SPONSOR STATEMENT
SB 112

"An Act placing certain employees of the Alaska Mental Health Trust Authority in the exempt Service; establishing a minimum salary for the long term care ombudsman"

Senate Bill 112 would place employees of the Alaska Mental Health Trust Authority (the Trust) in the exempt service, while establishing a minimum salary for the Long Term Care Ombudsman.

SB 112 was introduced at the request of the Alaska Mental Health Trust Authority to address concerns expressed about their ability to function efficiently as a state corporation.

Unlike other state boards, commissions and authorities whose employees are placed in the exempt service under AS 39.25.110(11), the Alaska Mental Health Trust Authority's employees are not in the exempt service. This is despite the fact that the fiduciary duty owed to the beneficiaries by the Trust requires that employees perform at the highest levels of competency, since their actions could jeopardize the assets and/or management of the Trust.

Additionally, this legislation establishes a minimum salary for the Long Term Care Ombudsman at a Range 21. Establishing a minimum salary of the Long Term Care Ombudsman will help ensure that a qualified individual can be hired for this crucial position.

The TRUST

The Alaska Mental Health Trust Authority

February 27, 2001

Senate Health, Education and Social Services Committee
State Capitol
Juneau, Alaska 99801-1182

Re: SB 112

Dear Senator Green,

This letter is in support of SB 112 that would place the employees of the Alaska Mental Health Trust Authority in the exempt service and establish a minimum salary for the Long Term Care Ombudsman.

Through oversight, the legislation creating the Alaska Mental Health Trust Authority (the Trust) made no provision regarding the category of service of either the Executive Director of the Authority or the staff. Therefore, all positions were deemed to be in the classified service by default. This has created a number of problems for the Trust and continues to be a barrier to the efficient operation of the agency.

At the time the initial Board of Trustees was appointed in 1995, it was forced to petition the State Personnel Board to have the Executive Director position established as partially exempt. Without this action, the Trustees would have been seriously restricted in their ability to hire an appropriate person for this critical position. Subsequently, due to the large assets of the Trust (over $300 million and 1,000,000 acres of land) and the fiduciary duty owed to the beneficiaries, the Trust was forced to budget for a State Investment Officer position, which is already exempt by law, as a means of securing the services of someone they could be assured over time would adequately monitor the management of Trust assets by the Permanent Fund Corporation and the Department of Natural Resources. The remaining four staff are still in the classified service. This eclectic mix of employee positions in such a small office has been cumbersome and confusing at best.

The Trust is a state corporation similar in nature and function to the other boards, commissions and authorities whose employees are in the exempt service under AS 39.25.110 (11). These include, the Alaska Industrial Development and Export Authority, the Alaska Permanent Fund Corporation, the Alaska Aerospace Development Corporation, the Alaska Commission on Postsecondary Education and the Alaska Commercial Fisheries Entry Commission. The function of the Trust in developing a plan for the state and granting endowment income is extremely similar to that of the Alaska Science and Technology Foundation which is also in the exempt service under AS 39.25.110 (25). Finally, the fiduciary duty owed to the beneficiaries by the Trust requires that employees perform at the highest levels of competency and that any action that jeopardizes the assets or management of the Trust can be immediately addressed.

The Trustees have agreed to accept responsibility for administering the Office of the Long Term Care Ombudsman. The Long Term Care Ombudsman is responsible for protecting the welfare of some of our most vulnerable Alaskans. Residents in the Pioneer Homes, nursing homes and community based assisted living homes often cannot speak for themselves. To mediate disputes and protect these individuals, the Long Term Care Ombudsman has extraordinary powers including the authority to subpoena confidential records and pursue legal actions if necessary. The Trustees believe that establishing a minimum salary for the Long Term Care Ombudsman is essential to ensure that a qualified individual can be found for this vitally important position. This position, as well as all others in the office, would remain in the classified service to protect them from any political pressure.

On behalf of the Trustees and the beneficiaries, thank you for considering SB 112. Please let me know if I can be of any further assistance.

Sincerely,

Jeff Jesse
Executive Director
