ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)

The passage of this resolution would require the constitutional amendment to appear on the 2008 general election ballot. The cost of providing information about the constitutional amendment in the Official election Pamphlet, as required by AS 15.58 is $1.5. Should the addition of this question require printing an 8-1/2 by 18 inch ballot, the cost will increase to $22.0.

SPONSOR STATEMENT FOR HJR37

BY: REPRESENTATIVE MAX F. GRUENBERG, JR.

TITLE: "Proposing amendments to the Constitution of the State of Alaska to correct obsolete references to the office of secretary of state by substituting references to the office of lieutenant governor and to eliminate personal pronoun references in the sections proposed to be amended."

In 1970 the legislature proposed and the voters of Alaska approved a series of amendments to the state constitution that changed the name of the office of "Secretary of State" to the office of "Lieutenant Governor." At that time, however, the drafting attorneys did not catch all of the references to "Secretary of State".

HJR37 corrects the two remaining references to "Secretary of State" in the state constitution. The proposed amendments, if approved by the legislature, would be placed before the voters in the next general election.

HJR37 also corrects personal pronouns referenced in the sections.

Sectional Analysis for HJR37

BY: Representative Max F. Gruenberg, Jr.

Section 1. Amends Article II, sec. 5, Constitution of the State of Alaska

Adds: lieutenant governor
Removes: [SECRETARY OF STATE]

Section 2. Amends Article II, sec. 25 Constitution of the State of Alaska

Adds: lieutenant governor
Removes: [SECRETARY OF STATE]

These sections update by correcting the only two outdated references to "secretary of state" to "lieutenant governor" following the 1970 constitutional amendment that changed the name of that office.

Section 3. This section states that the constitutional amendments will be placed on the ballot at the next general election as required by Alaska.

Art. XIII, Sec. 1 of the Constitution. Two thirds of each House must approve the proposed amendment and a majority of the electoral voting must ratify it.

MEMORANDUM

March 10, 2008

SUBJECT: HJR 37, correcting obsolete references in the state constitution to "secretary of state" (Work Order No. 25-LS1527\C)

TO: Representative Max F. Gruenberg, Jr.

FROM: Jack Chenoweth,
Assistant Revisor

The joint resolution has been scheduled for a House State Affairs Committee hearing.

For whatever use you may choose to make of the material, set out below is a replication of my notes shared with the joint resolution's sponsor when this matter was last before the legislature in 2005.

In 1970, the legislature proposed and the voters, by a margin of 71% - 29% (yes = 46,102; no = 18,781), approved a series of amendments to the state constitution that changed the name of the constitutional office of "secretary of state" to the office of "lieutenant governor." In the 1970 joint resolution that proposed the amendments, SJR 2, a copy of which accompanies this memo, the drafting attorneys of the time did not catch all the references to "secretary of state." They missed the two that appear in article II, section 5 and article III, section 25. By proposing amendments to delete in those two sections the obsolete references to secretary of state and substituting references to lieutenant governor, this House joint resolution would correct the oversight.

Unlike statutes, corrections of errors and omissions in the state constitution cannot be completed editorially. Under article XIII, section 1, Amendments. Amendments to this constitution may be proposed by a two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature. The lieutenant governor shall prepare a ballot title and proposition summarizing each proposed amendment, and shall place them on the ballot for the next general election. If a majority of the votes cast on the proposition favor the amendment, it shall be adopted. Unless otherwise provided in the amendment, it becomes effective thirty days after the certification of the election returns by the lieutenant governor.

Corrective changes of this kind might have been proposed by a constitutional convention called to make changes to the state constitution. However, when, at ten-year intervals since 1970, the proposals have been presented to the voters as referenda under article XIII, section 3, the voters have repeatedly failed to approve calls for state constitutional conventions. The voters defeated the calls for constitutional conventions in each of the 1972, 1982, 1992, and 2002 general elections.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing that the Constitution of the State of Alaska be amended by changing the name of the secretary of state to lieutenant governor.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

* Section 1. Secs. 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 13, 14 and 15, Art. III, Constitution of the State of Alaska, are amended to read:

SECTION 7. There shall be a lieutenant governor. He shall have the same qualifications as the governor and serve for the same term. He shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by law and as may be delegated to him by the governor.

SECTION 8. The lieutenant governor shall be nominated in the manner provided by law for nominating candidates for other elective offices. In the general election the votes cast for a candidate for governor shall be considered as cast also for the candidate for lieutenant governor running jointly with him. The candidate whose name appears on the ballot jointly with that of the successful candidate for governor shall be elected lieutenant governor.

SECTION 9. In case of the temporary absence of the governor from office, the lieutenant governor shall serve as acting governor.

