Limiting the authority to conduct pull-tab charitable gaming to qualified organizations that are exempt from taxation under 26 U.S.C. 501(c)(3) or (19).

Alaska's current charitable gaming program allows virtually any organization to apply for and obtain a permit to conduct gaming activities, including bingo, raffles, lotteries and pulltabs. These organizations include many that were never conceived to be included under even the most liberal definition of a charity, such as labor unions, professional organizations, political parties, and many others.

Alaskans did not intend for legalized charitable gaming to be abused in the ways it is today; they certainly did not anticipate that an unprecedented stream of gaming-generated dollars, mainly from pulltabs, would flow into the political process, as they now do. Research has shown that political contributions from organizations that raise money from pulltabs have now eclipsed political contributions from the oil industry in Alaska. In the meantime, Alaskan charities, the intended beneficiaries of the charitable gaming permits, are receiving a lower percentage return than ever.

In the past, subgroups of both political parties have used pulltab permits to raise campaign funds. While campaign finance reform cleaned up much of what was wrong with Alaska political financing, the loophole of charitable gaming is still there, although it remains to be seen (based on gaming permit applications) how many political subgroups will keep this lucrative option open to themselves. Alaska is the only state in the nation that allows direct access between gam(b)ling dollars and the political arena.

House Bill 84 seeks to remedy this deplorable situation by simply permitting only tax-exempt organizations under the IRS code to conduct pulltab games. Pulltabs would continue to be available to the gambling public; however, the proceeds would go to help the needy and other worthy causes, and not be diverted into the pockets of politicians. Other organizations, which would no longer be permitted to conduct pulltab gaming because they do not qualify for tax-exempt status, would still be able to raise money with raffles, bingo, lotteries, and myriad other classics, contests and derbies.

To: Representative Jeannette James, Chair
House Committee on State Affairs

From: Representative Terry Martin

Subject: HB 84 - Pull tabs

Thank you for scheduling HB 84 for a hearing next week. I think it is important for the Legislature to engage in the debate about the intent of legalized gaming in Alaska, and especially to explore the question to what extent the most lucrative of the games -- pull tabs -- should be allowed.

As you may have observed, HB 84, as it was originally introduced, proposes a fairly narrow field of tax-exempt groups under IRS definitions that would be permitted to continue playing pull tab games. I fully anticipate that many groups that are currently permitted, but which would no longer be permitted under the bill, will raise objections and ask to have the bill amended to be included. I do not have a blanket objection to expanding the scope to include other tax exempt organizations found in the IRS code. For example, fraternal organizations such as the Elks and Moose are exempt under 501(c)(8). However, I think it would be a healthy exercise to have each and every one of these organizations -- that wish to be able to continue to raise funds under charitable gaming -- to document for us (and for themselves) just exactly how much of their pull tab income actually ends up being used for charitable purposes.

Support information and backup materials are attached. If you have questions, please contact either myself or John Manly of my staff at 465-3783. Thank you for your expeditious attention to this request.

SUBJECT: Sectional Summary of HB 84. (0-LS0181\E)

TO: Representative Terry Martin
Attn: John Manly

FROM: Gerald P. Luckhaupt GL
Legislative Counsel

You have requested a sectional summary of the above-described bill. As a preliminary matter, please note that a sectional summary of a bill should not be considered an authoritative interpretation of the bill - the bill itself is the best statement of its contents.

Section 1 of the bill amends the authority of the Department of Revenue to issue a charitable gaming permit for the conduct of pull-tab games. If the bill becomes law the department may only issue a permit to conduct pull-tab games to those qualified organizations that meet the qualifications for a pull-tab gaming permit under AS 05.15.100(e).

Section 2 of the bill amends the authority of the department to issue multiple-beneficiary permits for the conduct of pull-tab games. If the bill becomes law only multiple-beneficiary permittees that consist solely of qualified organizations that are eligible for pull-tab gaming permits under AS 05.15.100(e) can conduct pull-tab games.

Section 3 of the bill provides that to be eligible to receive a permit to conduct pull-tab games a qualified organization must be an organization that is described in 26 U.S.C. 501(c)(3) or (19) and is exempt from taxation under 26 U.S.C. 501(a).

Section 4 of the bill provides that only permittees receiving a pull-tab permit under AS 05.15.100(e) can contract with an operator to conduct pull-tab games.

