Hello,

I recently submitted an application for a seat on the Alaska Board of Parole as well as interest in serving on the Alaska Board of Game, the Alaska Police Standards Council board and the National Park and Park Monument Subsistence Resource Commission.

My interest in serving on the Parole Board stems from the 22 years I spent working for the Department of Corrections, the last ten years of that service as a Parole/Probation Officer. Having interacted with the Parole Board as a routine part of supervising parolees, I have a solid working knowledge of the process. What I would bring to the table as a board member is a fair and reasonable voice. During my career with Corrections I can proudly say I never put someone in jail that didn't absolutely need to be there. I worked with offenders and treated them without bias. I feel being reasonable and being willing to listen to all viewpoints and consider them sans personal ego is a critical factor for public service.

During my years with Corrections I spent a great deal of time with training and thus my interest in the Alaska Police Standards Council Board.

As a lifelong outdoorsman I have a special interest in the management of our wildlife resources. The Board of Game at times reflects more special interest than it should. I don't have the biology degree that would suggest expertise in the management field however, with 43 years of Alaska residency and utilization of wildlife resources I have a vast knowledge of the subject. I can listen to the professionals with the Department of Fish and Game as well as other outdoor user groups with an experienced ear and a reasonable balance. The same would apply to my interest in the issues concerning subsistence use of federal lands.

Thank you for any consideration.

Sincerely,

Steven A. Meyer

Dean Williams Falsely Attacks COs, then Appointed Commissioner

There is no other way to say it; yesterday's announcement was an unmitigated disaster for Correctional Officers. Seven years of hell, then a year and a half of trying to work with the new Governor ... followed by the best possible outcome, Walt Monegan became acting Commissioner. It would be an understatement to say things were looking up. Walt's sincere support and concern for Officers and all Corrections personnel was the culture change this Department needed. Unfortunately, this is also probably why he is no longer acting DOC Commissioner.

Obviously, some of our friends and fellow Officers are hurting more than others because of Dean Williams' appointment. Everyone was hurt by his depiction of Officers in the press, but having your face all over the news and accused of being responsible for a death, all while conducting your duties as trained and per policy, is horrific. Then to have the Governor name the same person responsible for releasing the video with false statements as the new Commissioner, is downright scary.

We cannot have a Commissioner discipline COs for doing their jobs, who thinks pepper spray is cruel, and every time an inmate dies thinks it is somehow a CO's fault. No one, absolutely no one from the State or DOC, stood up publically for Correctional Officers, no one said, they did what they were supposed to do. We had to act and defend the Officers, not that it will reverse what has already been done, but we had to try to prevent more videos being released with more false statements.

We must rebut the report. COs cannot be second guessing themselves every time there is an incident or an inmate acts out. No one wants to be accused of excessive force when an inmate dies from an overdose, but at the same time you are expected to do your job. It is a no win situation.

You should know that we tried to work this out with Dean Williams (more than once) as well as the Governor personally. We beseeched Dean Williams to stop releasing videos with a false narrative, and give us time to show him where he was wrong. We were not only ignored, but they then released the Kobuk video, again with an extremely false narrative, and someone altered the video by removing the audio. Of course removing the audio from the video allowed them to portray Kobuk as a victim whereas the audio of him screaming that he was going to kill Officers and that he wanted to splatter their brains all over the wall, did not fit in Dean Williams' false narrative of "bad Officers".

Bottom line, Dean Williams wrote a false report, he left out vital information and someone altered evidence. If a Correctional Officer had done any of these things, they would have been fired.

There is a lot to say, a lot to do. In the meantime, do not be disheartened. We have been through tough times before and we have always prevailed. Before betraying Correctional Officers, before disrespecting Correctional Officers publically, before putting Correction employees at risk, they should have checked the record and found out just how successful Correctional Officers have been at defending themselves.

