Sponsor Statement

If adopted, House Bill 42 will rename the three miles of trail alongside the South Tongass Highway between Ketchikan and Saxman, Alaska the Joe Williams Sr., Coastal Trail.

Joe was an advocate for the construction of a trail alongside the South Tongass Highway between the Cities of Ketchikan and Saxman. Residents of these communities for many years, without the means of transportation, commonly walked the three miles between towns alongside the road with tragic results.

After the trail was completed, it quickly became a favorite walking and bicycling path used by visitors and locals alike. Set between the Ocean and the Highway the Joe Williams Sr. Coastal Trail is both scenic and historically important to the people of the Ketchikan Area.

Joe's son, William K. "Bill" Williams, while serving as a member of the Alaska State House of Representatives, worked diligently to obtain funding for the construction of this traditional path between these two communities.

This Legislation honors the memory of a highly respected member of the Native Community in Southeast Alaska, and will help recognize the Twelve Years of service to the people of the State of Alaska by his son.

Representative Jim Elkins
Capitol Building
Juneau, Alaska 99801

Dear Representative Elkins:

The City Council members of the City of Saxman would like to thank you for introducing House Bill 43, for naming the "bike path" the "Joe Williams, Sr. Coastal Trail". Joe Williams, Sr. was a political leader for Saxman from a very early age until his death. He was Mayor of Saxman for 38 years as well as being Tribal President during the same time period. He was also Alaska Native Brotherhood Camp 15 President and Grand President of the Alaska Native Brotherhood. Joe Williams, Sr. worked hard at connecting the community of Ketchikan and Saxman in more ways than the highway. Joe Williams, Sr. was highly respected in Saxman, Ketchikan and throughout South East Alaska, no matter the culture. He was of the Raven moiety, of the Beaver Clan and instrumental in preserving the Tlingit Culture in Saxman.

Naming this Coastal Trail after Joe Williams, Sr. will ensure his memory. His legacy will be remembered and cherished by the people of the communities of Saxman and Ketchikan for many years to come. Thank you very much.

Respectfully yours,

Gilbert Bengé
Mayor of Saxman

The only foreseeable cost to DOT&PF would be a minimal cost for the production of signs used to identify the trailhead and DOT&PF has agreed to absorb these costs internally.