Section 5 of the bill provides that a pull-tab distributor may only distribute pull-tab games to those permittees and licensees eligible to conduct pull-tab games.

Section 6 of the bill provides that only qualified organizations that receive permits under AS 05.15.100(e) can conduct pull-tab games.

Section 7 of the bill provides a technical amendment in response to the changes in the bill concerning which groups may conduct pull-tab games. Only qualified organizations that meet the requirements specified in AS 05.15.100(e) can conduct pull-tab games.

Section 8 of the bill provides a clarifying amendment that corresponds to the substantive changes in the bill.

Section 9 of the bill amends the session law that sunsets mushing sweepstakes to preserve the changes made to AS 05.15.100(a) in this bill when the sunset springs into effect in 1999.

Section 10 of the bill provides an effective date.

any provision of law which is not contained in a revenue Act, or the purpose of holding title to property; collecting any amount thereof, less expenses, to an organization. Rules similar to the rules of subparagraph (G) of this paragraph.

(3) Corporations, and any community chest, fund, or foundation, organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, testing for public safety, literary, or educational purposes, or to foster national or international amateur sports competition (but only if no part of its activities involve the provision of athletic facilities or equipment), or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, no substantial part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation (except as otherwise provided in subsection (h)), and which does not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements), any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for public office.

(4)(A) Civic leagues or organizations not organized for profit but operated exclusively for the promotion of social welfare, or local associations of employees, the membership of which is limited to the employees of a designated person or persons in a particular municipality, and the net earnings of which are devoted exclusively to charitable, educational, or recreational purposes.

(B) Subparagraph (A) shall not apply to an entity unless no part of the net earnings of such entity inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual.

(5) Labor, agricultural, or horticultural organizations.

(6) Business leagues, chambers of commerce, real-estate boards, boards of trade, or professional football leagues (whether or not administering a pension fund for football players), not organized for profit and no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual.

(7) Clubs organized for pleasure, recreation, and other nonprofitable purposes, substantially all of the activities of which are for such purposes and no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder.

(8) Fraternal beneficiary societies, orders, or associations—

(A) operating under the lodge system or for the exclusive benefit of the members of a fraternity itself operating under the lodge system, and

(B) providing for the payment of life, sick, accident, or other benefits to the members of such society, order, or association or their dependents.

(9) Voluntary employees' beneficiary associations providing for the payment of life, sick, accident, or other benefits to the members of such association or their dependents or designated beneficiaries, if no part of the net earnings of such association inures (other than through such payments) to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual.

(10) Domestic fraternal societies, orders, or associations, operating under the lodge system—

(A) the net earnings of which are devoted exclusively to religious, charitable, scientific, literary, educational, and fraternal purposes, and

(B) which do not provide for the payment of life, sick, accident, or other benefits.

(11) Teachers' retirement fund associations of a purely local character, if—

(A) no part of their net earnings inures (other than through payment of retirement benefits) to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, and

(B) the income consists solely of amounts received from public taxation, amounts received from assessments on the teaching salaries of members, and income in respect of investments.

(12)(A) Benevolent life insurance associations of a purely local character, mutual ditch or irrigation companies, mutual or cooperative telephone companies, or like organizations; but only if 85 percent or more of the income consists of amounts collected from members for the sole purpose of meeting losses and expenses.

(B) In the case of a mutual or cooperative telephone company, subparagraph (A) shall be applied without taking into account any income received or accrued—

(i) from a nonmember telephone company for the performance of communication services which involve members of the mutual or cooperative telephone company,

(ii) from qualified pole rentals,

(iii) from the sale of display listings in a directory furnished to the members of the mutual or cooperative telephone company, or

(iv) from the prepayment of a loan under section 306A, 306B, or 311 of the Rural Electrification Act of 1936 (as in effect on January 1, 1987).

(C) In the case of a mutual or cooperative electric company, subparagraph (A) shall be applied without taking into account any income received or accrued—

(i) from qualified pole rentals, or

(ii) from the prepayment of a loan under section 306A, 306B, or 311 of the Rural Electrification Act of 1936 (as in effect on January 1, 1987).

(D) For purposes of this paragraph, the term "qualified pole rental" means any rental of a pole (or other structure used to support wires) if such pole (or other structure)—

(i) is used by the telephone or electric company to support one or more wires which are used by such company in providing telephone or electric services to its members, and

(ii) is used pursuant to the rental to support one or more wires (in addition to the wires described in clause (i)) for use in connection with the transmission by wire of electricity or of telephone or other communications.

