ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary.)

To be eligible to receive federal funds for independent living services, Alaska must establish a Statewide Independent Living Council. On October 26, 1994, Governor Hickel established the Council by Administrative Order No. 149. Senate Bill 117 formally establishes this council in statute. Funding for this council and other independent living services is included in the Rehabilitation Act Amendments of 1992, Title VII. The state currently receives approximately $900,000 under this Act.

Please see the attached sheet for further analysis.

To be eligible to receive federal funds for independent living services, Alaska must establish a Statewide Independent Living Council. Funding for this program is included in the Rehabilitation Act Amendments of 1992, Title VII.

Funds, allotted under Part B of Title VII, are disbursed to Alaska as a minimal allotment state which means that Alaska will receive not less than $275,000 for independent living services. The state must match Part B funds by 10%.

In addition, Part C of Title VII entitles Alaska to receive not less than $533,330 in federal funds designated for centers for independent living. There are currently two Alaska centers which receive these funds directly from the federal government under Part C. In FY95, a total for $602,900 was awarded to two Alaskan independent living centers. Access Alaska received $301,000 and Southeast Independent Living (SAIL) received $301,900 from this federal source.

The funding for the independent living program in FY95 is as follows:

Funding Source	Amount (in thousands)
Federal Part B	$ 283.8
Part B Required State Match	39.1
Federal Part C	602.9
State General Funds	563.4
TOTAL	$ 1,489.2

The Independent Living Council expenses are funded with Part B and state general funds. The total Council budget is $142,600, which is 9% of the total funds available. The state Division of Vocational Rehabilitation retained $10,600 (.7% of the total) for grant monitoring. The remainder of the funds, $1,336,000 is granted to statewide non-profit organizations for direct consumer services.

Without a Statewide Independent Living Council the state will not be eligible to receive either Part B or Part C federal funds under Title VII of the Act resulting in a lost of approximately $900,000 in federal funds.

Dear Senator Halford:

The Statewide Independent Living Council (SILC) is very supportive of SB117, "An Act establishing a statewide independent living council and clarifying its relationship with existing agencies; and providing for an effective date." The Council voted to support the effort to establish the Alaska SILC in statute at its January 26-27, 1995 meeting.

Nugget Hlatt

Under federal law, statewide independent living councils are responsible for jointly developing a State Independent Living Plan, monitoring the implementation of this Plan, and coordinating activities with other disability related councils and commissions. This plan includes the allocation of both State and federal resources for independent living services. This is an important element of our role within State government, involving hundreds of thousands of dollars. Establishment of the Council in statute is both responsible and prudent.

SB 117 also clarifies in statute the responsibilities of the Alaska SILC, verses those of the Governor's Council on Disabilities and Special Education. This is important to avoid duplication of efforts.

Re: Senate Bill 117
Establishment of a State Independent Living Council

Dear Senator Halford:

The Department of Education and the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation (DVR) support Senate Bill 117. In order for Alaska to continue receiving federal funds for independent living services, the state must establish in statute a statewide independent council. The Rehabilitation Act of 1973 as Amended in 1992 states in Title VII, Sec. 705 "Statewide Independent Living Council:"

(a) Establishment - to be eligible to receive financial assistance under this chapter, each state shall establish a Statewide Independent Living Council (referred to in this section as the "Council"). The council shall not be established as an entity within another state agency.

We support your efforts in submitting this legislation. For your information I have enclosed a copy of the Alaska Independent Living Council's mission statement, responsibilities and goals as contained in the statewide independent living plan.

If we can be of more assistance in your efforts, please contact me or Stan Ridgeway, Deputy Director, DVR, at 465-6932.

Sincerely,

Shirley J. Holloway, Ph.D.
Commissioner
