HOUSE MILITARY AND VETERANS AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

SPONSOR STATEMENT HCR 5

On Sunday, December 7, 1941, Japan launched a surprise attack against the United States forces located at Pearl Harbor and nearby military facilities. This attack came without warning and without a declaration of war. Over 2,000 Americans were killed, and many others suffered grievous injuries. A major portion of the United States Pacific fleet was decimated, leaving many other Americans in the Pacific exposed to attack and capture.

Japan's action on this date ushered in our involvement in World War II. Thereafter, for over four years, the United States was engaged in a great global conflict, marked by the unimaginable suffering of untold millions, both military and civilian. The lives of an entire generation were disrupted, and many still bear scars from this conflict.

Over fifty years have elapsed since the attack on Pearl Harbor. Those Americans who were then old enough to remember that day are aging, and many are no longer with us. Someday, that generation will be gone, and no one will be available to bear witness to that pivotal event in our history.

As a people, we can not afford to forget what happened. Lessons were learned which remain relevant to this day. Suffering was endured for our freedom, and this cries out for recognition. Blood was spilled by a heroic generation so that we, today, can enjoy freedom. It would be a sacrilege to fail to acknowledge our continuing debt to those who gave so much to us.

Accordingly, it is proper---indeed, necessary--- to continually remind ourselves and future generations of the events of December 7, 1941. HCR does just that, by designating that day as Pearl Harbor Day and calling on the Governor to issue an appropriate proclamation. Your support is appreciated.

MEMORANDUM

January 24, 1995

SUBJECT: Sectional Summary of HCR 5 relating to Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day (9-LS0388\C)

TO: Representative Pete Kott
Attn: George

FROM:  Theresa Bannister
Legislative Counsel

You have requested a sectional summary of the above-described resolution.

As a preliminary matter, note that a sectional summary of a resolution should not be considered an authoritative interpretation of the resolution and the resolution itself is the best statement of its contents.

1. The "Whereas" provisions give the background and reasons for establishing Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day.
2. The "Resolved" provision declares December 7, 1995, to be Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day and urges the Governor to issue a proclamation calling on state citizens to observe the day.

If I may be of further assistance, please advise.

ONE HUNDRED NINETY-FOURTH CONGRESS of the United States of America

AT THE SECOND SESSION

Begin and held at the City of Washington on Tuesday, the twenty-fifth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and ninety-four

Joint Resolution

Designating December 7 of each year as "National Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day".

Whereas, on December 7, 1941, the Imperial Japanese Navy and Air Force attacked units of the armed forces of the United States stationed at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii;
Whereas more than 2,000 citizens of the United States were killed and more than 1,000 citizens of the United States were wounded in the attack on Pearl Harbor;
Whereas the attack on Pearl Harbor marked the entry of the United States into World War II;
Whereas the veterans of World War II and all other people of the United States commemorate December 7 in remembrance of the attack on Pearl Harbor; and
Whereas commemoration of the attack on Pearl Harbor will instill in all people of the United States a greater understanding and appreciation of the selfless sacrifice of the individuals who served in the armed forces of the United States during World War II: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That December 7 of each year is designated as "National Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day" and the President is authorized and requested—

(1) to issue annually a proclamation calling on the people of the United States to observe the day with appropriate ceremonies and activities; and

(2) to urge all Federal agencies, and interested organizations, groups, and individuals, to fly the flag of the United States at halfstaff each December 7 in honor of the individuals who died as a result of their service at Pearl Harbor.

Thomas S. Foley

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Robert L. Byrd

Vice President of the United States and President of the Senate pro tempore.

STATE OF ALASKA

Executive Proclamation

by
Walter J. Hickel, Governor

December 7, 1941, the Imperial Japanese Navy and Air Force attacked units of the armed forces of the United States stationed at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii.

More than 2,000 citizens of the United States were killed and more than 1,000 were wounded in the attack on Pearl Harbor, which marked the entry of the United States into World War II.

The veterans of World War II and all other people of the United States commemorate December 7 in remembrance of the attack on Pearl Harbor.

Commemoration of the attack on Pearl Harbor will instill in all people of the United States a greater understanding and appreciation of the selfless sacrifice of the individuals who served in the armed forces of the United States during World War II.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Walter J. Hickel, Governor of the State of Alaska, do hereby proclaim December 7, 1994, as:

PEARL HARBOR REMEMBRANCE DAY IN ALASKA

and encourage all citizens and groups to observe the day with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

DATED: November 14, 1994

Done by —

Walter J. Hickel
Walter J. Hickel, Governor
who has also authorized the seal of the State of Alaska
to be affixed to this proclamation.