For purposes of the preceding sentence, the term "rental" includes any sale of the right to use the pole (or other structure).

(13) Cemetery companies owned and operated exclusively for the benefit of their members or which are not operated for profit; and any corporation chartered solely for the purpose of the disposal of bodies by burial or cremation which is not permitted by its charter to engage in any business not necessarily incident to that purpose, and no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual.

(14)(A) Credit unions without capital stock organized and operated for mutual purposes and without profit.

(B) Corporations or associations without capital stock organized before September 1, 1957, and operated for mutual purposes and without profit for the purpose of providing reserve funds for, and insurance of shares or deposits in—

(i) domestic building and loan associations,

(ii) cooperative banks without capital stock organized and operated for mutual purposes and without profit,

(iii) mutual savings banks not having capital stock represented by shares, or

(iv) mutual savings banks described in section 591(b) [.]

(C) Corporations or associations organized before September 1, 1957, and operated for mutual purposes and without profit for the purpose of providing reserve funds for associations or banks described in clause (i), (ii), or (iii) of subparagraph (B); but only if 85 percent or more of the income is attributable to providing such reserve funds and to investments. This subparagraph shall not apply to any corporation or association entitled to exemption under subparagraph (B).

(15)(A) Insurance companies or associations other than life (including interinsurers and reciprocal underwriters) if the net written premiums (or, if greater, direct written premiums) for the taxable year do not exceed $350,000.

(B) For purposes of subparagraph (A), in determining whether any company or association is described in subparagraph (A), such company or association shall be treated as receiving during the taxable year amounts described in subparagraph (A) which are received during such year by all other companies or associations which are members of the same controlled group as the insurance company or association for which the determination is being made.

(C) For purposes of subparagraph (B), the term "controlled group" has the meaning given such term by section 831(b)(2)(B)(ii).

(16) Corporations organized by an association subject to part IV of this subchapter or members thereof, for the purpose of financing the ordinary crop operations of such members or other producers, and operated in conjunction with such association. Exemption shall not be denied any such corporation because it has capital stock, if the dividend rate of such stock is fixed at not to exceed the legal rate of interest in the State of incorporation or 8 percent per annum, whichever is greater, on the value of the consideration for which the stock was issued, and if substantially all such stock (other than nonvoting preferred stock, the owners of which are not entitled or permitted to participate, directly or indirectly, in the profits of the corporation, on dissolution or otherwise, beyond the fixed dividends) is owned by such association, or members thereof; nor shall exemption be denied any such corporation because there is accumulated and maintained by it a reserve required by State law or a reasonable reserve for any necessary purpose.

(17)(A) A trust or trusts forming part of a plan providing for the payment of supplemental unemployment compensation benefits, if—

