HB 1, "An Act declaring the Arctic policy of the state."

Sponsor Statement

Alaskans are on the forefront of new exploration and use of Arctic resources, and of new circumpolar cooperation. Providing relevant information about the reality of the emerging Arctic, understanding and communicating the critical issues that affect this frontier, and instilling confidence in the promise of safety and prosperity is essential as Alaska and America move forward to ensure both.

HB 1 is a product of the Alaska Arctic Policy Commission (AAPC). HB 1 was informed by public and expert testimony at all of the AAPC's plenary meetings, including testimony from numerous indigenous organizations. In addition, the AAPC convened work sessions and listening sessions on broad topic areas that informed its Final Report, Implementation Plan and HB 1.

Alaska's Arctic policy is designed to guide the state's initiatives and inform U.S. domestic and international Arctic policy in order to best serve the interests of Alaskans and the nation.

HB 1 states that it is the intent of the legislature that this Arctic policy: Be implemented through statutes and regulations; Not conflict with existing state policy; Serve as a guide for legislation derived from the AAPC's Implementation Plan; and Communicate the Arctic interests of the state to other governments.

HB 1 declares that it is Alaska's Arctic policy to:

- 1) Uphold the state's commitment to economically vibrant communities while maintaining a healthy environment;
- 2) Collaborate with all appropriate entities to achieve transparent and inclusive Arctic decision-making;

- 3) Enhance Alaska's security by strengthening Arctic safety; and
- 4) Value and strengthen the resilience of arctic communities and respect & integrate the culture and knowledge of Arctic peoples.

The bill also asks the state to support and encourage consideration of the recommendations in the AAPC Implementation Plan. Priority lines of effort for the state's Arctic policy include:

- 1) Promoting economic and resource development;
- 2) Addressing the infrastructure and response capacity gap in the Arctic;
- 3) Supporting healthy communities; and
- 4) Strengthening a state-based agenda for Arctic science & research.

Lastly, this bill aligns the state's definition of its Arctic boundary with that of the federal Arctic Research and Policy Act (1984). For international purposes, "Arctic" means the entirety of the state.

If passed this legislation will help Alaska to become the leader it needs to be on Arctic policy, and to more effectively partner (and contend) with the federal government on shaping a prosperous Arctic future.

BILL NO. HB1

Analysis

This legislation directs the executive branch to participate in Arctic Council workgroups and be engaged in the policies and guidance developed therein. There are several different workgroups. Historically, the Division of Spill Prevention and Response (SPAR) has found it beneficial to participate on the Emergency Prevention, Preparedness and Response (EPPR) workgroup as they frequently work on oil spill prevention and response issues. Workgroups meet up to four times a year.

The Division of Spill Prevention and Response does not have sufficient funding in its FY2016 budget to allow for additional travel related to participation with Arctic Council workgroups. Per conversation with the sponsor, additional travel is not required or anticipated under the legislation. If additional travel is required, alternate sources of funding would be required.

FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2015 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

BILL NO. HB001

Analysis

This bill asks the state to support and encourage consideration of the recommendations in the Alaska Arctic Policy Commission (AAPC) Implementation Plan. Priority lines of effort for the state's Arctic policy include: (1) promoting economic and resource development; (2) addressing the infrastructure and response capacity gap in the Arctic; (3) supporting healthy communities; and (4) strengthening a state-based agenda for Arctic science & research.

If this bill passes, several DHSS Divisions would likely be required to assist with implementation, as it pertains to supporting healthy communities and strengthening a state-based agenda for Arctic science and research. Some of the major public and behavioral health impacts that need to be addressed will pertain to environmental contaminants, subsistence food resource changes, climate change, cultural changes in communities, changing infectious and chronic disease patterns, access to medical care, and emergency response capacity. Until more specifics are known, the department is unable to predict the cost, if any, to implementing the policy recommendations. Therefore, this is a zero fiscal note.
