In Alaska, anyone who is 21 years of age or older and legally allowed to own a firearm is allowed to carry it concealed without a permit. However, there are still people who obtain Alaska Concealed Handgun Permits (ACHP) for other reasons, including reciprocity with other states. In the past few years, a few glitches in the permit system have come to light.

House Bill 319 makes the following changes to the statutes regarding an ACHP permit:

- ♦ Clarifies that a permit does not have to be surrendered when it expires or when a permit holder moves out of the state;
- ♦ clarifies that an expired permit can be displayed, as long as the permit holder is not claiming that it is a valid permit;
- ♦ requires the Department of Public Safety to mail a notice to the permit holder at least 90 days prior to the expiration of a permit; and
- ♦ allows the Department of Public Safety to use electronic applications and post the regulations and statutes on its website, instead of providing paper copies.

HB 319 also requires the chief law enforcement officer (CLEO) in Alaska jurisdictions to complete, in a timely manner, the required certification on an application to the Bureau of Alcohol Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (BATFE) for approval to transfer a firearm registered under the National Firearms Act (NFA) of 1934 to a person who is qualified under state law to possess the firearm.

The CLEO certification is a mandatory step in the BATFE transfer process and unjustified delays in processing or refusal to cooperate compromise Second Amendment rights.

House Bill 319 makes commonsense changes to our ACHP statutes and ensures that NFA firearms transfers are not inappropriately obstructed.

House Bill 319

"An Act relating to firearms."

Summary of Changes

The House Judiciary Committee made the following change:

Page 1, line 4, following "The department shall":
DELETED "provide a permittee with"
INSERTED "mail the permittee a"

The House Finance Committee made the following changes:

Added sections 1 and 2, which allow the Department of Public Safety to use electronic applications for Alaska Concealed Handgun Permits and post the regulations and statutes on its website, instead of providing paper copies.

Delayed the effective date of the section 3 (f), which requires the Department of Public Safety to send a notice to a permittee 90 days prior to their permit's expiration. This will allow the department to plan for these changes as part of the current update of their APSIN system, which will negate any fiscal impact of this legislation.

Background Information

Prepared by Representative Mike Hawker's Office

Section 3 of House Bill 319 requires the local law enforcement certification section of a Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (BATFE) firearm transfer application to be completed by the appropriate law enforcement officer within 30 days of submission by a person who is legally qualified to own the firearm. Attached is a copy of the BATFE firearm transfer application, also known as a "Form 4." Section 17 (highlighted on page 2 of the attached form) is the local law enforcement certification section that would have to be completed.

ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)

This bill amends the statute relating to hand gun permits requiring Department of Public Safety to mail a notice to a permittee at least 90 days before expiration of the permit. The bill clarifies that a permittee is not required to return or surrender a permit upon expiration and a permittee may not represent an expired permit as valid unless the holder has submitted a timely renewal form. A permittee may not renew a permit if the permittee is not a resident of the state at time of renewal. This bill provides that the chief law enforcement officer in Alaska jurisdictions to execute within 30 days federal firearms forms required for the transfer of a firearm.

Enactment of the bill is not anticipated to fiscally impact the Department of Law.

ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)

This proposed legislation will require the Department of Public Safety (DPS) to provide written notice of expiration via first class mail to concealed handgun permit holders at least 90 days before the expiration of their permit.

A permit is not required to carry a concealed handgun in Alaska but DPS makes them available to citizens of Alaska. Because the permit is not required in Alaska, some permit holders forget to renew their permits before the expiration date resulting in higher fees for the permit holder.

A concealed handgun permit is valid for five years from the date of issue. Prior to 10/07/2009, the permit renewal date was based on the date the permit was originally issued. (cont.)

FISCAL NOTE #3

STATE OF ALASKA
2010 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

BILL NO. CSHB 319(FIN)

ANALYSIS CONTINUATION

During the 2009 legislative session, HB 201 was passed which provides that permits issued/renewed on or after 10/07/2009 shall expire on the permittee's birthdate in the fifth year following issuance/renewal. HB 201 was a direct effort to assist permit holders with remembering to renew their concealed handgun permit by synchronizing their permit expiration date with their birthdate. The legislation proposed under Section 1 of HB 319 furthers this effort.

