inmate at Cook Inlet Pre-Trial Facility, was accused Tuesday of arson, witness tampering and interference with an official proceeding. He pleaded innocent to all counts Wednesday.

The men the authorities say helped carry out the intimidation, Gilbert Montiel and William "Nick" Lopez, were similarly charged.

Only one of the firebombs exploded. No one was injured.

Hoffman has been in jail since October, when he was arrested on charges that he assaulted a woman at her mobile home in Spenard, then broke off the assault, drove to another trailer in Muldoon and raped the woman who lived there. Police said Hoffman, 36, knew both of his victims.

FIREBOMBS: Inmate accused of scare tactics

Hoffman began trying to intimidate the women soon after he landed in jail, according to the 18-page charging document filed this week.

Montiel's wife, Dawn, told police Hoffman called from jail repeatedly and asked her to tell one of the women not to testify.

"Go up to her and frighten her," Hoffman said, according to Dawn Montiel's statement to police. She also claimed he threatened her, saying, "If you don't do this I'm going to get people to take care of you. I'll reach out and touch you."

A man named Shannon Kennington told police he was at the Montieis' house one day in November when Hoffman called from jail. Hoffman, he said, promised to give him a gram of heroin if he would shoot at a Spenard trailer to frighten a woman out of testifying.

Kennington said he agreed to the terms. Early one morning he and Gilbert Montiel fired six shots at the trailer Hoffman described, Kennington said.

Hoffman, however, only provided a fraction of the heroin he promised because he didn't believe they had done the job, Kennington said. Over the phone from jail, Hoffman let Kennington know he was angry that the shooting hadn't been reported in the news.

"Hoffman said he wanted to make the newspaper, to let it be known to 'these ladies' that something was going to happen," the charges say. " . . . Hoffman kept making phone calls to Montiel's residence to try to get Montiel and Kennington to go and 'do some more to these ladies' trailers.'"

On Dec. 11, a Molotov cocktail was thrown at the Spenard trailer. It landed in the driveway and caused no damage. Two days later, the woman Hoffman is accused of assaulting reported finding another Molotov cocktail — a gasoline-filled bottle with a white rag stuffed in the neck — in front of her trailer. The rag was partially burned, but the bomb did not explode.

On Jan. 6, the woman Hoffman is accused of raping was sleeping in her Muldoon trailer when a lit Molotov cocktail was thrown into her living room window. She put out the fire with an extinguisher before it spread.

Kennington told police he heard Montiel and Lopez brag about the bombing afterward.

Richard Shoefel, assistant superintendent of Cook Inlet Pre-Trial Facility, said the jail couldn't listen in on Hoffman's phone conversations because it doesn't have phone monitoring equipment. If someone complains about getting threatening or harassing calls from an inmate, jail officers will tell the prisoner not to call that number again. In extreme cases, they will have officers dial phone numbers for the prisoner, Shoefel said. Police never asked him to restrict Hoffman's calls, he said.

The Department of Corrections is already being sued for allegedly allowing inmates in Cook Inlet Pre-Trial and Spring Creek Correctional Facility to plan and execute the fatal 1991 Ekiutna mailbombing from behind bars. The lawsuit, filed by the wife of bombing victim David Kern, alleges the department failed to isolate inmates Doug Gustafson and R.D. Cheely from each other and from people outside the prison who carried out the bombing at the inmates' direction.

Arrest warrants were issued for Montiel and Lopez, but only Lopez was in jail Wednesday evening, authorities said.

Hoffman's trial on the October rape and assault charges was to begin today. His lawyer, Carmen Gutierrez, asked for more time to prepare in light of the new charges. The trial is now set to begin May 11.

Prosecutor Audrey Renschel said she plans to introduce evidence of Hoffman's scheme to intimidate the witnesses at the assault trial.

No trial date has been set for the charges filed this week.

Hoffman was convicted of raping two women in California and has served hard time in San Quentin. District Attorney Ed McNally said.

All of which is an unclassified felony offense, being contrary to and in violation of AS 11.41.410(a)(1), and against the peace and dignity of the State of Alaska.

