ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)
 HB95 transfers control of space in the state Capitol currently occupied by the Office of the Governor to the Alaska Legislative Council. It also directs the Legislative Affairs Agency to allocate parking according to the needs of the Legislature, deleting the reference to other agencies occupying space in the state Capitol. This bill has zero fiscal impact on the Legislature.

ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)

The House State Affairs Committee adopted a zero fiscal note for the Office of the Governor because the fiscal note submitted by Administrative Services based their fiscal note on the assumption that the passage of HB 95 would result in the Governor being moved from the Capitol Building. The Committee determined that HB 95 simply transfers the control of the third floor from the Governor to the Legislative Council, therefore, there is no fiscal impact from HB 95.