Records for concealed handgun permit holders are maintained in the concealed handgun permit (CHP) database which sends information to the Alaska Public Safety Information Network (APSIN). Programming changes to both the CHP database and APSIN will be required to systematically identify those permits expiring within 90 days and to automatically generate, print, and save notices of expiration and to update the CHP database to display the date the letter was generated. Automating the notification process will ensure all permit holders receive timely notice of expiration of their permit as this legislation proposes.

The programming changes will be implemented during the process of the APSIN redesign and upgrades. Section 1 (e) of the bill has an effective date of July 1, 2012, thus allowing time for the redesign to be in place.

The cost of one software license at $899. Based on an average of 1,535 renewal notices per year, the cost of supplies (paper, envelopes, and postage) is estimated to be $900 per year. The cost of the license and supplies will be absorbed within the departments budget.

3. Approval of Application. Upon approval of an application, the NFA Branch will affix the appropriate NFA transfer tax stamp, cancel it, and return the approved copy with the stamp affixed to the transferor for delivery with the firearm to the transferee. Since the approval of the application effectuates registration of the firearm to the transferee, the physical transfer of the firearm must be completed immediately; however, the transferor must not transfer the firearm until the application has been approved and received. If the physical transfer of the firearm cannot be completed immediately, the transferor must contact the NFA Branch with the specifics.
 4. Withdrawal of Application. The transferor may withdraw an application prior to approval subsequent to a written request. The NFA Branch will arrange for a refund of the tax paid.
 5. Cancellation of Approved Application. The transferor may cancel an approved application only if the physical transfer of the firearm has not been completed. The transferor must return the approved application with the tax stamp affixed with a written request for cancellation, citing the need and that the physical transfer of the firearm did not take place. The NFA Branch will arrange for a refund of the tax paid.
 6. Disapproval of Application. If the application is disapproved, the NFA Branch will note the reason for disapproval on the application and return one copy of the ATF Form 4 to the transferor. The NFA Branch will arrange for a refund of the tax paid.

7. Reasons for Disapproval. 26 U.S.C. § 5812 provides that applications shall be denied if the transfer, receipt, or possession of the firearm would place the transferee in violation of law.
- a. State or Local Law. If State or local law prohibits the receipt or possession of the firearm being transferred, the application will be disapproved.
 - b. Persons Prohibited from Receiving a Firearm. The application will be disapproved if the transferee is a person prohibited from receiving a firearm by 18 U.S.C. § 922(g), which provides that it shall be unlawful for any person—

 - (3) who is an unlawful user of or addicted to any controlled substance;

 - (6) who has been discharged from the Armed Forces under dishonorable conditions;
 - (7) who, having been a citizen of the United States, has renounced his citizenship;
 - (8) who is subject to a court order that—
 - (A) was issued after a hearing of which such person received actual notice, and at which such person had an opportunity to participate;

- Section 1: Allows the Department of Public Safety to use an electronic application for an Alaska Concealed Handgun Permit and to post the laws and regulations on its website, instead of providing a paper copy.
- Section 2: Allows the Department of Public Safety to use an electronic application to renew an Alaska Concealed Handgun Permit.
- Section 3: Adds two new sections to AS 18.65.725 (Alaska Concealed Handgun Permit renewal):
- (e) Clarifies that a person does not become ineligible to hold a permit and does not need to surrender the permit if he or she ceases to be a resident of the state. Alaska residency is still a requirement to obtain or renew a permit.

- Section 4: Clarifies that a person can display an expired permit, but cannot represent it as valid, and that an expired permit does not need to be surrendered to the department.
- Section 5: Requires the local law enforcement certification section of a Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives firearm transfer application to be executed by the appropriate law enforcement officer within 30 days of submission by a person who is legally qualified to own the firearm.
- Section 6: Delayed effective date for section 3 (f).