- (i) under the plan, it is impossible, at any time prior to the satisfaction of all liabilities, with respect to employees under the plan, for any part of the corpus or income to be (within the taxable year or thereafter) used for, or diverted to, any purpose other than the providing of supplemental unemployment compensation benefits.
 - (ii) such benefits are payable to employees under a classification which is set forth in the plan and which is found by the Secretary not to be discriminatory in favor of employees who are highly compensated employees (within the meaning of section 414(q)), and
 - (iii) such benefits do not discriminate in favor of employees who are highly compensated employees (within the meaning of section 414(q)). A plan shall not be considered discriminatory within the meaning of this clause merely because the benefits received under the plan bear a uniform relationship to the total compensation, or the basic or regular rate of compensation, of the employees covered by the plan.
- (B) In determining whether a plan meets the requirements of subparagraph (A), any benefits provided under any other plan shall not be taken into consideration, except that a plan shall not be considered discriminatory—
- (i) merely because the benefits under the plan which are first determined in a nondiscriminatory manner within the meaning of subparagraph (A) are then reduced by any sick, accident, or unemployment compensation benefits received under State or Federal law (or reduced by a portion of such benefits if determined in a nondiscriminatory manner), or
 - (ii) merely because the plan provides only for employees who are not eligible to receive sick, accident, or unemployment compensation benefits under State or Federal law the same benefits (or a portion of such benefits if determined in a nondiscriminatory manner) which such employees would receive under such laws if such employees were eligible for such benefits, or
 - (iii) merely because the plan provides only for employees who are not eligible under another plan (which meets the requirements of subparagraph (A)) of supplemental unemployment compensation benefits provided wholly by the employer the same benefits (or a portion of such benefits if determined in a nondiscriminatory manner) which such employees would receive under such other plan if such employees were eligible under such other plan, but only if the employees eligible under both plans would make a classification which would be nondiscriminatory within the meaning of subparagraph (A).
- (C) A plan shall be considered to meet the requirements of subparagraph (A) during the whole of any year of the plan if on one day in each quarter it satisfies such requirements.
- (D) The term "supplemental unemployment compensation benefits" means only—
- (i) benefits which are paid to an employee because of his involuntary separation from the employment of the employer (whether or not such separation is temporary) resulting directly from a reduction in force, the discontinuance of a plant or operation, or other similar conditions, and
 - (ii) sick and accident benefits subordinate to the benefits described in clause (i).
- (E) Exemption shall not be denied under subsection (a) to any organization entitled to such exemption as an association described in paragraph (9) of this subsection merely because such organization provides for the payment of supplemental unemployment benefits (as defined in subparagraph (D)(i)).
- (18) A trust or trusts created before June 25, 1959, forming part of a plan providing for the payment of benefits under a pension plan funded only by contributions of employees, if—
- (A) under the plan, it is impossible, at any time prior to the satisfaction of all liabilities with respect to employees under the plan, for any part of the corpus or income to be (within the taxable year or thereafter) used for, or diverted to, any purpose other than the providing of benefits under the plan,
 - (B) such benefits are payable to employees under a classification which is set forth in the plan and which is found by the Secretary not to be discriminatory in favor of employees who are highly compensated employees (within the meaning of section 414(q)),
 - (C) such benefits do not discriminate in favor of employees who are highly compensated employees (within the meaning of section 414(q)). A plan shall not be considered discriminatory within the meaning of this subparagraph merely because the benefits received under the plan bear a uniform relationship to the total compensation, or the basic or regular rate of compensation, of the employees covered by the plan, and
 - (D) in the case of a plan under which an employee may designate certain contributions as deductible—
 - (i) such contributions do not exceed the amount with respect to which a deduction is allowable under section 219(b)(3),

(I) to satisfy, in whole or in part, the liability of such person for, or with respect to, claims for compensation for disability or death due to pneumoconiosis under Black Lung Acts;
(II) to pay premiums for insurance exclusively covering such liability,
(III) to pay administrative and other incidental expenses of such trust in connection with the operation of the trust and the processing of claims against such person under Black Lung Acts, and
(IV) to pay accident or health benefits for retired miners and their spouses and dependents (including administrative and other incidental expenses of such trust in connection therewith) or premiums for insurance exclusively covering such benefits; and

(ii) no part of the assets of the trust may be used for, or diverted to, any purpose other than—

- (I) the purposes described in clause (i),
(II) investment (but only to the extent that the trustee determines that a portion of the assets is not currently needed for the purposes described in clause (i)) in qualified investments, or
(III) payment into the Black Lung Disability Trust Fund established under section 9501, or into the general fund of the United States Treasury (other than in satisfaction of any tax or other civil or criminal liability of the person who established or contributed to the trust).

(B) No deduction shall be allowed under this chapter for any payment described in subparagraph (A)(i)(IV) from such trust;

MARTIN INTRODUCES BILL TO LIMIT PULL-TAB GAMING TO 501(c)3 CHARITIES

JUNEAU, AK -- Representative Terry Martin (R-Anchorage) has introduced legislation that would limit the permitting of pull-tab gaming to organizations that qualify as tax-exempt charities under the Internal Revenue Service code.

Martin, a long-time opponent of gambling in Alaska, said the state's current charitable gaming program allows virtually any organization, from labor unions to professional associations to political parties, to raise money--under the guise of charity--through pull-tab permits.

"Many are not charities," Martin said. "The situation has simply gone far beyond what the legislature and the people of Alaska intended when they approved the charitable gaming program. What we have discovered is that there is now a heavy stream of dollars, generated mainly from pull-tabs, flowing into the political arena. In fact, the amount of money contributed to political campaigns by organizations with pull-tab permits is more than the total amount contributed by the oil industry."

Martin said his bill would allow only those organizations that qualify as tax-exempt under 26 U.S.C. 501(c)(3) to obtain pull-tab gaming permits from the state. "Is this extreme?" Martin asked. "Maybe so, but we need to explore all sides of this problem to determine what our solution ought to be."

