ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary.)

This bill will require the Department of Administration to prepare a report containing detailed information on salaries, per diem, travel expenses, relocation expenses, etc. for: the governor, lieutenant governor, chiefs of staff, commissioners or other executive heads of departments, deputy commissioners, and division directors; the University president, vice president, chancellors; and executive heads of public corporations created by law. To compile this information will require gathering wage information from the payroll system, as well as gathering the travel information from each individual's travel records. We estimate this will take the equivalent of approximately three months time of an Accountant IV.

Sponsor Statement Senate Bill 155

"An Act relating to methods of payments of and reports concerning certain state salaries and business expenses."

This bill would expand the number of state entities, in addition to the legislature, required to report travel and compensation annually. Detailed information for the previous calendar year of the salaries, per diem, travel expenses, relocation expenses and any additional allowances received would be the required from the following people:

- governor;
- lt. governor;
- chiefs of staff of the governor and lieutenant governor;
- supreme court justices;
- court of appeals judges;
- administrative director of the court;
- legislative affairs executive director;
- president and vice president of the University and the chancellors of the individual campuses of the university;
- commissioners and deputy commissioners and division directors;
- and the executive heads of public corporations created by law.

The reports, one from the executive branch and one from the judicial branch will be sent to the legislature by January 31 each year for the previous calendar year coinciding with the date the legislative fiscal officer is required to file an annual travel and compensation report on members of the legislature.

OK, it happened - we've just been asked by leadership to hear a priority Senate bill in House State Affairs ASAP. The meeting will have to be some time Saturday, to conform with the 24 hour notice.

We're working with Speaker Porter's office right now to see what time will work relative to the floor session.

For now, just alert your bosses that we will be hearing SB155 some time Saturday - my GUESS is 10:00 a.m. but we'll have to wait and see.

Thanks.

Barbara
