SPONSOR STATEMENT

HB 282

Conflict of Interest and State Boards, Commissions & Authorities

It is currently legal for individuals serving without pay on state boards, commissions, and authorities to raise money for state or federal elective office. House Bill 282 would require they resign their position before they declare their candidacy and begin raising money.

Ethics laws serve many purposes. Among these is the elimination of conflicts of interest, both real and perceived. Allowing members of boards, commissions, and authorities to run for political office and raise money from the very people who have a stake in matters before these bodies leaves open a window of opportunity for abuse – a window that should be permanently closed.

Current law only requires members of state boards, commissions, and authorities who receive salaries to resign their post prior to declaring candidacy for state or federal office. That only covers 22 of the 120 boards, commissions, and authorities in the state, however. HB 282 would expand the law to cover all 120 state boards, commissions and authorities, requiring paid or unpaid members, to resign their position before declaring candidacy.

HB 282 also stipulates that people who ran for elective office would not be eligible for appointment to a state board, commission, or authority for one calendar year following a bid for elective office. This creates a "cooling off" period after a person's bid for office, removing them from the immediate influence – real or perceived – of contributors who may have business before their board, commission or authority in the future.

SECTIONAL ANALYSIS

HB 282

An Act relating eligibility for membership on state boards, commissions & authorities

- Section 1: Amends AS 39.05.100 to stipulate that a person is not eligible for appointment to a state board, commission, or authority if said person sought nomination or became a candidate for elective state or federal office during the preceding year.
- Section 2: Amends AS 39.25.160(e) to stipulate that members of boards, commissions or authorities who do not receive salaries are no longer exempt from the requirement to resign once they seek nomination or become a candidate for state or national elective political office
- Section 3: States that the prohibition against appointment to a board, commission or authority for one year following a bid for office as outlined in Section 1 applies only to candidates who run for office after the effective date of the Act.

LEGISLATIVE RESEARCH REPORT

JANUARY 3, 2008

REPORT NUMBER 08.084

COMPENSATION FOR MEMBERS OF BOARDS, COMMISSIONS AND RELATED ORGANIZATIONS IN ALASKA

PREPARED FOR REPRESENTATIVE MIKE DOOGAN

BY THERESA SVANCARA, LEGISLATIVE ANALYST

You asked about boards, commissions, and related organizations, such as authorities, councils, committees, and conferences, in Alaska. Specifically, you wanted to know the number of such organizations that provide compensation other than per diem and travel reimbursement to their members.

Of the 120 currently active boards, commissions, and related organizations listed on the Office of the Governor's website, 22 organizations provide compensation besides per diem and travel reimbursement to their members.¹ Typically, the additional compensation includes salaries or honoraria paid to members for the days they attend meetings.² Table 1 shows the name of each organization and whether members receive additional compensation.

¹ Member compensation for these boards, commissions, and related organizations is available from the Office of the Governor, "List of Boards and Commissions Fact Sheets, Rosters, and Websites," online at <http://gov.state.ak.us/boards/list.php>. According to Jacob Good, executive secretary for the Governor's Boards and Commissions Office, (907) 465-3500, this is a complete list of active boards and commissions to which the governor makes appointments. For organizations that do not address the details of member compensation on the website, we obtained this information directly from the organizations: Personal communication with James Marcotte, executive director, Board of Fisheries, (907) 465-6095; Dan Seamount, governor's official representative, Interstate Oil and Gas Compact Commission, (907) 793-1221; David Witherell, deputy director, North Pacific Fishery Management Council, (907) 271-2809; Gordy Williams, special assistant, Pacific Salmon Commission - Northern Panel and Pacific Salmon Commission - Transboundary Panel, (907) 465-6143; Nancy Bird, president, Prince William Sound Science Center, Prince William Sound Oil Spill Recovery Institute Advisory Board, (907) 424-5800; Kim Skipper, aide for Representative Fairclough, Task Force to Review the Council on Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault, (907) 694-8944; and Ann Wilde, commission section manager, Regulatory Commission of Alaska, (907) 263-2163. A contact for the Alaska Statehood Celebration Commission had not returned phone calls to provide member compensation information by the time this report was completed.

² Salaries are based on State of Alaska and federal pay scales, honoraria range from $50-$400 per day.

Table 2 shows the total number of organizations that provide additional compensation reported by the type of organization. As you will see, 12 of the 58 boards provide compensation beyond per diem and travel reimbursement to their members. Six of the 29 commissions and two of the four authorities provide additional compensation. Also, one council and one committee compensate their members beyond per diem and travel reimbursement.

I hope you find this information to be useful. Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have questions or need additional information.

MEMORANDUM

To: Representative Fairclough, Co-Chair
Representative LeDoux, Co-Chair
Members of Community and Regional Affairs Committee

From: Representative Doogan

Date: February 20, 2008

Re: HB 282: An Act relating to eligibility for membership on state boards, commissions, and authorities.

During the bill hearing for HB 282 in the Community and Regional Affairs Committee on Thursday, February 14, a question was raised about the definition of 'public employee' and whether members of boards, commissions, and authorities fall within this definition.

According to Alaska Statute 39.52.960 (20), "public employee" or "employee" means a permanent, probationary, seasonal, temporary, provisional, or nonpermanent employee of an agency, whether in the classified, partially exempt, or exempt service.

Members of boards, commissions, and authorities fall within this definition as stated in A.S. 39.25.110, which concerns definitions of exempt service. According to A.S. 39.25.110 (10) members of boards, commissions, and authorities constitute employees in the exempt service.

MEMORANDUM

February 13, 2008

SUBJECT: Requested amendment to HB 282
(Work Oru. No. 25-LS1117\C.1)

TO: Representative Mike Doogan
Attn: Priya Keane

FROM: Alpheus Bullard AB
Legislative Counsel

This memorandum accompanies the amendment you requested.

The amendment excepts a person who would be appointed to a state board, commission, or authority due to the person's office or position from the operation of the bill's sec. 1. The amendment is drafted to apply to both a person who might serve "ex officio" and a person who is an eligible candidate for appointment due to the person's elective office.

Please note, (1) if the amendment is not made, there is some legal ambiguity as to whether a member serving "ex officio" is "appointed," and (2), that the bill would not make all legislators (legislators as an example) ineligible for appointment, only those legislators that had sought nomination or became candidates for elective state or federal office during the preceding year.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.