Other organizations that do not qualify as tax-exempt, but which would like to continue to use charitable gaming activities to raise money could be issued permits to run raffles, bingo, lotteries, and myriad other classics, contests and derbies.

Martin's research has shown that subgroups of both major political parties in Alaska have in the past used pull-tab permits to raise campaign funds. "I am hopeful that some political parties or subgroups have ceased to use the pull-tabs, but I'm not sure they have," Martin said. "Even with campaign finance reform passed last session, we still have a big loophole, allowed by the abuse of charitable gaming permits."

"Alaska is the only state in the nation that has allowed gambling money direct access to the political process. This bill will put Alaska on par with other states by simply using the IRS definition of a charitable organization."

The bill, HB 84, was referred to the state affairs, labor and commerce and finance committees. Martin said he will ask for hearings right away on the bill.

Lawmaker wants to limit pull-tab groups

By DIRK MILLER

The Associated Press

JUNEAU — An Anchorage lawmaker wants to limit the number of groups that can sell pull-tab games to those that meet the Internal Revenue Service's definition of nonpolitical charities.

The move would knock political parties, labor unions and many other nonprofit organizations out of the pull-tab business. Pull tabs are paper slot-machine type games that generally sell for up to $1.

Rep. Terry Martin, R-Anchorage, said he wants to rein in the kinds of groups that can get into the gaming business and to ensure that pull-tab money is kept out of political campaigns.

Last year, lawmakers passed legislation to do that by prohibiting use of money raised from pull-tab sales for political purposes. But Martin said that organizations can potentially get around the law by using the pull-tab profits to pay for operating expenses — freeing up other money for political purposes.

"If you want to get gambling out of politics, you've got to restrict the charitable organizations," Martin said. "The biggest loophole in the campaign acts is gambling."

Former Rep. Cynthia Toohey, an Anchorage Republican, was behind the legislation that cut political use of pull-tab money. Toohey, who did not run for reelection, said Martin may be going too far with his proposal.

"I'm not sure that tightening it up, you won't do more damage to the bona fide charities," Toohey said.

Alaska law allows a variety of organizations to qualify for charitable gaming permits, including fraternal organizations, chambers of commerce, business groups and others.

In 1995, according to the state charitable gaming division, the sale of pull tabs accounted for almost $20 million that went to Alaska nonprofit groups.

Martin's bill would restrict the permits to those groups allowed under an IRS tax code provision as tax-exempt. They include religious, educational, scientific, literary, public safety testing and amateur sports groups, and organizations that aim to prevent cruelty to animals and children.

The bill also would allow military service groups to continue in the pull-tab business.

Dennis Poshard, state charitable gaming director, said several political organizations hold pull-tab permits and more than 1,000 groups are permitted by the state to sell pull tabs.

Poshard said the gaming division has not taken a position on Martin's bill.

The Democratic Party said Martin's bill could limit public participation in politics.

"We do rely on that money to help keep doors open and communicate with Democrats around the state," said Deborah Bonito, Democratic Party chairwoman. "In the light that he casts it, often it's as if the party is something devious."

The Republican Party is generally opposed to pull-tab gaming, although some GOP auxiliary organizations conduct the games, said Tom McKay, the party's vice chairman. The party has a pull-tab permit, according to the state. McKay said it has not been used in recent years.

"Creative people will always find ways to get good things done," McKay said. "I don't buy the argument that parties will dry up if they can't do gambling."

JEDC gets $100,000 revolving loan

■ Money to provide loans for Southeast small businesses, housing developers

By CATHY BROWN

THE JUNEAU EMPIRE

A revolving loan fund to provide credit to small businesses and housing developers in Southeast will soon be ready to start lending cash.

The Juneau Assembly Finance Committee on Wednesday gave the Juneau Economic Development Council's loan fund the green light to start making loans.

The committee also approved spending a total of $103,400 on other development council needs, a Perseverance Theatre grant, a feasibility study for a cold storage facility and a part-time tourism coordinator position.

The assembly agreed in May 1996 to provide $100,000 for the revolving loan fund, but said the money would not be released until the development council found enough matching funds to bring the balance to $250,000.

Since then the city of Sitka has contributed $250,000 to the fund and Wrangell has pitched in $100,000. Those communities, however, specified their money could only be used to fund businesses in their communities.

