MEMORANDUM

January 24, 2005

To: Senator Gene Therriault, Chair
Senate State Affairs Committee

From: Senator Fred Dyson

Re: Request for Hearing SB 54

SB 54 is "An Act relating to notification to victims of sexual assault; relating to protective orders; and relating to arrests for crimes involving sexual assault, violation of protective orders, or violation of conditions of release." I respectfully request that SB 54 be heard in the Senate State Affairs Committee as soon as possible. In addition to the attached materials, I would be glad to answer any questions that may arise, as would my staff, Jason Hooley (ext. 3762). Thank you for your consideration.

SENATOR FRED DYSON

SECTIONAL ANALYSIS

SB 54—“An Act relating to protective orders for crimes involving sexual assault and stalking, to notifications to victims of sexual assault, and to mandatory arrest for crimes involving violation of protective orders and violation of conditions of release; and amending Rule 65, Alaska Rules of Civil Procedure.”

Section 1. Adds to the criminal statutes that violating a sexual assault protective order will be a class A misdemeanor, as is the current penalty for violation of a domestic violence protective order.

Section 2. Adds to the mandatory arrest provision that a peace officer shall make an arrest in cases of violating a protective order or violating conditions of release. This provision includes cases of domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking—while the current statute mentions only domestic violence.

Section 3. Adds to the remedies available to victims of stalking a provision that allows the court to determine other relevant protections.

Section 4. Creates the availability of protective orders for victims of sexual assault, and gives the respondent the right to be heard in defense. These orders are effective for six months, and offer identical remedies as protective orders for stalking victims.

Section 5. Creates the availability of ex parte orders for victims of sexual assault. Ex parte orders are obtainable without notice to the respondent and are valid for 20 days. In addition, peace officers may acquire emergency protective orders for victims of sexual assault, valid for 72 hours.

Section 6. Provides the guidelines for modification of protective orders.

Section 7. Adds the requirement that victims of sexual assault must inform the court of pending civil and criminal actions against the respondent.

Section 8. Requires the Department of Public Safety to develop a notice to inform the rights of victims of sexual assault and the services available to them. Peace officers who investigate the sexual assault will provide the notice to the victim.

Section 9. Changes Rule 65, Alaska Rules of Civil Procedure, regarding restraining orders.

This bill amends or creates statutes and rules to provide for 1) notice of certain rights to alleged victims of sexual assault; 2) mandatory arrest for all crimes of sexual assault, violations of protective orders and violations of conditions of release in sex assault cases; and 3) protective orders for alleged victims of sex assault when not a crime of domestic violence. Under current practice, most people charged with sexual assault, a violation of a protective order or a condition of release in a sex assault case, are already arrested. This bill, if enacted, is not expected to have a fiscal impact on the operations of the Agency.

ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)

The bill amends Alaska's law to add a requirement for a victims' rights notification to victims of sexual assault that is not domestic violence. It would enact a mandatory arrest provision for sexual assault, with no opportunity to contact the District Attorney for permission not to arrest in certain cases. It would amend the domestic violence protective order provisions by adding sexual assault that is not domestic violence.

Passage of this legislation and the mandatory arrest requirement will impact prosecution offices throughout the state; however, the extent and fiscal impact of the changes cannot be reliably predicted at this point in time.