THE COMPLAINANT CHARGES IN COUNT FOUR:

that on or about October 13, 1993, at or near Anchorage, in the Third Judicial District, State of Alaska, Leonard J. Hoffman did knowingly and unlawfully engage in sexual penetration with another person, K.V., without K.V.'s consent, by penetrating her vagina with his penis.

All of which is an unclassified felony offense, being contrary to and in violation of AS 11.41.410(a)(1), and against the peace and dignity of the State of Alaska.

THE COMPLAINANT CHARGES IN COUNT FIVE:

that on or about October 13, 1993, at or near Anchorage, in the Third Judicial District, State of Alaska, Leonard J. Hoffman did knowingly and unlawfully engage in sexual penetration with another person, K.V., without K.V.'s consent, by penetrating her mouth with his penis.

All of which is an unclassified felony offense, being contrary to and in violation of AS 11.41.410(a)(1), and against the peace and dignity of the State of Alaska.

I, Robert M. Gray, state under oath that this complaint is based on information and belief derived from my investigation in this matter.

M.B. reports that just after midnight, in the early morning hours of October 13, 1993, she was at her home in Anchorage, when the defendant, who she knows as an acquaintance, came to see her. While at her home, the defendant suddenly grabbed her face with his hand, splitting her lip, and pushed her face into the couch. He then ripped her panties off, stuffed them in her mouth, and held up a knife as if he were going to stab her. He told her he had killed two back men already tonight with a baseball bat. M.B. said he suddenly stopped and began to frantically try to make telephone calls. She suggested to him that he could take her car, and he left. M.B. said she struggled with him during the above encounter, and scratched his face and bit his finger.

K.V. reports that around 12:30 a.m. on October 13, 1993, she was at her home in Anchorage, when the defendant, whom she knows as a boyfriend of her sister, came to her home. She said he wanted in, that some black guys had beaten him up. She observed injuries on him and invited him in and tried to bandage up his arm, using an Ace bandage.

K.V. said he smoked what appeared to be marijuana, after he offered her some, and she declined. She said he went back and forth to his car several times. She said one time as he was leaving, he grabbed her, pulling her shirt off, and pulled out a knife, which he used to cut off her bra. He then dragged her into the bedroom. He tied her hands above her head, using the Ace bandage she had given him earlier. He told her, "I have nothing to lose. I'm going to kill you." He told her he had an Uzi in the car. He then forced his finger into her anus. He continued to assault her by forcing his finger into her vagina. He forced his penis into her vagina. He grabbed her hair and forced her mouth onto his penis. During these assaults, he was rubbing the knife around her breasts.

Afterward, K.V. tried to pretend everything was okay, because she was still afraid that the defendant would carry through on his threat to kill her. She offered to make him some food, and managed to escape to call the police when he went to the microwave to get his food. She said he followed her, cursing, but she managed to get away.

BAIL INFORMATION

The defendant is known to me as a convicted sexual assault felon in California. I am also aware that he is currently out on bail pending appeal on a drug conviction.

This bill would prohibit bail after conviction and before sentencing or pending appeal if the person has been convicted of an offense that is an unclassified or a class A felony; or a class B or class C felony if the person has been previously convicted of an offense that is an unclassified felony, a class A felony, or stalking in the first degree, sexual assault in the second or third degrees, and sexual abuse of a minor in the second or third degrees. In most cases, courts usually deny bail under these circumstances. However, the bill removes the courts' existing authority to grant bail in these circumstances. In any event, these are sentencing provisions that occur after conviction and, consequently, there will not be a fiscal impact for the Department of Law.

 Section 1 establishes the intent of the legislature to restrict the availability of bail after the conviction for certain felons.
 Section 2 expands AS 12.30.040 (b) which currently prohibits bail following conviction pending sentencing or appeal when the felony is an unclassified felony or a Class A felony. This bill would add the bail prohibition to include current convictions of a class b or class c felony when the felon has committed prior unclassified or class A offenses, or has been convicted of the specific crimes against persons of stalking, sexual assault in the second and/or third degree, and sexual assault of a minor in the second and/or third degree.
 There is no fiscal impact for the Council on Domestic Violence & Sexual Assault