Juneau Finance Director Craig Duncan said, because of those restrictions, he wasn't sure the additional contributions met the assembly's requirements for matching funds. The fund was set up to provide credit throughout Southeast, and local officials had not limited their contribution to Juneau projects.

"It's a little troublesome, I guess, that ours is unrestricted," Finance Committee Chairman Rod Swope said.

Nonetheless, the assembly panel unanimously agreed to go ahead and release the money.

"The political situation in those communities has got to be really on the brink . . ." assembly member Rosemary Hagevig said. "I think we need to generate a little positive PR about the willingness of this community to reach out to our neighbors."

The money, despite the restrictions, will help the fund leverage money from other sources, JEDC Director Charles Northrip said.

The finance committee also

agreed to let JEDC spend $47,500 in federal economic disaster funds to make up for an unexpected shortfall in a federal grant for the council's Microenterprise Development Project, which provides assistance to people starting small businesses.

Committee members also agreed to let the council spend $15,000 to cover the council's costs of administering the economic disaster fund program. That money would come out of interest earned by those funds.

In other decisions, the committee gave Perseverance a $10,000 unsolicited donation because the theater company is in difficult financial times. The panel also authorized spending $25,000 for a feasibility study on whether to build a cold storage facility in Juneau.

Committee members agreed to spend $5,900 out of fees generated by the Mount Roberts tram to hire a part-time tourism coordinator to staff the city's Tourism Working Group. The money would pay that person's salary until the beginning of the next fiscal year in July.

Except for the revolving loan fund money, all other funding approved by the Finance Committee must still go through the full assembly in ordinance form.

The Finance Committee turned down a request of about $300 from Southeast Alaska Guidance Association to cover the rental of Centennial Hall for an Earth Day celebration. Two assembly members who voted against that request, Ralph Kibby and John MacKinnon, offered to make a personal donation to the group.

RE: H. B. 84

I am sorry that I cannot be there in person to testify on this bill, however please accept my gratitude for allowing me to submit written testimony.

We here at the Juneau Moose and the other lodges around the state are vehemently opposed to H.B. 84. First, why is Representative Martin excluding Sec. 501 C-8 organizations from this bill? That would include all of the Moose lodges in the state and I don't know how many other organization.

Moose lodges are organized under 501 (C8) as non-profit fraternal organizations with no political ties and none allowed. We are organized under a strict members only policy and any monies made by Moose lodges must come from its members and not the general public. This includes any pull tab monies we make. It must be remembered that we support many charities with our pull tab monies as evidenced with the information packs given to Representative Elton and Hudson. Along with the information for Juneau, you could look at the Craig lodge who sent thousands of dollars back into the community. In fact, they are the major contributor to the Ambulance Corp. The Petersburg lodge donated over $100,000. back to the community last year. In Anchorage alone last year, $ 123,000 was given to charity.

With figures like these it is hard to fathom how anyone could deny 501(C8) organization the right or privilege to sell pull tabs to its members.

If we cannot sell pull tabs who is going to fund and support the many charities.

Again, we urge that H.B. 84 be defeated.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

ANALYSIS-HOUSE BILL 84

This bill would allow only tax exempt organizations under the IRS code to conduct pull tab games. Proceeds would go only toward the cause for which they are intended. Other organizations would be able to conduct raffles, bingo, lotteries and classics, contests and derbies, but would not be allowed to sell pull tabs.

Questions:

1. A number of municipalities, from the community of Kaktovik and North Pole to the Matanuska-Susitna Borough, have gaming permits and eligible to sell pull tabs under current statute. Would this bill prohibit municipalities such as these from selling pull tabs?
2. A number of village entities, especially in District 39 and other rural areas, also have gaming permits and sell pull tabs to raise funds for community events and even management of the controlling government. Does this bill prohibit these local governmental entities from selling pull tabs?
3. In your sponsor statement you state that political contributions from organizations that raise money from pull tabs have now eclipsed political contributions from the oil industry in Alaska. What documentation do you have that accounts for the amount of dollars from direct pull tabs sales being placed into campaigns?

Fiscal note not with bill.

This bill will have a detrimental effect on rural communities, unless they are exempted from this bill or exempt under the IRS code mentioned in the bill.

PULLTABS FOR CHARITY

In his recent Letter to the News, Alaska Legislator, Terry Martin, sarcastically referred to the fraternal organizations (Moose and Elks) as the "predictable objectors" to his HB 84, which would prohibit their pulltab activity.