Subject: Dean Williams' Administrative Review of Alaska Dept. of Corrections

Dear Mr. Lynn,

My name is Annisa Dunkerley, I am a Correctional Officer at Goose Creek Correctional Center. I am writing to you not only on my behalf but on behalf of the other officers mentioned in the review of AK D.O.C. On March 26th at 1336 hours I had to make the tragic call for A1 responders to Fox Mod. I had discovered an inmate who hung himself. As my heart sank at what I just found I had to keep calm and in control of the 128 inmates around me. After my radio call, I ordered my mod to lockdown. Other officers that were in the core began to come into my mod to assist. Most of the mod had locked down when A1 responders were coming through the door. I had informed them as they were coming up to the top tier of the inmate's condition. They immediately began CPR, which continued until EMS arrived on scene. At 1415 hours EMS took over and worked on Mr. Brant, when EMS left Fox mod at 1433, Mr. Brant had a faint heartbeat and life flight was waiting for transport. It was the A1 responders that performed CPR for 40 minutes that assisted in EMS getting a pulse. Sadly, Mr. Brant was declared brain dead and placed on life support until next of kin could be notified.

This day will forever live with me, unfortunately this is a reality in the career of corrections. No officer ever wants to find a suicide. I was later informed by the Assistant Superintendent that this inmate was sitting in his window watching and waiting for me to do my security check, knowing he would have 30 min before I would find him. After I passed his cell he disappeared from view, I discovered him 18 minutes later. I was told not only did I do everything right, finding someone 18 minutes after they attempt suicide is rare in DOC.

As you're aware we are always on camera at GCCC, my logbook as well as video supports that I correctly followed all policy & procedures in place for such an event. As I read the review on my case, (page 9 case 3) I was very upset to say the least. It insinuates that we failed to render aid to this inmate in a timely manner. The way this case was reported in this review is highly inaccurate. There were many factors that were not mentioned or taken into consideration by Mr. Williams & Mr. Hanlon. Considering how grossly inaccurate this case was represented I think its safe to say that the entire report has been equally inaccurate. I couldn't help but take this personally, it was an attack on my character, integrity, and me as an officer.

Many do not understand what our work day and work environment consist of. We are severely understaffed, and many times have to pull support staff to assist in covering security staff. We surround ourselves with those society deems to dangerous to be on the street. We give our all to make sure our institutions run safely, we miss holidays and special family moments to ensure everyone is safe. We already have a target on us when we are in public, and now due to the media and the very inaccurate reporting of CO's and how and why we do what we do, we have a much bigger target on our backs as well as our families. The videos I have seen on the news, are only part of the situation. They didn't show the actions of an inmate that forced the officers to do what was shown. This not only is a slap in the face to all CO's, but further puts us all at risk. We have had officers cars shot at, death threats to "anyone in uniform", many of us have been followed as we leave work, myself included.

I am asking you to support us and the ACOA in correcting this wrong. To help educate the public that this report was biased and inaccurate.

Thank you for your time,

Officer Dunkerley

Greetings,

I am writing in regard to the Administrative Review that was done by Dean Williams prior to his assumption of command of the Alaska Department of Corrections.

I am currently a corrections sergeant, and have worked many positions during my ten years at DOC, including seven years at the Anchorage Complex. I know many of the officers who were unfairly targeted in the review, including being falsely accused of criminal behavior. The unbelievable stress they and their families have been subjected to is grossly unfair, and endangering to us all.

Those officers, by and large, are fine, hard-working people who suffered a huge disservice for doing their jobs the way they were trained, and in the way they are still expected, per policy, to perform their jobs. In at least one case, where they were accused of criminal wrongdoing by Mr. Williams, they had already been cleared by special prosecutions! Months prior!

In addition, the true cause of death in the Anchorage Jail death of the combative prisoner was never revealed to the public - Alaskans and the prisoner's family were left to believe the man died due to brutality! He actually died, according to the Medical Examiner, of illegal drug intoxication, compounded by a very serious heart condition and alcohol consumption.

These are officers who are routinely threatened, spat upon, who are called vicious names, sometimes have feces and urine thrown at them, or are physically attacked. Yet they perform their jobs professionally, day after day, in conditions most Americans, including the police, would never find the courage to endure. They deal with vomit, urine and feces - ugly, violent individuals - people who have just brutalized a child, a woman, or an animal - people who are brought into custody in varying stages of fragility due to self-abuse - people who think nothing of lying, cheating or stealing - and all must be treated equally, fairly, with courtesy and restraint.

