SPONSOR STATEMENT

HB 198

"An Act relating to per diem for members of the legislature."

It is the intent of the sponsor that all State employees be treated fairly, to be on an even playing field if your State job requires you to travel. This bill seeks to restructure legislative per diem allowance to be paid in line with all other State of Alaska employees (GGU) as outlined in the Alaska Administrative Manual (AAM 60.Travel).

RE: Hearing Request – HB198 - "An Act relating to per diem for members of the legislature."

I respectfully request that HB 198 be scheduled at your earliest possible convenience.

HB198 calls for a legislator's per diem allowance not exceed the allowance rate in effect for (GGU) state employees. In today's fiscal crisis, any and all savings should be considered.

I ask for your support of this legislation. Please contact my staff, Angela Stephl, if you have any questions.

Sincerely,