Actually, smaller clubs' charitable gaming activities are run by members who receive little or no remuneration, and spend countless hours setting up, running their activities, cleaning up, AND doing the paperwork for the State, to satisfy ever increasing reporting.

Representative Martin has put forth misleading figures to support his HB 84. $260 million gross, resulting in 8% to charities means over $20 million in donations. However, the GROSS he speaks of does not deduct prize monies distributed (approximately 75% or $195 million), resulting in Adjusted Gross Proceeds of $65 million. From this figure, 3% of net profit is the State of Alaska Tax on Ideal Net. 3% of $65 million = about $2 million. So again from that $65 million, $2 million automatically goes to the State of Alaska, leaving $63 million.

Another fixed cost is pull tab game purchases (tightly controlled by the State, using serial numbers stamps on all pull tab boxes, and available only through Licensed Distributors within the State of Alaska). The cost of pulltab games amounts to approximately 10% of adjusted gross proceeds - or $6.5 million (10% of $65 million). Now the amount left of that $260 million is $56 million.

From the $56 million left, there are expenses such as rent, supplies, equipment purchase and maintenance, advertising, bookkeeping, and other labor..

Now, at this point, the State of Alaska requires a 1% permit fee on the net ($56 million less expenses incurred above) balance. This is a relatively small figure, about .01% of that $260 million, amounting to only $.25 million- (app.).

So, the amount donated to charities is NOT 8%, but much higher, ($20 million donated from $56 million less expenses). At least 40% and as much as 60%, depending on expenses.

By using "Gross Income" figures, Representative Martin has quoted misleading numbers. $20 million for charities within our State is nothing to sneeze at! Those of us who volunteer to run pulltabs, bingo, etc. are really working hard to keep up with rules and regulations promulgated by the State. We also appreciate their efforts to prevent graft and cheating...We should, however, remember the net result---$20.8 million can be counted as one of those tiny lights that supply scholarships, medical equipment and transportation, help for needy families, etc., all taking pressure from the State's Social Services.

Along with $20 million to charities from pulltabs, we also have charitable gaming from Bingo, Raffles, etc. What amount is donated within the State from this other charitable gaming?

HOUSE STATE AFFAIRS

HONORABLE CHAIRWOMAN: JANEATTE JAMES,

This morning I tried to link up to the committee meeting regarding the pull tabs issue. I just found out that this was not even publicized or given to the Barrow legislative office. It is unbelievable that we are denied this opportunity to speak our rights to the Alaska legislature who drafts these laws impacting our lives in the Rural Communities.

However, I hope this written comment will be at least recorded, accepted or viewed by your committee.

We in the rural communities are not privileged to request funding for our capital improvement programs from the State. Tribes in Alaska have to resort to their own natural resources such as ivory carvings to finance any improvements or maintenance to our existing homes.

Tribal governments have the opportunity to do self determination programs under Tribal Gaming on tribal property. However, the State has a vendetta against Tribal self determination. The State is not drafting any legislation on behalf of the tribes (aboriginees of Alaska) that will generate revenues to fund their community needs such as health, housing, etc.

Tribes are eligible for any of the State's political positions, yet the politics are negatively legislating Tribes in Alaska with public funds.

I write all this due to uphill battles we constantly due either with our own funds to address our concerns, it seems usually in court.

We, Alaska Inter-Tribal Council request the Committee to make an exception to Tribal Governments who are in the federal register be allotted at least a 4 million dollar pay out limit in the pull tab permits. The purpose of this is very straight forward. All registered tribes provide basic services to its membership such as ICWA cases, realty, wildlife, general assistance to the needy, voc-ed and training, and social services. Emergency medical travel to major hospitals is not funded for provided due to limited physician services on site. All revenues will be used by the tribe for the benefit of the tribe to supplement their PL93-638 contracts which have insufficient funds to provide service for which they are designed for by the federal government. The tribal council has the exclusive authority for any expenditures for these funds. The National Gaming Act may be the guiding principle for these funds if your committee so desires. We can accept a higher tax percentage payment to the State on account of this provision at least 1% to the State.

It is of paramount value to us in the rural communities for you to consider this request seriously. I know that you will have done a great service to the Native Community if approved.

Sincerely,

Arnold Brower Jr.

Dear Representative James,

The State Affairs Committee has before it, House Bill No. 84, which if passed, as is now before your committee, would have the effect of disqualifying non-profit entities that are now permit holders authorized to conduct pull tab charitable gaming. We oppose HB84 as now before your committee.

