House Concurrent Resolution Number 29

HCR 29 was introduced to encourage the participation of elementary students across the state in naming the new Alaska marine highway vessel.

Vessels of the Alaska marine highway system are, by law, required to be named after glaciers in the state. With the introduction of this resolution I hope to involve the elementary students of Alaska in this process. This will give teachers in the state a vehicle to implement lessons about transportation systems in the state, geography of the state and the legislative process.

The information contained in the resolution outlines the importance of the Alaska marine highway to the state economy. The christening of a new vessel illustrates the continuing dedication to the system by the state. Because the Alaska marine highway impacts the economy of the entire state, I believe it is important to involve the entire state in the naming of this new vessel. I encourage you to support this legislation.