These officers are professionals who work under extreme stress, with not enough back-up or staffing, in often extremely unsafe conditions. For example, booking officers often go for the full 12 hour shift without a single break.

Please examine the review carefully, and help safeguard the officers who put themselves on the line on a daily basis.

Thank you,

Deborah Luper

Subject: Email Testimony on for Commission Dean Williams

Thank you for the opportunity to provide written testimony regarding the confirmation of Commissioner Dean Williams.

The goal is for all to be safe irrespective of the uniform – blue, red, or yellow. No system is perfect and we are still dealing with a population that is largely damaged through illicit substances, mental illness, abuse or antisocial/criminal thinking. We have a cadre of a diverse staff that cares to do a very difficult job and thankless job with a volatile group of people that enter 24/7 in a variety of states, unfortunately their issues aren't always readily apparent. Oftentimes personnel shortages will stress the even the best process when well intentioned people are working to get things done under tight time constraints and personnel shortfalls. With this new team we have the opportunity to move forward and address issues identified in many studies which includes staffing as well as procedure. I believe the team as we have been recently formed will work well with our staff in the facilities and here in the Commissioner's office, as both Director Busby and myself are long time security staff and former superintendents and understand the inner workings of the facilities and can work with the folks there.

Thank you for you taking my testimony and understanding our intent to move this Department forward in a positive and very safe manner.

Very Respectfully,

CLARE M SULLIVAN

To whom it may concern,

I am writing this letter in regards to my husband, Ofc. Michael Williams. I really felt lead to express my feelings in the following matter.

On November 27, 2013 I received a phone call that no wife wants to hear. My husband had been assaulted by an inmate while on shift at the Anchorage Correctional Complex East Side. All I knew was he had been hit in the face and probably had a broken nose. My Heart sank as I immediately found a sitter for my young children and headed the more than 1-hour drive to Alaska Regional Hospital.

To spare you all the details, my husband had a broken nose. He had surgery 5 days later to try and straighten his nose. In that surgery it was found that every piece of cartilage in his nose was broken along with the bridge of his nose. It was so severe that the nose was actually disconnect at the root. Michael had to spend the next three months healing before he could have the reconstructive surgery to fix his nose.

Those three months were excruciating. Not only for Michael, but for myself and his children. He hurt all the time. He couldn't breathe and was always short of breath. A once very active husband and father was reduced to a sub-par quality of life. It was torturous to watch my husband go through these things. Plus, our lives came to an immediate halt. His injury may not have been life threatening per say but it was life changing.

Michael went back to work before his second surgery and that was traumatic for us all. The kids (ages between 16-7 at the time) were horribly frightened for their Dad. They didn't want him to get hurt again. To this day the kids and I both spend a lot of time worrying about Michael every time he is at work. The thought never leaves my mind that he may get hurt again and this time much worse because the conditions in which he works remains the same.

Michael had his finally surgery and it was just as intense as the first time. When they repaired his nose, the surgeon said that even a small hit to his nose could cause damage and if that were to happen, they couldn't repair it. At that point they would have to take cartilage from other parts of his body to repair it.

It has been 2 years since his final surgery. His nose still swells at times and aches. He has never regained all the feeling in his nose either.

What I really felt lead to convey in this letter was two things. The first was the pain my husband had to endure and the pain his family had to endure along with him. I would have rather gone through the pain myself than watch my Husband walk through that. I hope this letter gives you some understanding into what our family has had to walk through in the last 2 and a half years. Thank you so much for taking the time to read this. I pray it makes an impact and a difference.

Sincerely,

Joleen Williams

NOMINATIONS QUESTIONS

We have three gubernatorial appointments to consider today: Alaska Police Standards Council – Brad Reich; Personnel Board – Keith Hamilton; and Dean Williams for Commissioner of Corrections. The State Affairs Committee has direct legislative oversight, from macro to mirco, over the Department of Corrections.