May we recommend that the State Affairs Committee consider some changes:

- >That any qualifying organization now holding a gaming permit (to conduct pull tab operations) be unaffected by this act; and
- >that after the effective date of the Act, all non-profit organizations meet the provisions required (26 U.S.C. 501 <c><3> or <19>), as set out in the provisions in HB. 84.

The Juneau Camp of the Alaska Native Brotherhood has applied to the Internal Revenue Service for designation as a 501<c><3> Status organization, and the IRS has not yet conferred such designation. If HB No. 84 were to be enacted, then the Juneau ANB would be disqualified.

There are other non-profit organizations that are in the same circumstance and are now operating pull tab gaming. A "grandfather" clause, so to speak, would be in order, in our opinion.

We respectfully ask these considerations.

HB84 - PULL-TABS LIMITED TO 501(c)(3) AND (19)

Effect on Charities

House Bill 84 proposes to limit the types of charities that can apply for and receive a permit to sell pull-tabs to those that are incorporated and have been designated as 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(19) tax exempt corporations by the Internal Revenue Service.

The Charitable Gaming Division estimates 362 charities that currently have pull-tab permits will no longer be authorized to sell pull-tabs. These 362 charities include IRA/Native Villages, Volunteer Fire Departments, Fraternal Organizations, Fishing Derby Associations, Dog Musers' Associations, Municipalities, Labor Organizations, Non-Profit Trade Associations, and Civic or Service Organizations. The division estimates the total loss of revenues to those organizations to be approximately $12,000,000.

Fiscal Effect

Based upon those figures, the effect to the division's budget will be a slight reduction to operating expenditures and a reduction in program receipts. The reduction in operating expenditures is a result of a personal services decrease equal to two positions - one auditor and one licensing examiner. This is because there will be slightly fewer applications to review, permits to issue, and reports to process. The effect on the operating expenditures is minimal though, due to the fact that many of the charities that no longer qualify for pull-tab permits have other charitable gaming permits, such as bingo and raffles, which require the division to process an application and a report. The reduction in program receipts is due to the decrease in pull-tab taxes collected from the sale of pull-tabs by affected organizations and a decrease in the 1% fee collected on net proceeds.

Assumptions

Since the only agency that maintains a list of 501(c) corporations is the IRS, who has not supplied the list to the division, the division has made several assumptions to develop the figures in this fiscal note. These assumptions are:

1. All 1995 charitable, educational, and religious organizations are exempted under 501(c)(3) and all veterans organizations are exempt under 501(c)(19).
2. All other 1995 charitable gaming organization types are not exempt under 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(19).
3. Qualified organizations that currently do not have a permit will not choose to get one.
4. 1997 pull-tab activity by 1997 permitted organizations will approximate reported 1995 pull-tab activity.

HB84 - PULL-TABS LIMITED TO 501(c)(3) AND (19)

House Bill 84 proposes to limit the types of charities that can apply for and receive a permit to sell pull-tabs to those that are incorporated and have been designated as 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(19) tax exempt corporations by the Internal Revenue Service.

The Charitable Gaming Division estimates that 362 charities that currently have pull-tab permits will no longer be authorized to sell pull-tabs. The division estimates the total loss of revenues to those organizations to be approximately $12,000,000.

Based upon those figures, the effect to the division's budget will be a slight reduction to operating expenditures and a reduction in program receipts. The reduction in operating expenditures is a result of a personal services decrease equal to two positions. This is because there will be slightly fewer permits issued and the corresponding reports to process. The effect on the operating expenditures is minimal though, due to the fact that most of these charities also have other charitable gaming permits. Thus, the division will still process an application and a report for those organizations. The reduction in program receipts is due to the decrease in pull-tab taxes collected from the sale of pull-tabs by affected organizations and a decrease in the 1% fee collected on net proceeds.

Since the only agency that maintains a list of 501(c) corporations is the IRS, who has not supplied the list to the division, the division has made several assumptions to develop the figures in this fiscal note. These assumptions are:

1. All 1996 charitable, educational, and religious organizations are exempted under 501(c)(3) and all veterans organizations are exempt under 501(c)(19).
2. All other 1996 charitable gaming organization types are not exempt under 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(19).
3. 1997 pull-tab activity by 1997 permitted organizations will approximate reported 1995 pull-tab activity.