SECTION 10. If the governor-elect dies, resigns, or is disqualified, the lieutenant governor elected with him shall succeed to the office of governor for the full term. If the governor-elect fails to assume office for any other reason, the lieutenant governor elected with him shall serve as acting governor, and shall succeed to the office if the governor-elect does not assume his office within six months of the beginning of the term.

SECTION 11. In case of a vacancy in the office of governor for any reason, the lieutenant governor shall succeed to the office for the remainder of the term.

SECTION 13. Provision shall be made by law for succession to the office of governor and for an acting governor in the event that the lieutenant governor is unable to succeed to the office or act as governor. No election of a lieutenant governor shall be held except at the time of electing a governor.

SECTION 14. When the lieutenant governor succeeds to the office of governor, he shall have the title, powers, duties, and emoluments of that office.

SECTION 15. The compensation of the governor and the lieutenant governor shall be prescribed by law and shall not be diminished during their term of office, unless by general law applying to all salaried officers of the State.

• Sec. 2. Secs. 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6, Art. XI, Constitution of the State of Alaska, are amended to read:

SECTION 2. An initiative or referendum is proposed by an application containing the bill to be initiated or the act to be referred. The application shall be signed by not less than one hundred qualified voters as sponsors, and shall be filed with the lieutenant governor. If he finds it in proper form he shall so certify. Denial of certification shall be subject to judicial review.

SECTION 3. After certification of the application, a petition containing a summary of the subject matter shall be prepared by the lieutenant governor for circulation by the sponsors. If signed by qualified voters, equal in number to ten per cent of those who voted in the preceding general election and resident in at least two-thirds of the election districts of the State, it may be filed with the lieutenant governor.

SECTION 4. An initiative petition may be filed at any time. The lieutenant governor shall prepare a ballot title and proposition summarizing the proposed law, and shall place them on the ballot for the first statewide election held more than one hundred twenty days after adjournment of the legislative session following the filing. If, before the election, substantially the same measure has been enacted, the petition is void.

SECTION 5. A referendum petition may be filed only within ninety days after adjournment of the legislative session at which the act was passed. The lieutenant governor shall prepare a ballot title and proposition summarizing the act and shall place them on the ballot for the first statewide election held more than one hundred eighty days after adjournment of that session.

SECTION 6. If a majority of the votes cast on the proposition favor its adoption, the initiated measure is enacted. If a majority of the votes cast on the proposition favor the rejection of an act referred, it is rejected. The lieutenant governor shall certify the election returns. An initiated law becomes effective ninety days after certification, is not subject to veto, and may not be repealed by the legislature within two years of its effective date.

It may be amended at any time. An act rejected by referendum is void thirty days after certification. Additional procedures for the initiative and referendum may be prescribed by law.

Sec. 3. Secs. 1 and 3, Art. XIII, Constitution of the State of Alaska, are amended to read:

SECTION 1. Amendments to this constitution may be proposed by a two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature. The lieutenant governor shall prepare a ballot title and proposition summarizing each proposed amendment, and shall place them on the ballot for the next statewide election. If a majority of the votes cast on the proposition favor the amendment, it shall be adopted. Unless otherwise provided in the amendment, it becomes effective thirty days after the certification of the election returns by the lieutenant governor.

SECTION 3. If during any ten-year period a constitutional convention has not been held, the lieutenant governor shall place on the ballot for the next general election the question: "Shall there be a Constitutional Convention?" If a majority of the votes cast on the question are in the negative, the question need not be placed on the ballot until the end of the next ten-year period. If a majority of the votes cast on the question are in the affirmative, delegates to the convention shall be chosen at the next regular statewide election, unless the legislature provides for the election of the delegates at a special election. The lieutenant governor shall issue the call for the convention. Unless other provisions have been made by law, the call shall conform as nearly as possible to the act calling the Alaska Constitutional Convention of 1955, including, but not limited to, number of members, districts, election and certification of delegates, and submission and ratification of revisions and ordinances. The appropriation provisions of the call shall be self-executing and shall constitute a first claim on the state treasury.

Sec. 4. Sec. 9, Art. XV, Constitution of the State of Alaska, is amended to read:

SECTION 9. The first governor and lieutenant governor shall hold office for a term beginning with the day on which they assume office and ending at noon on the first Monday in December of the even-numbered year following the next presidential election. This term shall count as a full term for purposes of determining eligibility for re-election only if it is four years or more in duration.

Sec. 5. The amendments proposed by this resolution shall be placed before the voters of the state at the next statewide election in conformity with sec. 1, art. XIII, of the Constitution of the State of Alaska, and the state election law.