After all three appointment reviews are complete, we will be conducting an Overview of the Division of Corrections “Administrative Review” conducted by Commissioner Williams. Due primarily to time restraints, we will not be taking any public testimony on any of today’s agenda. However, written testimony is welcome.

- Alaska Police Standards Council
Brad Reich
- Personnel Board
Keith Hamilton
- Commissioner of Corrections
Dean Williams

Welcome Commissioner to our State Affairs Committee. My Staff and I had the pleasure of meeting with you last week in my office, and some of what we discussed may come up again today. Please introduce yourself for the record, give us some of your background, and tell us why you would like to have your nomination as Commissioner of Corrections confirmed.

NOMINATION QUESTIONS

1. When and why did you move to Alaska? Where is your family home? Where is your Office?
2. As all of Alaska knows, we are in a hiring freeze. However, there were exemptions, those being Alaska State Troopers, Corrections and Probations Officers. With that said, why would you hire a media person for approximately $80,000 per year instead of a Correctional understaffed

Officer? The shortage of Correctional Officers have caused a lot of problems with security in several correctional facilities.

3. Have you ever run for public office?
4. When you worked for Rep. Reinbold was that a paid position or a volunteer position?
5. Have you ever been asked to resign or retire?
6. Have you ever applied for military service?
7. Every working place has a unique "culture." How would you describe the culture of Corrections as compared to McLaughlin?

8. Some of the Union Corrections people have been very vocal about your appointment as Commissioner. Can you speculate about why that might be, and what actions might you make to resolve any issues?
 9. You were appointed by the governor to conduct a review of Corrections, and we'll be discussing the Administrative Review after this nomination process. Then you were appointed Commissioner after your Administrative Review.

Some might say, you created your own job as Commissioner.

10. The governor apparently conducted a job search, and then at some point you applied for the job and were appointed. Can you walk us through that process?

REVIEW QUESTIONS

We'll now be considering the Administrative Review report of the Department of Corrections, done by Dean Williams and Joe Hanlon.

1. It appears that every legislator and their Uncle got a copy from the Correctional Officers Association called the "Officers Perspective". It's called a rebuttal to your review of your Department of Corrections. I just saw it last night and I don't know if you received it or not. Its approximately 52 pages. Have you had a chance to review it at all? If so, do you have any comments?

2. How is it that you got selected by the governor to conduct this review?
3. How do you plan on fixing the morale in the department?
4. There's been a lot of concern from a lot of people about the faces of the Correctional Officer's not being blurred, when the Kobuk video went public. I think this endangered the lives of the Correctional Officers and their families. Whose decision was it not to blur the faces of the Correctional Officers? Was it your decision or the Governor's decision?

5. Did you interview every officer in each of the videos that you had claimed any wrongdoing?

6. My office reviewed your Standard Policies as you stated in your report. Most of the policies were grossly outdated. Surprisingly there were policies with the same policy numbers/titles, two or three versions. Much of your report was based on the policies. Which version was the Correctional Officers following and which version was your report based off?

7. You state in your report that some juveniles endured some solitary confinement up to 22 hours a day. Yet these juveniles receive teaching during that period of time. How could that be?
8. Apparently our Attorney General conducted an investigation of alleged excessive force by Correctional Officers. The Attorney General determined there was no excessive force. Yet you called the human resources department to give them the official reprimand, why did you contradict the Attorney General's office?

9. In another instance the Alaska Bureau of Investigations, the Attorney General's Office and the Alaska State Troopers had already evaluated the Officer's actions in this incident and found no wrong doing on their part.

Who was right? Why?

→ 10. In your position of

Hypothetical

Commissioner, would you ever hire a deputy commissioner that had previously been put on the rejection list of the Department of Corrections for having tried to smuggle in drugs to a correctional facility?

(On 9/26/1985, Carmen Gutierrez was charged with 3rd degree Felony for Misconduct Involving a Controlled Substance. I have no idea if she spent any jail time or not. She was only given a Suspended Imposition of Sentence, which expired on May 30, 1987)
